FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864, GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention.

We see it stated that an attempt will soon be made in Congress to put down all the State Banks, by heavy taxation on their circulation, &c. By this mode the whole amount of circulating medium will be put into the hands of the government.

Our Old Guard, for this month, has been received. It is a capital number. There is no better Democratic Journal, in every respect, published in the United States.

Gold has not gone up! Greenbacks have gone down! This GREENBACK PAPER LEGAL TENDER has depreciated in value just 1 1/2 cents on the dollar since GREENBACK was authorized to step into the market and sell the Government gold.

Three hundred and thirty-seven National or Government Banks are now in existence. Two hundred and forty six have been equipped with notes from Mr. "Government" to the amount of twelve millions of dollars.

The war news is not very interesting of late. The Army of the Potomac is fast in the mud. The forces on the Peninsula are getting ready for a forward movement.

Getting Scared.—The disciples of Abraham are getting terribly frightened at the followers of the Pathfinder, Fremont. They try to throw the blame upon the "copper heads."

FRANK LESLIE.—The April No. of Frank Leslie has been received, laden with more than usually heavy load of Fashion Plates and Patterns; together with a large variety of reading of a very interesting nature.

REMOVAL OF THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The Bill providing for the removal of the State Capital from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, passed the Senate a few days since by a decided majority.

PRICE OF BEEF.—A New York letter of Tuesday says: The beef speculators at the Bull's Head clapped on an extra half cent per pound this morning, which means from two to three cents per pound higher to the consumer.

The Terrible Result.

How is the war progressing? This is the question that interests every body. The North American, an intensely loyal sheet, that a few days ago indicated a disposition to embrace miscegenation, publishes the following, which we presume, coming from a loyal source, to be correct.

Table with columns: Killed, Wounded, Prisoners, Total. Rows for 1861, 1862, 1863, and Total.

Confederates. Killed. Wounded. Prisoners. Total. 1861 1,250 3,955 2,772 7,977

Federalists. Killed. Wounded. Prisoners. Total. 1861 4,724 9,731 9,144 23,748

Confederate total loss in three years, 552,720. Confederate losses in battle, 217,426.

Confederate total loss in three years, 347,165-347,465. Excess of Federal loss, 205,258.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR MAY.—We would call particular attention to the beauty of the steel engravings in this number of the Lady's Friend.

Among the reading matter, we note the following articles: "Deacon Denison's Daughter," "Mrs. Jerry June's Fine Original Story," "Mabel's Mission," "The lovers," "The Ghost," "After Ten Years," by Virginia F. Townsend, &c.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Sunday the 3d inst. a recruit at Carlisle Barracks, being tired of the cares and troubles of this world, thought he would try his fortunes in another.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—The Williamsport Bulletin of the 9th inst., says Alfred H. Mann, of Havre de Grace, Md., came to this place some nine or ten days ago, and was attacked with erysipelas, at the Parker House, where he has been confined to his bed until yesterday morning.

EXCITEMENT AT HARRISBURG.—The joint resolution for the removal of the seat of government from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, passed the Senate on Thursday last 15 to 10.

REMOVAL OF THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The Bill providing for the removal of the State Capital from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, passed the Senate a few days since by a decided majority.

PRICE OF BEEF.—A New York letter of Tuesday says: The beef speculators at the Bull's Head clapped on an extra half cent per pound this morning, which means from two to three cents per pound higher to the consumer.

SOMETHING NEW.—Anti-butcher-eating associations are being formed in various parts of the country. The present price adds a great many involuntary members to the association.

MRS. DEMAREST'S New York Illustrations is out for the month of April in National Colors, rich and rare. Its illustrations are capital; hard to surpass.

THE EDITOR OF THE Columbia Republican has got just about as much of an idea of the politics of Bradford County as a hog has about the value of pearls.

Mrs. President Lincoln's Sister.

The New York World says we must in justice to the Tribune for refusing evidence to its story, that Mrs. J. Todd White, a sister of Mrs. Lincoln, who lately went South by way of Fortress Monroe, abused her pass and carried contraband goods in several large trunks, so giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

The facts are as the Tribune stated them—are even worse; and in apologizing to that journal for an incredulity which is habitual mendacity regarding political opponents has created and fostered in our minds we have no other alternative than to restate the facts precisely as they are, painful as it is to any loyal American to join that fanatical journal in any course, or to endorse its impeachment of the chief magistrate of the United States for assisting, openly in giving direct aid and comfort to the armed enemies of the Union.

