FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864. GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention.

The Aspiring Negro.

Under the teachings of the Tribune, the colored people are beginning to "put on airs." In the Anglo-African of this week we find a sharp attack upon Elizur Wright, a Boston Abolitionist, because he presumes to say that the negro has not as much vitality as the whites. The editor goes on to show that the colored race in this country doubles every twenty-two years, while it takes thirty years for the whites even with the aid of emigration, to double their num. bers. But hear how this darkey editor talks :--

"No, friend Wright, you need not disturb yourself about the black man in the United States ; he has a good standing color, and an abundance of endurance ; just brush some of those knotty cobwebs from your brain and look at him ; tall, brawny, well limbed, sound brained as God made him, a man and a brother. You sharp-nosed, hatchet-faced, lank haired people, aided by science and the "hub," have vainly tried to crush the manhood out of him, and failed ; do give up ; you cannot lie him out of his manhood. He is a better man and a better citizen than you or your race "ever dare be." under any circumstances, in all climates; if not, why Jo you cut down his equal chances ? Why shut your eves to facts ? Bluff Ben. Builer, the other day,

Payment of the Militia.

Why is it that the patriotic militia, who so promptly responded to the call of the Governor during the first rebel raid into this State, have never been paid ? Thousands of citizens made great pecuniary sacrifices on that occasion, suspended all business operations, and it is right that they should be remunerated. If we mistake not the Legislature passed a law making provision for the payment of the militia, and thousands of dollars were expended in having the necessary blanks printed. In pursuance of orders from the Adjutant General the warious company rolls were properly made out and furnished to his department last summer.and the militia given to understand that as required.

Still Another Draft.

It is now entirely certain that another draft is to be made as soon as the present one is filled. The Washington corresponter of the 2d inst. says :

"The Provost Matshal-General to-day annoanced that it would be well for each operator ; if it had not been for that desert- district to secure all the men that they could to the credit of their districts, that a new draft would be necessary as soon as this one is filled."
