

STAR OF THE NORTH

BLOOMSBURG, PA.
Wednesday Morning, Sept. 3, 1863.

Portraits.—Splendid Portraits of Judge Woodward, the Democratic candidate for Governor, for sale by Col. Freese, at the Recorder's Office. Call and buy one—Price thirty cents.

We notice the draft has been made in quite a number of counties in this State, and those districts favorable to Republicanism have until the middle of October to report, while those more Democratic are found to be badly needed, and are notified to report in a short time. Is there any justice in this proceeding?

Beaumont.—being an ignominious failure as a commander in the field, seems to be ambitious of earning a reputation like Butler did at New Orleans, by a career of infamous administrative tyranny.

Peaches.—Hiram J. Reider, of Franklin township, this county, has, for thanks for those peaches presented to us. They were fine and we think we did justice to them. Mr. R. is the most extensive peach grower in this county. He has a splendid peach orchard, and raises large and valuable crops. His experience as a horticulturist, especially in the peach line, is hard to surpass. Success to him.

New subscribers are coming in daily from all quarters. We sustained quite a considerable loss in the closing up of our office, during our drafted term, but the prospects are fair towards making it up to us in a short time. We hesitate not in saying that the Star of the North has fully merited the support of the truly loyal men of Columbia county. And we can state further that no young man in the county has made greater sacrifice in entering the army than we, save that of life. We will endeavor to print a good paper, sustaining "Truth and Right—God and our Country."

Col. John G. Frazar has for sale at the Recorder's Office, Bloomsburg, Fifty Copies of "Sheppard's Constitutional Text-Book," recommended by the best Judges and Lawyers of the country, for the use of the public. Different editions come at from 75 cts. to $1.25.

He has been induced to send for them because they have been so frequently inquired after. They are the same editions he uses in his speeches. Call and buy one.

Guns.—The two companies of soldiers who have been stationed here for some time, left on Tuesday to rejoin their Regiment, the 24th Corn Exchange, which is expected to return to Philadelphia soon, to be mustered out of service. The constant enquiry while they were here was: Who sent for them? What were they brought here for? And why were they retained here? Perhaps some frightened old grannies could answer that question. We hope they will sleep soundly at night now without visions of Amazons armed with broomsticks to disturb their dreams.—Dumville Intelligencer.

Barnard Knapp, James Wiley, and J. D. Keenan were last week convicted of an aggravated assault upon a Democrat in Erie county, and each sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs of prosecution. This class of persons are now receiving the attention they deserve, and it is being demonstrated that there is but one kind of law for Democrats and Republicans.

Dr. Pen-John appears to be considerably exasperated about "Copperheads," and "Copperhead meetings" which he states are being held in Columbia county. From his paper we might judge that the whole Democratic party were "Copperheads," as scarcely an allusion is made to that party or its candidates without the appellation "Copperhead." We don't understand why it is that the Democratic party are more copperish than the Abolition party, unless it is as one of our speakers remarked the other day, that Uncle Abraham had made a good many "Greenbacks," which were given to the Government swindlers and contractors and the poor Democrats were compelled to put up with the "old pennies."

Judge Woodward is a citizen of UNIMPEACHABLE CHARACTER, AN ABLE JURIST, AND A PATRIOTIC GENTLEMAN.—Philadelphia Inquirer, June 18, 1863, (Republican paper).

This is a good endorsement of the Democratic candidate for Governor, coming as it does from one of the most influential Republican journals of the State.

The Abolition candidate for Governor, Andy Curtin, has commenced his tour of stamping the State for re-election. He will have to explain his action in regard to the signing of the bill repealing the Tonnage Tax, on the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. He told the citizens of this county, when he was a candidate before, that it was dangerous to elect Henry D. Foster, the Democratic candidate, as he (Foster) was counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., and it might be expected would favor the passage of a bill exempting the Company from tonnage duties. What did he do, and what was he pledged to do, at the very time he made this assertion? Why, one of the very first acts of his administration was to sign the bill, which he assured the people he would not favor, making the taxpayers of this Commonwealth pay the State some $300,000 annually! Now he is again asking you for your votes. Will you give him your support? Does he deserve anything more than a just rebuke from the citizens of this Commonwealth after thus deceiving them? This act alone should be sufficient to place him on a level with a trickster and consummate villain.

GOVERNOR CURTIN CAN NOT SECURE THE SUPPORT OF EITHER HIS OWN PARTY OR HIS OFFICE HOLDERS.—Speech of Alex. Cummings, before the Republican State Convention, Aug. 5, 1863.
Mr. Cummings is only one of the many formerly warm and influential friends of Curtin, who now are deserting him in the hour of trial when he most needs their support. So it is, Curtin has made a very unpopular Governor, even with his own party. Cummings is a leading Republican!

