Governor Curtin.

The Abolition Party claims large amount of credit for their candidate for Governor on account of his having, as they pretend, done so much for the Pennsylvania soldier.

This candidate is ANDREW G. CURTIN. We wish to know whether he ever did more for the soldiers than was his duty to do, as Governor of the State of Pennsylvania?—Was it his duty to furnish the soldiers with "shoddy clothing," "damaged blankets," "paper-soled shoes," &c. &c. Was it his duty to sign the Tenure in Office Bill, removing a just tax of a certain rich corporation, thus making the taxpayers of Pennsylvania pay unjustly into the State Treasury the sum of $300,000 or more annually? Were these things just? Were they the doings of an upright and honest Executive? Do the people want for Governor of Pennsylvania a corrupt man and political demagogue? If so elect ANDREW G. CURTIN, who has plundered the State out of thousands, cheated the soldiers most scandalously in the way of equipments, and wronged them by appointing incompetent and drunken officers over them, to lead them into battle to die like sheep in a slaughter house.—With all these things to damn him, there are, still, men who claim him to be honest, asking credit and a re-election for this man. Will you sustain and uphold him in his high-handed recklessness, and inefficiency to discharge the duties of his position, with that dignity and honesty becoming a truly loyal and patriotic Governor? We will await the decision, and have faith in the good judgment of the people of Pennsylvania.

The Shoddy Candidate.

The Hon. S. A. PEAVANCE was appointed Attorney General by Governor CURTIN at the beginning of his Administration. After remaining in office a few months Mr. PEAVANCE resigned, and in doing so he used the following significant language to the Governor:—

"For reasons which appeal to my self-respect, I cannot consent to continue any longer in connection with your Administration. I, therefore, tender you my resignation of the office of Attorney General."

In commenting upon this action of Mr. PEAVANCE, the Pittsburg Chronicle, a Republican journal, thus wrote:—

"We are not informed yet what these reasons are; but enough is known to state that they arise out of the alleged complicity of the Governor in those scandalous contract transactions through which the State has been swindled out of immense sums of money, and our brave volunteers subjected to a series of hardships and inconveniences which few but themselves would have had the patience to tolerate."

"We can scarcely believe that the supporters of Governor CURTIN will still insist upon applying to their favorite the title of 'soldiers' friend.' Mr. PEAVANCE was a member of Governor CURTIN'S Cabinet, but self-respect compelled him to retire from the State Administration. 'Self-respect' will force thousands of honest men, like Mr. PEAVANCE, to withdraw their confidence and support from the shoddy candidate, whose official conduct has proven him to be utterly unfit to be entrusted with power.

We have received the American Agriculturist for September. Get it and see Smith's invasion, for doing without domestics. A splendid arrangement. It also contains valuable information for the farmer and gardener. Orange Judd, A. M., Editor. Terms $1.00 per annum in advance. Office 41 Park Row New York.

The Republican Pow-wow!

The brain, flesh and body, of the Republican party of Columbia county, met in Convention on Saturday last, at this place. After several sittings of the Court House bell, a sufficient number assembled to commence the business of their Convention.

On motion of Christian F. Knapp, of Bloomsburg, (International Revenue Assessor,) George W. Lot, M. D., of Orangeville, was chosen President of the meeting.

On motion of Pee John, Republican editor and Post Master, George A. Bowman, of Millin, and Richard Siles, (who voted the Democratic ticket until that party for good and judicious reasons refused him the nomination for Sheriff two years ago,) of Benton, were made vice Presidents.

On motion Johnson H. Ikler, (formerly a Democrat) of Greenwood, and Lewis Yeater, of Catawissa, were appointed Secretaries.

The first business brought before the Convention was the making of a Standing Committee for the ensuing year. This was done at the instance of Robert F. Clark, Esq. The names of the gentlemen composing said Committee, we do not remember; although we believe good old Isaac Monroe, of Catawissa, is on it. He was not in attendance. Wonder what was the matter?

A resolution was next read to the Convention by Major Samuel Knorr, of the Bloomsburg Bar, offering Mordcai W. Jackson, of Berwick, and George W. Lot, M. D., of Orangeville, as Senatorial Candidates to meet similar Conferences of the District for the purpose of making a Senatorial nomination. It was adopted.

Next, Michael Whitmoyer, Captain, and President of the Union League of this place, read a resolution making Henry C. Hartman, of Bloomsburg, and E. W. M. Lowe, of Lime Ridge, Representative Candidates, which was accepted.

