

The late rains have caused quite a freshet in the Susquehanna.

There will be preaching in the Baptist Church of this place, next Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and 6 in the evening, by the Rev. G. W. Scott.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL.—The Ladies connected with the Lutheran Church, at Pottsville, Columbia county, design giving a "Christmas Dinner and Supper" at that place, on Friday the 25th of December. The proceeds to be applied for the benefit of the Church.

We beg leave to call the attention to Mr. Henry Zuppiager's establishment; he is a skillful Watchmaker and Jeweller, and known to be perfectly reliable in his dealings. Those of our friends having anything to do in his line, will do well by giving him a call. His establishment is on Main St.

WANTED, OR SUBSCRIPTION, AT THIS OFFICE. Wheat, Corn, Rye, Oats, Buckwheat, and grain of all kinds. Also, corn in the ear, good winter apples, potatoes, butter, lard, and produce of most all kinds. Money never refused.

HON. CHARLES R. BOCKALEW, United States Senator, left for Washington city, with his family, on Tuesday last. He will make that his place of residence during the session of Congress, which will continue until some time next spring.

A new hand has taken hold of the machine which regulates the weather, and is giving us regular winter weather. The 1st of December has come in cold, and we may not be surprised to see a fall of snow most any of these days.

THANKSGIVING DAY was pretty generally observed in our town; the stores, offices, and places of business, save one, were all closed, and that was Dr. Pee John's Printing Establishment. He had his hands to work all day on that Abolition rag of his. We hope no person will be so naughty as to inform him of this.

Here is a remedy said to be excellent for the cure of diphtheria: A small quantity of sheep's wool, say a spoonful, chopped fine and boiled in a gill of milk, and drank on entering to bed. Of course the throat is to be bound with flannel.

COAL COMMENCES on next Monday which will afford an opportunity for many who are owing this office to step in and pay the Printer. Considering the high prices of everything consumed in our business, we will be compelled to collect more closely than heretofore.

The Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Rail road Company changed the running of their Trains on Monday the 23d of November.—The Mail Train, going South, passes this place at 8:40 in the morning, and returns at 6:29 in the evening. Our Phila. Mail is later than usual, not arriving here until five o'clock p. m. This is not so convenient an hour as when it came at 4 o'clock.

We find on examining our last file of the Star that, it is short three numbers, viz:—Vol. 14 No. 25; No. 39, and No. 42; all the same volume. Some one has lifted them in our absence, and we put it down as being an act of a "very small man." Who would be guilty of stealing a Printer's file papers? We will pay a fair price to any person who will furnish us with the three numbers above mentioned.

BARELY POSSIBLE.—The "National Intelligencer" ventures to express the opinion that "something is necessary to fit an officer for high command besides a fervent zeal for battle, and that even anti-slavery opinions of the most undoubted intensity are not always a guarantee of the highest military capacity." This may be barely possible but the assertion is a bold one. Its "loyalty" should be examined into by the Union Leagues.

CAPT. R. B. RICKETS, of Battery "F," 2d Penna. Artillery, arrived at this place, on Wednesday evening last, from Gen. Meade's Army, on his way to pay his parents a visit in Orangeville, Columbia co., and to recruit his health, which seems to have been somewhat impaired through the hard service he has rendered the Union cause. He is spoken of as a capital officer, and we frequently hear of CAPT. RICKETS' BATTERY doing some noble and valuable work. This young Artilleryist has passed through quite a number of hard fought battles, always acquitting himself and command in a manner to be prized. Success to CAPT. RICKETS.

The good people of our ancient and venerable town of Berwick, were not so patriotic as the citizens of this place, or they might have closed every store door and place of business, on Old Abe's Thanksgiving Day. In the days of that old sinner, James Buchanan, when you could buy a pound of coffee for a "levy," the Ab's of this town were not so much disposed to observe general thanksgiving days. It makes quite a difference with some people who will these things.

