VOTE FOR Hon. Henry W. Tracy, OF BRADFORD, FOR CONGRESS.

For this very important office the Democrats of this District made no nomination. but simply recommended the Democratic voters of the District to east their ballots for Hon. HENRY W. TRACY, of Bradford county, who is an independent candidate, though a Republican of the conservative school, one who detests Abolitionism with as much earnestness as does the Democratic party itsel f. The Apolitionists of the District, Wilmo! & Co., nominated Rev. GEORGE LANDON, of Towards, for Corgress; but on learning the action of the Democratic Conference, which met at Bloomsburg on the 50th ult., they called t gether a lew of the leading men of their party and with Jrew the name of Landon, and placed on the Ticket the name of ROBERT F. CLARK, Esq., of Columbia, for that office, as Wilmot's second choice.

Mr. Clark can be considered and treated. only, as the candidate of the Wilmot faction; or, in other words, the willing tool of an Abolition crew, which dare not risk their pet, Landon, before the people. Clark is placed in the shoes of Landon, and is no doubt doubly pledged to carry out, if succesafel, the extreme measures of those men who placed him upon the ticket, Wilmot & Co. Who would be so silly as to expect Dave Wilmot to sacrifice Landon for any other person than one who he could feel sure was formed and shaped through this own moulds, and infused with the same ideas on the negro question. This is a matter that must be acceded before Wilmot & Co, would think of placing a substitute on the course in Landon's stead. Any per son who does not vote for HENRY W. TRACY, for Congress, in this District, but votes for Clark, casts his ballot for Dave Wilmot & Co, Abolitionists of the deepest tinge .-They virtually as knowledge the strength of Mr. Tracy by withdrawing Mr. Laypon and taking up Class whom they suppose not so offensive, or his views of Abolitionism so prominent, to the voters of this District.-These dodges will not pay. The time for blanketing candidates is gone by. The people cannot and will not be cheated this

Let the Vote be Large.

It is hoped that no Democrat will be deceived into apathy on the day of election by the absence of a regular ticket of the Republican opposition. Their apparent unncern may prove a trick at the eleventh hour. But even if not so, we want the mor effect of a large vote that will convince e country that the Democracy are arousd and in earnest for the maintenance of he Constitution and rescue of the Republic from the ruin in which it has been and is almost engulphed by sectional fanaticism, treachery, peculation and robbery.

Of the Democratic Standing Committee to the Democracy of Columbia County.

At a meeting of the Democratic Standing Committee of Columbia county, held at Bloomsburg, Oct 7, 1862, pursuant to a call of the Chairman. After a free interchange of opinion, the following address was unanimously adopted, and ordered to be pub-

The extraordinary situation of affairs in his Congressional District seems to make it expedient that the Democratic Standing Committee of Columbia County, should briefly address their fellow citizens in relation thereto.

It is perfectly well known that a late Republican Legislature, amongst other iniquithe voters of this region, by so arranging the Congressional Districts that every Democratic county north of Barks, should be virtually disfranchised by being joined to some one having an overwhelming abolition majority.