PROFESSION—PRACTICE.—Previous to the draft in this county the Abolition Jacobine-Republicans professed great friendship for this mode of "sustaining the Government." They were strong advocates of the draft—it was all right—the army must have men, and the draft was the way to get them. "The draft must be enforced, even if the valiant members of the Loyal League (those braves who ran off and left their families when Jenkins' cavalry approached our town,) had to assist the Provost Marshal." This was their language. Well, the draft came off, and some of these patriots who were so loud in its favor, happened to draw the lucky prize; in other words they were drafted. At once, and as if by magic, "a change came o'er the spirit of their dream," and every mother's son of them refused to go into the army, but all were ready to fork over $300 to be left off! What hypocrites! What beauties are they to talk in favor of the draft? Is this the way to "sustain the Government?" Of the few Republicans who were drafted in this place we don't know one that intends shouldering a musket, one and all have backed out.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Lieut. Brockway.
We clip the following account of a charge of a portion of Ewell's Corps, on our forces at Cemetery Hill, during the recent battle at Gettysburg, Penna., and their reception by Battery F, commanded by Lieut. C. B. Brockway, of Salem, Luzerne county, from the Toledo (Ohio) Blade. It speaks well for the gallantry and courage of our young friend:

"Near dusk, the infantry on the right having been engaged since 6 P. M., the Division of Gen. Early, of Ewell's corps eight thousand strong, charged upon the batteries on Cemetery Hill, with the determination to carry the position or die in the attempt. As they came down the opposite slope through a wheat field, the 'red and white' rag of rebellion could plainly be seen, and quicker than thought itself, every gun that could be brought to bear was opened upon the lines. Still on they came. Soon they came and entered the battery and had possession of the two left guns of the battery. A seerch Lieutenant was just grasping the battery colors when the bearer shot him through the heart with a revolver, receiving a ball in his own neck next instant. The colors were instantly seized by Lieut. Brockway, and the staff shot away below his hand. The Lieutenant, discovered a rebel demanding the surrender of one of his Sergeants, struck him in the head with a stone, completely flooring him. Nothing daunted, 'Johnnie Reb.' jumped up and called upon both to surrender, when the Sergeant seized his own musket and shot him. Just at this moment the gallant Gen. Carroll, commanding the 4th and 8th Ohio, 7th Virginia, and 14th Indiana Regiments, came through our battery, and joined in the fight with his brigade, turned the tide—the attack was repulsed and the hill was still safe. During this part of the day Capt. Withersell, of Marietta, was shot through the hand with a Minnie ball. Until 6 the fight was incessant, ceasing only abruptly and leaving our lines still firm and intact."

N. Y. WEEKLY NEWS.
The cheapest and best New York News paper. Only one dollar per annum. Eight pages—forty columns. A complete record of events, Benjamin Wood, editor and proprietor. Published at No. 19 City Hall Square, Daily News Building, New York City.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY NEWS is unrivaled in its ability and enterprise as a public journal, and in EVERY DEPARTMENT is most efficiently conducted, so as to form a weekly record of events, political, commercial, financial and literary, throughout the world. In addition to this it contains all the Domestic Intelligence of each week and full reports of every matter of public interest.

As a political Journal The Weekly News will be found on the side of the Constitution of the country as it was framed and established by the Fathers of the Republic, and will stand with care and fidelity every public act that may tend to the violation of the letter and spirit of that instrument of our liberties. It prefers the POLICY OF PEACE to a ruthless and exhausting system of War. Insisting upon the truth of the principle embodied in the Declaration of Independence, that the just powers of the Government are derived from the consent of the governed, it urges the preservation of the fundamental principles of liberty, inviolate, as of more sacred importance than national grandeur or consolidated power under despotic rule without the pale of established law. On all questions of national importance it is the inflexible champion of the rights of citizens, as guaranteed under the instruments by which they have decided to be governed. It therefore boldly avows its purpose to sustain the Freedom of Speech and of the Press, with the view to protect the people from the encroaching dogmas of theorists who contemplate a modification of the democratic principles which to this time have been maintained against every effort to overthrow them. In all matters pertaining to Government the purpose of this newspaper is to protect the people from inconsiderate and rash legislation, and to hold our public servants to a strict accountability for their conduct while carrying on the machinery of power. To this end the most careful attention will be given to all Federal and Legislative laws, and a firm and impartial examination of every new political proposition may be expected as the only means of protecting the people from an abridgement of their rights.

COMMERCIAL & MARKET REPORTS are given in the most succinct yet complete manner. They claim particular notice for their fidelity and truth, and all those who desire to comprehend the exact financial condition of the country should not fail to examine the views which will be found in this department of the Journal.

THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE will be found especially interesting and instructive, being derived from some of the ablest penmen in Europe, and will be read with the utmost avidity by those who desire to comprehend that diplomacy of the Governments of the Old World.

In all other respects THE WEEKLY NEWS will be found to meet the public demand. It is the especial object of the Proprietor to render it a valuable and entertaining.

FAMILY NEWSPAPER, pure in its moral influence, embodying in character, and satisfactory to that large class in the community who desire to see the Public Press treat all public questions with arguments expressed in courtesy and candor, thought, at the same time, with the spirit due to the themes discussed.

By reference to the terms of The New York Weekly News it will be noticed that it is by far the cheapest newspaper in the world, and the Proprietor feels that he may invite those who approve of its principles and conduct to use their influence in adding to its present large circulation.

This Machine will sew anything, from the running of a tack in Tulle to the making of an overcoat; anything from Pilot or Beaver cloth down to the softest Gause or Gossamer Tissue, and is as easy to do its work as perfection. It can tell, hem, bind, gather, quilt, and has capacity for a great variety of ornamental work. This is not the only Machine that can tell, hem, bind, and so forth, but it will do so better than any other machine. The Letter "A" Family Sewing Machine may be had in great variety of cabinet cases. The Folding Case, which is now becoming so popular, is, in its name implies, one that can be folded into a box or case, which, when opened, makes a beautiful, substantial, substantial, and spacious table for the work to rest upon. The cases are of every imaginable design, plain or as the wood grain, in the most perfect, or as elaborately finished as art can make them.
The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk twist, thread, needles, oil, etc., of the very best quality.
