paid the commutation money. The Presi- dent wants you, boys, more than he does your money; although had he not changed the war into a scheme to emancipate the negroes, soldiers could be had without crating. But this is no excuse for those to remain out the service who cried loadest for the emancipation proclamation. They are the vory ones, now that they are cho- sen, who Honest Abe wants to assist him is prosecuting this blondy war. He does not want a "Copperhead," a Traitor, one is whom he car place no confidence.
