BLOOMSBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, Oct 14, 1863.

Oss of the greatest outrages ever offered to a people on earth, has been that of the Lincoln Administration, in uniforming and arming the negro troops and demanding their equa! consideration with the volunteer eitizen soldiery of the Republic! Oh! "the 24 do offence is rank ! it smells to heaven !"

SELECT SCHOOL -M. & E. W. Wynkoop's bext Term of Select School will commence, in this place, October 26th, 1863. They are good teachers, and have a well arranged, comfortable and healthy school room. Tue Abolition party resorted to all kinds of measures to carry the election for their corrept and dishonest candida e for Gover-Bor, "Shoody Andy." In the language of a Republican paper, "his nomination was a disgrare and his election impossible." The returns as far as heard form are favorable | Montour; Clinton Mendenhall, Franklin; Chas. Eck, Roaringereek, and Freese Fowler, Briarcreek. for the Democracy.

"MILITARY NECESSITY."- Frumbull, Republican Senator, says: "Necessity is the plea of syrants, and if our Constitution ceases to operate, the moment a person charged with its observation thinks there is a neces- | 2d do do sity to violate it, is of little use. So much | 21 do for these stay at-home patriots and Generals. 3d do Gentlemen, practice what you preached so 2d do loud not long ago, or forever hold your peace. Some of those who boiled over with parriotism, and whose fighting propensities would have brought a premium the time they mobbed a respectable citizen in this town, now have an opportunity to go down South and mob Secessionists. Will they go !

THE Republicans alias Abolitionists are making themselves a good deal of trouble over the Democratic Mass Meeting held in Jerseylown on Thursday last. They dispure every body as to the number present, and attempt to ridicule the idea that there were four thousand peolpe at the meeting .-They also have raised the report in certain quarters that a banner was carried bearing the likeness of Vallandigham, and that the delegations cheered for Jeff. Davis. All this is without truth. But this is their way of electionsering. They can say nothing favorable for their candidate for Governor, but must depend on vilifying the Demoeratic party and its candidate, GEORGE W. WCODWARD. One noticeable fact in relation to this Abolition party is, that they have not held one meeting, this Fall in the county, in the day time, but all after night, un der the cover of darkness. We can assign two reasons for this. One is, they are ashamed to show their colors, and another, they could not get up a gathering that wol'd be respectable as to numbers. They preferred talking after night in some little retioal house.
