THE Republican says : "We learn that the Methodists have procured the Brick building on Rock Street, owned by Mrs. Fannie Weaver, for a parsonage."

THE Editor of this paper is absent in the city of Philadelphia, on business, to remain one will be attributed to his absence.

Tax editor of the Republican has our thanks for the use of his type, already set, upon which we printed the Governor's message, on our first page. We will be happy to return the favor.

A Lecture and Exhibition will be given by Dr J. Hollister, on Wednesday, this evening, in the Pre-byterian Church of this place, the proceeds for the use of the Sunday Schools. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cts. It will be highly interesting.

THE next Term of the Orangeville Normai School, and Academy, will commence on Monday the 25th day of January, 1864. H. D. Walker, Principal; and Miles Williams, Secretary to the Trustees. Mr S. R. White and Miss M. E Lazarus, are assistants in giving instructions.

We always feel like standing by the soldier - Per John's Republican.

Yes sir-ee, you "leel" very much 'like standing by the soldier," but you never "go and do it." Suppose you go down on the Peninsula, or to the army of the Potomac, and "stand by the soldier" awhile; and less talk about the matter. Come, when shall we announce your going ?

LIEUT BROCKWAY arrived in this place a few days ago. He looks well. He reports RICKETT'S BATTERY, to which he belongs, having re-enlisted for three years, received the bounty, and a furlough for 30 day. This Battery has done good service thus far in the campaign. On several occasions when the chances were against our arms this Battery has changed the tide in our favor -Few Batteries bave done as hard work and as much of it, and stood the service so well, save the losses in action. This Battery, probably, has lost as heavily in killed and wounded as any Battery in service.
