

BLOOMSBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, Sept. 21, 1863.

A few bushels of potatoes will be taken at a low price on subscription, at the market price if brought this week or the beginning of next.

ROBERT F. CLARK, Esq., has agreed to address a series of meetings for the Republican party, in this county. Mr. C. is a good stump orator, but his talk is on the wrong side of the house to win.

The Democratic Ticket is printed at this office and ready for distribution. The whole ticket and nothing but the ticket, headed by Woodward and Lowrie.

We are informed that the Chairman of the Union Standing Committee of this county has repeatedly said, he never would support ANDREW C. CURTIS for re-election. A change must have come over his dreams, for he is now supporting CURTIS with all his might. Probably when he said he would not support CURTIS he thought, like many others, that Andy would not ask a re-election. There are a great many people who declared their intention not to support him again, and they are carrying it out.

If ABRAHAM LINCOLN is the "Government," as some of our Abolition friends would have you believe, we have a very weak one and it ought to be changed; or if he is only the administrative portion of the "Government," it is equally weak and deficient, and ought to be changed. It has been said of Mr. Lincoln that he played cards and drank liquor, but there is not one of us who would be pleased to hear it announced that our "Government" was a "black-leg and a drunkard," no, no, no.—But, then, such might be the case did we persist in it that a man was a "Government!"

Col. JOHN G. FARRER has for sale at the Recorder's Office, Bloomsburg, Fifty Copies of "Sheppard's Constitutional Text-Book," recommended by the best Judges and Lawyers of the country, for the use of the public. Different editions come at from 75 cts to $1.25.

He has been induced to send for them because they have been so frequently inquired after. They are the same editions he uses in his speeches. Call and buy one.

It is rather a mean piece of business for any person to be guilty of defacing or tearing down hand bills. One day last week we caused some bills to be posted up about town, announcing a political meeting to be held in the Court House, the evening of the day which the bills were circulated, and in the course of a few hours after they were posted, there were scarcely any to be seen; and those that remained were defaced and marked with such epithets as "Copperhead," "Traitor," "Tory," and "Secessionist." This is a mighty small business; and whoever practices it is a coward, sneak, and a violator of the law. If this thing is repeated much often we shall endeavor to have the guilty ones suffer the penalty of the law. Mark that!

There are two or three young men in this place, who have had a slight taste of Government pap who are sanguine as to the success of the Shoddy and Tonnage Tax candidate, A. G. CURTIS. One of them is styled by some people as a first young man. The Boston Courier, one of the ablest papers published in New England, of Old Line Whig proclivities, and conservative in its present political views, in noticing the letter of the distinguished Senator to the Hughesville meeting, calls it "the noble letter of Mr. Buckalew," and it further says: "It is a great thing for that State to have chosen such a Senator. However a servient majority may vote in the body of which he is a member, sentiments like his, frankly proclaimed, will lead the popular mind and effect due reformation in time."

The compliment is well deserved and coming from the source it does, will no doubt be gratifying to our Senator, and to all those who took an active part in securing his election. Mr. Buckalew is one of the ablest men and soundest statesmen in Pennsylvania or out of it; and we predict that the State, already proud of him, will have stronger reasons to be so before the expiration of the Senatorial term than she has now. If our government survive the present crisis, and his physical vigor shall prove equal to the duties imposed by his position, a glorious future is before him.—Patriot and Union.

GEN. McCLELLAN ON RETIRED PAY.—The National Intelligencer states that Gen. McClellan has been put on retired pay. It does not, however, add what is equally true, that every member of his staff has been taken from him. It is thus that the nation repays our city's son for organizing, disciplining and leading the gallant Army of the Potomac in its darkest and brightest hours. It is thus that the Saviour of Washington and the victor of Antietam is rewarded for his labors, his sacrifices and his devotion.

We have not heard, as yet, that Gen. Fremont's or Gen. Butler's or any other General's staff have been taken from either of them. Indeed, we are authorized in saying that they are still on duty—at home, lecturing on loyalty, or parading their patriotism with glorious gusto. That they are at their posts in the performance of the arduous duties allotted them may be all right enough—but, in contrast with the treatment of McClellan's staff, there is a smack of partiality and unfairness in the business that cannot be escaped.—Phila. Sunday Transcript.

