WITH the exception of a few little squabbles, which grew out of some misunderstandings, politically, the election passed off remarkably quiet, in this place. Capt. Whisky was on hand, ready to do his mischief : but he was not allowed much sway and those better acquainted with him seem. ed to shun the tangle foot.

ROBERT F. CLARE, Esq., is a pretty clever fellow, "and all that," but he cau't go to Congress this time. A year or two ago he would have made a much better run in this county. If other districts change in the same proportion with the above townships, the Democtatic ticket will have gained over last year's vote in the neighborhood of some three handred, at the lowest estimate. A more dispirited set of fellows you never beard of tuan just these Republicans and Abolitionists the morning after the election! They knew nothing, nor made no inquiries respecting the election. They were complenely housed up ; some of them not being able to be out to receive the returns. This was a large buttle, one in which Andy Curtin's entire Militia force were engaged, under command of General Election. The engigement was a bloodless one, though the ground was warmly contested by the disputants. The troops in the battle outnumbered McClellaus army at the Antietam fight. His force was nothing to compare with those engaged in cleaning out Abolition on Tuesday last! It thundered all over old Pennsylvania, louder than did littie Mac's gans at Sharpsburg!
