White Men's Liberties -- State Rights -- Federal Union.

The New York Day-Book is an independent, Democratic Journal, holding with the late Senator Douglas, that "this govern ment is made on the white basis, by white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever." It is a large double sheet, with forty eight columns of reading matter, and in all respects-whether for Markets, news, Literary or Agricultural nformation-is not inferior to any as a political or family newspaper. In its political department, it grapples boldly with the real question before the American people, mont and Bromfield streets. Boston, Mas- and presents the only philosophy of it which can resist the sweeping march of Abolitionism. It is Democratic in the true sense of the term-the defender of the people's rights, but it is the upholder of no party chicanery or trickery. It is not only for peace, but it shows how, and how only, permanent peace can be obtained, and this glorious white man's government of Washington restored, viz: by the utter route, overthrow, and extermination of Abelitionism from American soil.

The Day Book is now the only weekly political paper in New York city made up noms, will always be properly attended. also, must see to it that sound papers are desire to refute the arguments of Abolitionists, should read The Day Book.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE AGE,"

A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER. TO be published Daily and Weekly in the city of Philadelphia, by A J Gloss-RESPECTULLY offers his the city of Philadelphia, by A. J. Gloss-brenner & Co. 'The Age" will advocate ration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and serted on pivot or gold plate, to look as It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including, of course, and pre-eminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country. It will fearlessly criticise the public acts ways on hand. All operations on the teeth of public servants and defend the legal and constitutional right of individual citizens and of sovereign States, against assaults from any quarter. It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic-to present to them. trothfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation-to exhibit the magnitude of the task that lies before them, if they would check our downward progress-and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply the remedy for our national ills. In belief, it will in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The restoration of that pare ty-the party of the Constitution and the Union-to power in the legislative and executive governmental branches of the State and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the atter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim.

The news, literary, commercial and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "The Age" worthy of the support of the general reader.