Due notice will be given of a Democratic meeting which will be held at Jerseytown between this and the election. JOSEPH C. BOYER, Esq., of Lewisburg, has engaged to address a meeting at that place as soon as convenient.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

On Thursday, the Anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, September 17, 1863, the Democracy of Columbia co. met in Mass Meeting at Orangeville. This was the largest political gathering we attended in this county since 1856. There were delegations present from nearly all parts of the county, swelling the crowd up to between four and five thousand persons! The ladies, too, God bless them, turned out in respectable numbers; they manifested their due portion of interest in the coming election. The meeting was held in a splendid Grove, about one quarter of a mile from the town. The people began to gather early in the day, and continued until two o'clock in the afternoon. At one o'clock the masses repaired to the ground selected for the meeting, and organized by appointing the following gentlemen as officers:

President.—HON. PETER ENT, Scott tp., Vice Presidents.—Jacob Evans, John Robertson, Henry Delong, John Megarrell, Jacob Young, Jno. McHenry, Jr., Iram Derr, Jackson Hower, Steph. H. Miller, Sam'l Rhone, Jos. R. Patton, J. K. Sloan, John Fester, N. Flakenshien, John Achenbuch, Wm. Kline, John Herring, Abner Welch, James Edgar, Jno. Jordan, Samuel Omas, Sam'l Snyder. Secretaries.—W. H. Jacoby, J. S. Sanders, Alem B. Tate.

The organization being completed, the meeting then came to order, after which the President introduced to the audience Col. VICTOR E. PIOLLET, of Bradford, who had been invited and was present to address the people. He made them a good speech, dwelling principally upon the State Government, showing up much of the Abolition candidate's political trickery and corrupt doings, since in public life, and clearly establishing the fact that A. G. CURTIS is totally unfit to govern the affairs of this great Commonwealth. Mr. Piollet understands, fully as well as "any other man" in the State, how things have been managed under "handy Andy" at Harrisburg, and he has the independence to tell the people wherein this administration has swindled the soldiers and plundered the Treasury. His speech was well received, and will do some good. It was just what the people wanted to hear.

After Mr. Piollet finished his remarks, DANIEL EMENTROUT, Esq., of Berks, was introduced, who spoke over an hour to the people, in a fervent and earnest manner; making himself perfectly "at home" with the audience and entirely master of the issues of the campaign. He discussed the actions of the Federal Administration at Washington, the present war policy, and the hopes of a reconstruction of the Union under the present management of affairs.—The importance of electing a Governor this Fall he deemed far greater than at any other period since the formation of our State Government. We need a man who will look after the interests of our own State, and not neglect his duty by becoming befogged and crazed with Abolitionism, as is instilled in the minds of many men by those fanatics and political demagogues at Washington. We want no man who will today to the authorities at Washington, but simply do his duty to the Government, and stand aloof from their political heresies. The speakers were repeatedly cheered, and all seemed pleased with the addresses. At the close of the speeches, several national airs were sung, when the meeting adjourned, giving three cheers for the "speakers, and three cheers for Woodward, Lowrie and Civil Liberty.

PETER ENT, Pres't. Wm. H. Jacoby, J. S. Sanders, Alex. B. Tate, Secretaries. Hon. Charles B. Buckalew.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Editor:— I have for a long time noticed that after a man has been elected Governor of Pennsylvania, and has occupied the gubernatorial Chair for a term of three years, and the acts of his administration are not a sufficient recommendation for his re-election, so that he considers it necessary to canvass the State a second time to secure his re-election by patching up his old work and exhibiting himself, he may rest assured of an defeat.— [There is an old saying that patched clothes are shabby but patch upon patch is beggarly.] We have noticed it to be the case since the days of our good old Francis R. Shunk, previous to the death of this illustrious patriot, it was not customary for a candidate for that eminent position, to travel the State, sounding his own trumpet. Judge Woodward is not out stamping the State, and why Andrew G. CURTIS thinks it necessary to travel through the country, singing his own praises, is a mystery, as his acts are well known throughout the Commonwealth from the commencement of the war, and the whole population has felt an intense interest in the affairs of our State Government, particularly since the invasion of a portion of Pennsylvania. Many of our citizens have visited the battle fields, some viewing the destruction of life and property, some looking for their slain sons, some for their brothers, some watching with their wounded son- or brothers, and in some cases wounded fathers, until death relieved them, and then wanted to be taken home for burial; saying, I could not find my son, and why all this misery? I will answer this question, it was for the want of an efficient commander-in-chief, the Governor. Does Mr. CURTIS go out to defame the character or ability of Judge Woodward? It has been said that he requested that Judge Woodward should not be personally assailed. If that be his object now we will refer him to Republican testimony, viz the editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, who says: "Judge Woodward is a citizen of unimpeachable character, an able jurist, and a patriotic gentleman." What more does CURTIS want? Judge Woodward has never been accused of intemperance!

Vox POPULI. We would announce to the Democracy of Greenwood and adjoining townships, that a Democratic Meeting will be held at John Leggett's, in Seneca, on Tuesday next, the 29th inst., to which the citizens of Greenwood and adjacent townships are invited.—The meeting will be addressed by E. H. Little, Esq., and others.

DANIEL EMENTROUT, Esq., having finished the series of meetings he engaged to address, in this county, went, on Monday last, to Lewisburg, Pa., where he addressed a meeting and then returned to Berks. He has the thanks of the Democracy of Columbia for the good service rendered them, and as some encouragement for his labors here, he may look for a good report from the old Star of the North on the 13th of October.