On taking the sense of the Convention it was thought, considering the humiliating state of affairs of the country, inexpedient to make any county nominations. Nothing further than District nominations were recommended to be made. The Convention offered no candidates.

The business part of the Convention being over, a Committee was sent for the Speaker of the day, who was holding himself in readiness for marching orders, at the Exchange Hotel, in the person of S. P. Longstreet, of the Luzerne Bar, and who, with the Committee, made his appearance, was introduced to the audience, and spoke, a good deal after the western style, for over an hour. He treated on many subjects—

The rebellion, the cause of it, its originators, and its prolongers; and bad good attention. He also compared Curtin's patriotism to that of James Weoward's, attempting to show disloyalty in the course and actions of the latter, and everything that constitutes a loyal and patriotic man in the former. He failed to say "shoddy clothing" once; and also evaded the word Tenure in Office. He was entirely silent on other bad subjects. He saw a "Copperhead" on the cars as he was coming to this place, who asserted that "when the Democratic party get into power there will be no more fighting." This inspired and warmed up the speaker. He afforded him quite a subject. He tried to draw a distinction between a Democrat and a "Copperhead," but when we come to calculate his meaning the "Copperhead" was still there—they are one and the same thing. If you are a Democrat you are a "Copperhead," and if you are a "Copperhead" you are a Democrat.

He spoke at some length on the Conscription act. Of course lauded it, and said it was a hard thing, but he was going to stand to it! The speech did not make a favorable impression on anybody but the Republicans if it did on them. Too much of his logic was desultory of foundation or truth. His remarks on Judge Woodward were nothing more than the ventilation of his malice and spleen, as was the character of his whole remarks towards the Democratic party.

On Saturday of the last week in August, five deserters from the one hundred and eighteenth Pennsylvania Regiment were executed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It is said about twenty five thousand troops witnessed the terrible scene. Some of the newly drafted men were present. The solemn affair took place somewhere in the army of the Potomac; the precise spot and name of place, we do not remember.

The prisoners were substitutes for some of the drafted men. Two were Prussians, two Italians, and the other, if our memory serves us correct, a German. One among the lot was a Protestant; the other Catholics. These poor fellows were made an example of, by order of the Washington War Authorities, and let us hope that the solemn spectacle need never be again enacted in this country. What a terrible thing it is that such stringent measures have to be enforced to keep men into the army to fight this war.

A DEMOCRATIC meeting will be held at Orangeville, on Thursday, the 17th of September 1863. It is the design of the Democracy to hold the largest meeting ever held in that place. Speakers from abroad have been invited, and will be present to address the people on the general topics of the campaign. The great question at issue is the election of a Governor; whether we shall have the inefficient and corrupt ANDREW G. CURTIN, or the upright, honest, intelligent, and sterling Democrat, GEORGE W. WOODWARD, for our next Executive. The people may expect a good treat. The speakers will be DARIUS EASTMAN, Esq., of Berks, Col. E. V. FOLETT, of Bradford, and others; who are well informed on all political subjects, and possess most excellent oratorical powers for enlightening those who may chafe to come and hear them.

Gov. CURTIN was one of the HIGH PRIESTS of the Know-Nothing party. He went into power upon the cry of "Down with FOREIGNERS!" and tried his best to strip them of those political rights which Woodward and the democratic party have always battled to maintain for them.

What to do With a "Green-Back."

There is, just now, a way of using one of Uncle Sammel's paper Dollars, so as to get back the worth of many gold dollars in a single year. Everybody has heard of Seth Boyden's wonderful new Strawberry. From all accounts, it is a marvellous thing—the berries nearly as large as hen's eggs and as good as they are large. Dealers were after it, offering as high as $3000 for the plants, to speculate upon; but we are glad to know that the enterprising Publisher of the American Agriculturist got the start of them, and bought up all the plants, and is multiplying them, in order to give them away to his subscribers! This is in effect a free gift to the Public—for the Agriculturist, costing only a dollar a year, is of itself worth many dollars to every one, as we can testify, having ourselves been a reader of it. To those unacquainted with it, we would say that the Agriculturist is a large Journal, of 32 pages in every number, is beautifully got up and is illustrated with many pleasing and instructive Engravings, which are alone worth the whole cost. The pages are liberally filled with good things—plain, practical, reliable information upon everything connected with the work of the Household, the Garden and Farm,—including a very pleasing and instructive Department for Children and Youth that is hardly surpassed by any of the professionally Children's Magazines. The thousands of useful hints and suggestions in the Agriculturist, all prepared by practical working men and women who know what they are talking about—can not fail to be worth many dollars to every reader, whether residing in City, Village, or Country.—There are special reasons for subscribing now: First, The rule for distributing the Strawberry plants is, "first come first served!" and Second, every new subscriber for the 23d annual Volume (that is, for all of 1864), will get the remaining numbers of this year free.—Take our advice then, and send a card at once to the Publisher, (ORANGE JUDG 41 Park Row, N. Y. City,) and secure the paper, and the extra numbers, and also an early place in the great Strawberry list. If the plants are to come to you by mail, send them safely too, send an extra five cents to cover the mailing. Those desiring to see the Agriculturist, before subscribing, can get a post-paid copy, by sending a dime to the Publisher, as above.