WYOMING INSURANCE CO.—In to day's paper will be seen the Card of the Wyoming Insurance Company, with a capital of $125,000, ready to insure against losses or damage by fire on property in Town or Country, at reasonable rates. The company is composed of gentlemen of character, and means amply sufficient to warrant any person in insuring in their Institution. Their office is at Wilkesbarre, where the principal portion of the Directors and Stockholders reside. Mr. L. H. Conover, of Beach Haven, Pa., is Agent for the Company. He is active, energetic and honest, and is a safe and careful Agent for the Co. He has insured quite a considerable amount of property in Columbia county, in this Institution.

PER JOHN frequently drags our paper into notice as one of the "sympathising" "rags" of this place. He lies when he speaks of our paper as sympathising with the rebels or their cause. He must be either a knave or a fool, and we are inclined to think the former with this case the best; for it has been said that it took a smart man to be a fool. As for the Democrat, it is able to take care of itself, having an old veteran and a soldier for its editor. There is one thing certain, the editor of this paper, as well as the editor of the Democrat, has borne arms in the defence of his country, which PER JOHN has not done nor never will. We entered the army in the defence of the Constitution as it is, and the Union as it was, and not for the abolition of the negro, and this, PER JOHN dare not do. He is as much like ANTONIO WANDAS can be, in respect to entering the army; that is, he is willing to sacrifice all his brothers, cousins, and wife's relations, to go into the service and "krush this ere unholy rebellion," so long as he is not obliged to do any of the fighting himself. He would not even put his name down on Capt. Clark's muster roll and enter the service for State defence, as both of the Democratic editors of this place did, when the rebel General Lee first invaded Pennsylvania's soil. No. He was not the man to defend his own State. But after the rebels had been compelled to leave Pennsylvania, (though not through fear of such Generals as John,) driven out of Maryland, and their army nearly annihilated at Sharpsburg and Antietam, then and not till then, did he pretend to show his patriotism, by marshalling a squad of men together, and accompanying them to Harrisburg, only to trouble ANDREW CURTIS to inform them that he did not need their services!

A CHALLENGE BETWEEN RIVAL SAFES.—It is rumored that the son and agent of Mr. Lillie, the safe man, has offered the agent of S. C. Herring to put $1000 in the safe recently purchased of Mr. Herring by the Second National Bank of Wilkes Barre, and a like some in a Lillie child safe belonging to Messrs. Brown & Wilson, at the First National Bank—the Lillie agent to have fair play at the Herring, and the Herring agent to have fair play at the Lillie, the one first reaching the money to have both sums, or $2000.

Quite a lively time may be expected when the Herring bones and Lillie leaves begin to rattle and flutter in the full tide of successful or unsuccessful experiment.—Record of the Times.

CHANGE OF TRACK.—The Luzerne Union says the third rail on the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg railroad will be laid over the entire length of the road in a week or two, so that cars loaded either at Northumberland or Scranton can traverse the whole distance without transshipment. A train can then be loaded at any point on the road, and go direct to Philadelphia. The great increase of business and the demand of the coal trade rendered this change necessary.

If we may be permitted to judge by the returns of the late elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania, the best way to increase the population of a country is to go to war and have men killed off; some townships, districts and Counties, cast more votes at the late elections for the Republican candidates than their whole male population, as exhibited by the last census. The system of colonization, stuffing, etc., was over done at the late elections, and the Republicans themselves stand appalled at the enormity of the swindle!

HARD ON SEWARD.—Wendell Phillips, in a Lecture delivered at Boston, a few days ago, and denounced Secretary Seward as "the marplot of every policy, the unbeliever of every cause, the only rock ahead of the Ship of State, the nucleus around which gathers everything disloyal, everything timid, everything selfish, everything base, in the nation." This would be denounced as "treason" if any Democrat had uttered it. But "loyal" Abolitionists are free to say what they please.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.—Col. J. G. Freese keeps constantly on hand and for sale, at the Recorder's Office in Bloomsburg, "The Constitution of the United States," and of the "State of Pennsylvania," in various styles, at prices to suit; also, sundry other democratic books, documents, and speeches; together with legal, note and cap paper, pens, ink and envelopes, of all sizes and styles, as well as theological, poetical, historical and miscellaneous books, cheap.
