SAVE OLD PAPER -As old paper is more valuable than rags, every family ought to bave a bag or box into which to east old and waste paper. This would in a year add much to the general stock of the paper manufacturers. Persons are traveling the country to collect it. It is worth from 6 to 10 cents per pound.

THE remains of ROBERT ARTHUR, one of our most enterprising citizens, were interred on Sabbath last at this place. He lingered slong for nearly a year, the most of the time scarcely able to do any business, until at last he was rather suddenly taken away. Rheumatism afflicted him severely : besides he had the appearance of being Con sumpted. His funeral was attended with a large and respectable concourse of relatives and friends. His age was about 45 years."

A. J. Evans has received the Agency of the Singer Manufacturing Company for the rale of their Letter "A" Sewing Machine. This is said to be a No. 1.