Compliments of the Press.

The Press have our thanks for the following complimentary notices of us since resuming the publication of the old Star of the North:—

Wm. H. JACOBY, Esq., having served his time in the drafted militia, has returned, looking "first rate." Soldiering appears to have agreed with him. We believe it is his intention to resume the publication of the Star. If we must have another Democratic sheet in our town, let us have one with more brains and decency than the Democrat. Mr. JACOBY has the ability and enterprise to make the Star a readable sheet.—Columbia Co. Republican.

In LIFE AGAIN.—The Bloomsburg Star has again made its appearance in our sanctum, after an absence of nearly a year, its publication having been suspended in consequence of its editor being drafted in the nine months service. We are pleased to see that our friend Jacoby is again at his post, doing service in the cause of the great Democratic party. He prints a good paper and should be encouraged.—Sullivan Co. Democrat.

The publication of the "STAR OF THE NORTH," at Bloomsburg, has been resumed, after an intermission of about nine months, during which time, its editor, Mr. Jacoby, served in the drafted militia, near Yorktown, Va.—Danville Democrat.

The "STAR OF THE NORTH,"—Wm. H. Jacoby, proprietor of the 'Star of the North,' has re-commenced the publication of his paper, after an absence of nine months in the army. He raises the Democratic flag and is now fighting the Abolitionists for the success of Constitutional Liberty and the White Man's Government. The names of Woodward and Lowrie float at the head of the 'Star.'—Lancaster Intelligencer.

OUR ADVICE.—On Wednesday evening last, we were pleased to notice among our "exchanges" the bright and familiar face of our old friend the STAR OF THE NORTH, which had suspended publication for about nine or ten months, the editor having drawn a "prize" last fall to serve for that length of time in "Dixie." Friend Jacoby, has our best wishes for his success. But nine months service in the Union army won't screen him from abuse if he publishes a Democratic paper. But he seems to have learned that, as if by instinct, already.—Berwick Gazette.

Wm. H. JACOBY, editor of the Bloomsburg "STAR," has returned home, after serving his country for the past nine months. During his absence, the "Star ceased to shine," but is now as bright as ever. From "high private" in the Union army, Mr. J. ought to be "advanced" to the position of Register or Treasurer of Columbia county. What do you say to this Col. Tate?—Wellsborough Banner.

"Home Again."—We are pleased to welcome once more on our exchange list, the old "Star of the North." Its editor, Wm. H. Jacoby, had the fortune or misfortune last fall, to draw one of Abraham's "tickets of leave," and while in filling his duties as a soldier for nine months, the "Star" was in eclipse. It now comes out again, brighter and more brilliantly than ever. It is an able exponent of Democratic principles and should receive a generous support from the true Union men of Columbia county.—Danville Intelligencer.

We are pleased to notice the safe return of W. H. Jacoby, Esq., editor of the "Star of the North," from his nine months service in the army. Mr. Jacoby has again resumed the publication of the "Star," and we hope that he will be well patronized by our Democratic friends of Columbia county, so that he may make up for the loss sustained during his absence.—Northumberland County Democrat.

Mr. Jacoby has resumed the publication of the "Star of the North." The fact that Mr. Jacoby has been serving in the army the past ten months has not in the least diminished his devotion to sound Democratic principles.—Col. Co. Democrat.

