A FORTUNE FOR ALL! EITHER MEN OR WOMEN!

NO SUMBUG, but an ENTIRELY NEW thing. Only three men live in this country. No clap-trap operation to gull the public, but a genuine money-making thing! Read the Circular of instruction twice only, and you will understand it perfectly. A "Lady has just written to me that she is making as high as TWENTY DOLLARS SOME DAYS," giving instructions in this art. Thousands of Soldiers are making money rapidly at it. It is a living that takes better than anything ever offered. You can make money with it home or abroad—on steam boats or railroad cars, and in the country or city. You will be pleased in pursuing it, not only because it will yield a handsome income, but also in consequence of the general admiration which it elicits. It is pretty much all profit. A mere trifle is necessary to meet with.

There is scarcely one person out of thousands who ever pays any attention to advertisements of this kind, thinking they are humbugs. Consequently those who do send for instructions will have a broad field to make money in. There is a class of persons in this world who would think her because they have been humbugged out of a dollar or so, that everything that is advertised is a humbug. Consequently the try no more. The person who succeeds is the one that keeps on trying until he hits something that pays him.

This art costs the one thousand dollars, had I expected to make money out of it—and tell who purchase the art of the will do the same. One dollar sent to me will insure the prompt return of a copy of instructions to the art. The money will be returned to those not satisfied.

THE ABOLITION PARTY.

Ate in a mighty sweat

About the next election

Who shall be their nigger pet;

They hardly think old Abe will do

For he once so played the fool

That the people are determined

He cannot be their tool.

He has been a tool for Seward,

And he's been a tool for Chase,

But does not much like Fremont

Because he wants to take his place.

There is Fremont was the honor

Of setting Slave free,

And Chase thinks of the Greenbacks

That he is getting by the spurs;

Stanton is the Secretary

Keeping matters right.

To keep the thing going

Is surely his delight.

Now we have talked about the race

But we've left one master out,

And it is of an honest man

We will tell you all about—

It is little George McClellan,

Who is honest, true and brave,

And we trust in his election

Yet our country will be saved.

He was a friend to Lincoln,

A sure and timely aid,

When the rebels dashed for Washington

When on a savage raid.

Now you scoffing Abolitionists

Can score at little Mac

Who saved the old rail splitter's life

And drove the rebels back.

You can blow about secession,

And about the dreadful news,

But when it comes to fighting

You would rather be excused.

You urge your fellow brethren

To fight their brothers, too,

Then you call them copperheads for doing

What you're afraid to do.

Now stick to Uncle Abe and then

All masters will be,

For he has promised in his honored word

That Sambo shall be free;

And when rebellion is crushed out—

If you do not loose your life—

You can have Sambo for your servant

And Dina, for your wife.

TUMBLER.

Free Debate in Congress.

What a curious and suicidal doctrine is that which the radical majority in Congress led by the Speaker, are endeavoring now to force on the country! It is neither less nor the enactment of a role that when a course has once been adopted by an administration it must be persisted in to its end to ruin. For they forbid any man ever to propose abandonment of that course. They declare that a member of Congress is a traitor who refuses to approve the steadfast prosecution of a plan as long as the President wishes to prosecute it. Is it not just possible that such a doctrine would forever prevent the possibility of recying an error? At what point would a nation stop? It is the doctrine of an automatism. It is the perfection of tytusy.

A Congress on such a principle must be the creature of a President, the mere machine to carry out his views, and to pass all such measures as he wishes. No point of time can be imagined, according to these men, when the representative of the people in Congress can rise in his place and say, "It is time to pause." For whenever he dares do so, he must be expelled. This is the plain principle now advocated by Mr. Colfax and his political friends. They would convert our country into a monarchy of the most vicious kind.

Why will men close their eyes to the lessions of history? Other nations have gone through this same gate to perdition. The radical party would lead us the same road —will lead us on it and down it, unless we can stop and refuse to follow.