The Premium List of the Columbia co. Agricultural, Horticultural, and Mechanical Society, will appear in our next,—came too late for this paper.

[COMMUNICATED] Fulmonary Consumption A Curable Disease! A CARD. TO CONSUMPTIVES. THE undersigned having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that great disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, &c. The only object of the advertisement in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread the information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address: REY. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburgh, Kings county, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1863.—4mos.

EDITOR OF THE STAR.—Dear Sir:— With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send by return mail to all who wish it, (free) a Receipt, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm, that will effectually remove, in 10 days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all Impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful.

I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of Luxuriant Hair, Whiskers, or a Moustache, in less than 30 days. All applications answered by return mail without charge. Respectfully yours, THOS. F. CHAPMAN, Chemist, No. 831 Broadway, New York, August 26, 1863.—3m.

A GENTLEMAN, cured of Nervous Debility, Incompetency, Premature decay and Youthful error, actuated by a desire to benefit others, will be happy to furnish to all who need it, free of charge, the Recipe and directions for making the simple Remedy used in his case. Those wishing to profit by his experience—and possess a valuable remedy—will receive the same, by return mail, carefully sealed by addressing: JOHN B. OGDEN, No. 60 Nassau Street, New York, August 26, 1863.—3m.

AGRICULTURAL NOTICE. The Agricultural, Horticultural and Mechanical Society will hold their Eighth Annual Fair, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 15th, 16th, and 17th days of October, 1863, on the grounds of the Society, near Bloomsburg, Pa. By order of the Executive Committee. L. B. RUPERT, Secretary. Bloomsburg, Sept. 9, 1863.

The Great AMERICAN TEA COMPANY, 51 VESEY STREET, NEW YORK; Since its organization, has created a new era in the history of Wholesaling Teas in this Country. They have introduced their selections of TEAS, and are selling them at not over TWO CENTS (20 Cents) per pound above Cost; Never deviating from the ONE PRICE asked.

All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial notice of these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box. SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APETITE, INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS. These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite. WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE. Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable pills, and the soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

SORES AND ULCERS, Blotches and Swellings can with certainty be radically cured if the pills are taken night and morning and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part, break out in another. Whereas, this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure, FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES. To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable, there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation. Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London" are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box: the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY NEWS is unrivaled in its ability and enterprise as a public journal, and in EVERY DEPARTMENT is most efficiently conducted, so as to form a weekly record of events political, commercial, financial and literary, throughout the World. In addition to this, it contains all the Domestic Intelligence of each week and full reports of every matter of public interest.

As a political Journal The Weekly News will be found on the side of the Constitution of the country as it was framed and established by the Fathers of the Republic, and will see to it that no ill-considered every public act that may tend to the violation of the letter and spirit of that instrument of our liberties. It prefers the POLICY OF PEACE to a cautious and exhaustive system of Warfare, insisting upon the truth of the principle embodied in the Declaration of Independence, and that the just powers of the Government are derived from the consent of the governed. It opposes the extension of the fundamental principles of liberty, inviolate, as of more sacred importance than national grandeur or consolidated power under despotic rule without the pale of established law. On all questions of national importance it is the inflexible champion of the rights of citizens, as guaranteed under the instruments by which they have elected to be governed. It therefore boldly avows its purpose to sustain the Freedom of Speech and of the Press, with the view to protect the people from the encroaching dogmas of theorists who contemplate a modification of the democratic principle which to this time have been so sacred against every effort to overthrow them. In all matters pertaining to Government the purpose of this newspaper is to protect the people from inconsiderate and rash legislation, and to hold our public servants to a strict accountability for their conduct while carrying on the machinery of power. To this end the most careful attention will be given to all Federal and Legislative laws, and a firm and impartial examination of every new political proposition may be expected as the only means of protecting the people from an abridgement of their rights.

COMMERCIAL & MARKET REPORTS are given in the most succinct yet complete manner. They claim particular notice for their fidelity and truth, and all those who desire to comprehend the exact financial condition of the country should not fail to examine the views which will be found in this department of the journal.

THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE will be found especially interesting and instructive and being derived from some of the best sources of information, will be read with the most avidity by those who desire to comprehend the diplomacy of the Governments of the Old World. In all other respects THE WEEKLY NEWS will be found to meet the public demand. It is the special object of the Proprietor to render it a valuable and entertaining FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Its moral influence, enabling in its character, and satisfactory to that large class of the community who desire to see the Public Press treat all public questions with arguments expressed in courtesy and candor thought, at the same time, with the spirit due to the times discussed.

By reference to the terms of The New York Weekly News it will be noticed that it is by far the cheapest newspaper in the world, and the Proprietor feels that he may invite those who approve of its principles and conduct to use their influence in adding to its present large circulation.
