SHERIFF FURMAN has four boarders, three male and one female. All candidates for the May term. The Sheriff loses money boarding folks these times at 25 cents per day. Its too low.

VOLUNTEERING is still going on in some ections In Philadelphia a special bounty of $300 is paid to recruits, besides the $100 the Government still pays.

This 29 Philip Dietterich vs William Long. is a good stand to purchase groceries at cheap for cash. You can scarcely go amiss for anything in the grocery line at this store.

ONE of the side walls of the brick blackemith shop on Main Street, below Market, fell in on Teesday morning last. The workmen engaged digging a seller under the building came too close to the foundation of the "brick work," and a little below it, which gave way. Mr. JOSEPH SHANNON designs fixing up the place for a meat shop.

Os Saturday morning last, Mr. PHILIP STREET, Conductor of No. 8 Freight Train on the Lacka, and Bloom burg R. R., met with a painful accident, while stopping at the depot at this place, by getting one of cars. Dr. J. B. McKelvy was called and sealed letter envelopes, free of charge .dressed the wound, which was found not so bad as to render it necessary to perform any amputations.

OCREADVERTISING COLUMNS are worthy of examination. Reader, when you have money to spend, consult your county paper and trust those who have the courtesy to let you know what they have to bell. Such merchants do more business, have better goods, and in all respects are more trustworthy than such as hope to eatch you accidentally and never expect to see you again. To intelligent people the advertisements are of great value.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY .- We take pleasure in noticing the fact that our townsman. Mr. HENRY ZUPPINGER, still repairs Watch es and Clocks at his old stand on Main st., Bloomsburg. He also keeps on hand a variety of Jewelry which he will sell upon by giving him a call. He works reasonably low and does his work in a skillful and workmanlike manner.

Fins .- On the 21st inst, the bare and shed of Peter Heller, in Greenwood township, this county, were consumed by fire, with all their contents, consisting of several nds of grain, bay and straw, wagon and harness, together with his live stock-one mare, coit and calf. There was no insurance on the property, thus making the loss, a severe one to Mr. Heller, who is an honest, industrious and worthy citizen. It remains a mystery how the barn cought fire. On Main street, two doors above the 'American Hotel.' It was first discovered pear the middle of the forenoon of said day. It was situated eless by the public road, easy of access for an incendiary to apply the match.
