It maintains the equal right of all men to justice and freedom; it earnestly approves the war for the Union; it holds up the hands of our Is primed on fine white paper, with new brave soldiers in the field; and it opposes and beautiful type, and is a large weekly treason in all shapes, whether open, as at the South, or covert or sneaking as at the worth. At the same time it is the enemy of all undue exercise of power, or all kinds partment is placed on the most fir ished of political jobbery and correption, and and perfect system that experience can dea strict adherence to the constitution .-Throughout the war it has advocated the the most vigorous prosecution of it, but as the war draws to a close political questions take the ascendent. A more stupendous, difficult and interesting problem was never presented to any people, than that of the restitution of the revolting states to their allegiance. It will require all the statesmanship and wisdom of the nation to bring it to a satisfactory solution. On that point the "Evening Post" will take definite grounds, and endeavor to bring about a condition of universal freedom and real democracy. Pledged to no party, and looking only to the interest of the whole country, it will use whatever energy and influence in the defence of the great principles of human right and human ele-