Mr. Jacoby, Editor and Proprietor of the "Star of the North," who was drafted last fall, has served out his time and returned to his home at Bloomsburg, and has again resumed the publication of his paper. We extend him a heart welcome.—Bradford Argus.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH, a Democratic paper published at Bloomsburg by Wm. H. Jacoby, has been resumed. Mr. Jacoby being drafted last fall, suspended publication, served his time out and has returned to his old post. With the political doctrines of the Star and the parts to which it is devoted, we are of course have no affinity, but in our business relations we always found our neighbor to act a fair and honorable part. As there are but three Democratic papers in the County, we trust he will receive a liberal, or at least a proportionate share of the public patronage, but if Dr. John's Parrot gun gets to throwing Greek fire into their citadel, they will have to abide the consequences.—Wyoming Republican.

The Diffidence.—Wm. H. Jacoby, Editor of a Democratic paper, the Star of the North and William Burgess present editor of an abolition organ, both of Columbia county, were drafted last fall. Mr. Jacoby suspended the publication of his paper, shouldered his musket, served through his time, and has now returned to resume its publication. Billy Batton who had made all his arrangements to come to Wyoming and take charge of an Abolition organ, was left off by trickery, falsehood and violation of law; and now cackles out his hackneyed epithets of "Copperhead," "Southern sympathizer," "traitor," &c., in speaking of Mr. Jacoby, and his political friends.

Political knavery and favoritism may save this Draft sneak from taking his chances in the conscription with Democrats; but no kind of long faced, villainous lies will conceal his hypocrisy or shield him from the contempt which attaches to a sneak.—Thanksgiving Democrat.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH.—The editor of the Star of the North, of Bloomsburg, Columbia county, was fortunate enough to be among the elect in the draft last summer, and after a nine months' campaign, is again at his post, having resumed the publication of his paper which he was obliged to suspend during his absence.—"Bill" thinks a little actual service would convince some of our stay at home Abolition tacticians and strategists that the "gobbling up" of an ably-handled army is no trifling undertaking, and that a campaign is more easily planned in a far-off editorial sanctum than executed in the face of an active and wily enemy. We wish the Star an abundant prosperity, and the editor an undisturbed occupation of the chair editorial in the future.—Carbon Democrat.

JUDGE WOODWARD IS A CITIZEN OF UNIMPEACHABLE CHARACTER, AN ABLE JURIST, AND A PATRIOTIC GENTLEMAN.—Philadelphia Inquirer, June 18, 1863, (Republican paper)

This is a good endorsement of the Democratic candidate for Governor, coming as it does from one of the most influential Republican journals of the State.

GOVERNOR CURTIN CAN NOT SECURE THE SUPPORT OF EITHER HIS OWN PARTY OR HIS OFFICE HOLDERS.—Speech of Alex. Cummings, before the Republican State Convention, Aug. 5, 1863.

Mr. Cummings is only one of the many formerly warm and influential friends of Curtin, who now are deserting him in the hour of trial when he most needs their support. So it is, Curtin has made a very unpopular Governor, even with his own party. Cummings is a leading Republican!

ANY DEMOCRAT who dares to peril his life in the defence of his Government, is still considered by this Abolition party, which control things at the National and State Capital, as unworthy of having a voice in the management or conducting of the public affairs. No matter how much you have done in defence of our country, how great your sacrifices, or how severe the hardships and privations you have borne, if you merely differ with this Republican party as to the mode of putting down this rebellion, you still are treated as a "sympathizer," "traitor," and "Copperhead."—You can't please the scoundrels the best way you fix it. We have made up our mind not to try. We shall obey the laws, do our duty to the Government; and if more than that is required it will have to be drafted out of us.

NATIONAL FOUNDRY.—This is the name of a new institution just put in operation, near the Lackawanna Railroad Depot, at this place, by the sole Proprietor, PETER BILLMEYER. The National Foundry is the most extensive establishment of the kind in this country. Columbia county has quite a number of Foundries, and the National can properly be called the mammoth concern among them. Mr. B. has been to large expense in erecting and fitting out this Foundry; and with his energy and perseverance, we hope he may work out a good recompense for his labor and expenditure of money. His preparations to execute any kind of work are not surpassed in like Foundries; his prices are moderate; and his work turned out in a neat workmanlike manner. Those having any kind of castings to make would do well to give the National Foundry a trial. See advertisement in this paper.

PATRIOTIC.—A street conversation overheard by our reporter.

Democrat.—"Good morning Mr. Republican. Ready for the draft?"

Republican.—"Ready! If my distracted country needs me—if she requires the sacrifice of my life—if the tottering edifice of our glorious Union needs to be cemented with my heart's blood—it is necessary for preservation that she stride onward to victory over my dead body—hensir the victim is ready! With a heart prepared for any fate, and with a firm trust in Divine Providence, I shall, with a living feeling of doing my duty, march boldly on—to the Collector's office, and pay my $300 dollars."