Mrs. J. Todd White, a sister of Mrs. A. Lincoln, was a rebel spy and sympathizer. When she passed into the Confederacy a few days ago, by way of Fortress Monroe, she carried with her in her trunks all kinds of contraband goods together with medicines, papers, letters, &c., which will be doubtless of the greatest assistance to those with whom she consorts.

When General Butler wished to open her trunks, as the regulations of transit there prescribe, this woman showed him an autograph pass or order from President Lincoln, enjoining upon the Federal officers not to open any of her trunks, and not to subject the bearer of the pass, her package, parcels or trunks, to any inspection or annoyances.

Mrs. White said to General Butler, the officers in charge there, in substance as follows: "My trunks are filled with contraband, but I defy you to touch them." "Here is the positive order of your master."

Mrs. White was thus allowed to pass without the inspection and annoyance so temporarily forbidden by President Lincoln in an order written and signed by his own hand. And to day the contents of his wife's sister's trunks are giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

TO SCHOOL DIRECTORS. The Common School Laws of Pennsylvania, require—Sec. CLVI. "That the county superintendent shall annually, on or before the first Monday in June, forward to the Superintendent of Common Schools, the report of the several school districts of their respective counties, and shall also themselves make an extended report of the condition of the schools under their charge, suggesting such improvements in the school system as they may deem useful, and giving such other information in regard to the practical operation of common schools, and the laws relating thereto, as may be demanded of public interest."

We desire to act in strict accordance with this provision, and respectfully request the directors of the several school districts, to aid us, by forwarding their respective reports as early as the twentieth of May.—Directors who are in need of blank reports and certificates, shall be promptly supplied by notifying the County Superintendent.

CHAS. G. BARKLEY, County Superintendent. Bloomsburg, Col. Co., Pa.

We notice among the number of those country papers which have raised their subscription, the Danville Intelligencer, and Lycoming Gazette. They have raised their advanced price of subscription from $1.50 to $2.00.

LATE WAR NEWS.

The mysterious movements of Forrest in Tennessee have at length assumed some shape. He has been seen at Paducah, at the mouth of the Tennessee river near Cairo, and the other towns of Memphis.

The first column, it is reported, has captured Paducah, and is on the navigation of the Ohio river, unless there are gunboats near it, it is anticipated that the fort will be captured on Tuesday morning last, at Fort Pillow, on the Mississippi, below Columbus, and near the Tennessee line.

The fort was garrisoned by six hundred negroes, and two flags of truce were sent to it demanding a surrender. The surrender was refused, and the fort was attacked and captured, and many of the negroes killed.

The surrender of the fort was also demanded, and in the correspondence the Confederate commander writes: "Should you surrender, the negroes now in arms will be returned to their masters; should I be compelled to take the place by force, and a large number of negroes were killed, white troops will be treated as prisoners of war."

Fort Pillow was captured with six guns, and a Mississippi steamer allowed to carry off the wounded, fifty-eight in number. There are rumors of the surrender of Columbus to the rebels, and it is anticipated that the Confederates will be able to capture it in a few days.

General Steele is still progressing on his march to Arkansas. He has now advanced his route or object, his progress and skirmishes are of very little importance. There are no movements yet, indicating the evacuation of Brownsville by the Federal troops.

STILL LATER. All the reports of Confederate success in Western Kentucky are confirmed. Fort Pillow has been evacuated by them, they are carrying off all the cannon and stores.

They have gone towards Memphis. Paducah is still in danger, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary. The enemy have again demanded its surrender, and when the latest despatch closed a battle was anticipated.

At Manassas Junction about twenty Federal soldiers were captured. There were raiding parties hovering about in all quarters. There are no signs yet of the advance. General Grant does not seem to move very briskly.

Burnside is massing a great many negro troops with his expedition at Annapolis. An expedition from Fortress Monroe to Smithfield in Virginia on last Monday succeeded in capturing six Confederates and fifty negroes.

The Federal loss was one prisoner and five wounded. A French armed vessel has been allowed to go up the James River to procure the Emperor's tobacco.

An arrival from New Orleans is announced, but no news of importance. There is still great mystery about Camp River. The Confederates have made a raid from Virginia into Eastern Kentucky through Pound Gap.

The telegraph states that they were repulsed and have retreated. The street may be looked for in that direction before long.

THE HISTORY OF HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. THE most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and other diseases arising from a disordered stomach or liver, places it at once among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. It is a disease to which biters are applicable as to universal that biters are fit for our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances and privs to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines deserving the public commendation. For sale by Druggists and dealers everywhere. April 5th, 1864.—Im.