The Delegation from Catawissa in attendance at the Republican Convention, held in Bloomsburg on Saturday last, had one prominent feature about it that every delegation did not possess. It was this: they were all ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S adopted children—little braves of the Government. They ranked as follows: One Administration Post Master; one International Revenue Assessor; one Revenue Collector; one Asst. Collector, and one nine months Captain. A Drum Corps was also present from the ancient, venerable and patriotic little town of Catawissa. The M. G.'s appearance was not visible, at this meeting, among the assembled wisdom not of the nation but of part of her.

FRANK LESLIE'S Lady's Magazine and Gazette of Fashion, has been received for September. It is filled with choice reading, besides contains a large and well prepared number of illustrations, elegantly executed. The fashion Plates are not surpassed for beauty and richness. The Magazine is larger and cheaper than any other that comes to our office. Price per No. 10 cts., or one dollar a year; published by FRANK LESLIE, 72 Duane St., New York.

The drafted men from the following counties are to be sent to Carlisle: Bradford, Wyoming, Sullivan Union, Janata, Cumberland, Bedford, Cambria, Huntingdon, Centre, Lycoming, Potter, Columbia, Moun-tour, Northumberland, Snyder, Dauphin, York, Adams, Fulton, Somerset, Blair, Mifflin, Clinton, Tioga. All east of these counties, go to Philadelphia; all west of them, to Pittsburg.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS FROM CHARLESTON.

Gillmore's Approaches Close to Fort Wagner. FORT SUMPTER NOT YET SURRENDERED.

New York, Sept. 4.—The supply steamer Union, which left Charleston bar at sundown on Monday last, arrived here this morning, bringing news of the siege three days later than previous advices.

Captain Conroy, the commander of the Union reports that his vessel was anchored off Charleston bar on the 21st ult., from twelve o'clock noon till sundown. From noon until two P. M. there was no firing on either side; but about half past two o'clock the iron-clads simultaneously moved up towards Sullivan's Island, taking up a position abreast of Fort Moultrie, the new object of attack.

At three P. M. a heavy fire was opened by the iron-clads upon Fort Moultrie, which was replied to from Moultrie and another battery on Sullivan's Island, as well as by forts Wagner and Gregg, on Morris Island. General Gillmore's batteries also opened on Wagner.

In the midst of all this firing Fort Sumter remained perfectly silent. The fort is completely and effectually silenced, and its dilapidated condition shows the terrible effect of Gillmore's fire. Its appearance is rather that of ragged pile of brick than of a substantial fortress. The angle facing General Gillmore's batteries is battered and honey combed from top to bottom, and the parapet is an irregular zig-zag line.

It is reported that four guns were put in position on Sunday, but they had at once been dismounted by our fire. The rebel flag still floated over the remains of the fort.

The result of the attack of the iron-clads on Fort Moultrie was not ascertained when the Union left.

We learn from a person on board the Union that our vessels passed by it and Sumter, paying no attention to them in their attack on Moultrie.

A scout of the fleet, while on night duty in a boat, and passed up close to the city, and did not discover any appearances of obstructions.

The impression was that our fleet could pass up to the city by a run such as Admiral Farragut made, with far less cost to the nation than by the plan of reducing the forts in rotation.

The U. S. transport steamer Star of the South, from Charleston bar, August 30, also arrived to day. The Star of the South left having in tow the Monitor, Lehigh, and arrived off Charleston August 30th. Left again the same day at 3 P. M., for New York. The Lehigh arrived in good condition, and all well.

The Star of the South has experienced strong head winds from Northward and Eastward the entire passage.

WASHINGTON Sept. 5.—An official dispatch from Admiral Dahlgren has just been received at the Navy Department. The Admiral reports that the siege of Charleston is going on satisfactorily.

The Monitors are standing fire well, although the rebels have rained upon them a tempest of shot and shell.

Admiral Dahlgren's dispatch makes no mention of the illness under which he was reported to be laboring.

The Latest.—The Rebel Flag Still Flying. FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 6.—The United States dispatch steamer Cleander, Capt. Dennis, has just arrived from off Charleston, which she left on the 4th inst. Her officers report that Sumter is perfectly demolished, but the rebel flag is still flying.

Gen. Gillmore dug out and captured seventy-five men from the rifle-pits in front of Fort Wagner, on Tuesday last.

Everything is progressing favorably.
