FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864, GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN, Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention

Salmon P. CHASE, Secretary of the Treasury, has sent to ABRAHAM LINCOLN his resignation. Immediately upon this anmonnement, the President tendered the appointment to Ex. Governor Topp, of Ohio, Mr. Chase's successor, but it was not accepted; whereupon the Chief Magistrate made another relection, in the person of WM. P. FESSENDAN, Senator from Maine .-This nomination has been confirmed by the Senate, although not yet accepted, the President not having consulted MR. FESSENDEN on the matter previous to his nomination. There are various reasons assigned for the step taken by Mr. CHASE, but as yet, all that we have seen, do not look very plausible. We may look for further developments in the matter, when the true reason for his resignation may be fully unearthed .Mr Chase's whole financial policy has been ruinous and mischievone from its very beginning. The present administration have got the affairs of our Government very much muddled, and we may look for resignations, one after the other, until the old leeches are all removed and new and fresh ones take their places, to sap out the last remaining life blood of the nation.

Turs thing of drafting for so diers is about port themselves, and get "exempted" or pay "commutation," while in other dispricts very few are paying any attention to into the ground! What will be tried next? in every direction. Undertake to hunt up and arrest these men who have not reported ? That would not pay. They could not be found ; or at least enough of them to make it profitable to the "Government." Ever since Abe Lincoln has waged war for the freedom of the negro, and subjugation of the South, he has had difficulty in getting soldiers to fight his battles. He has been compelled to pay enormous bounties, besides having made three heavy drafts, to keep up his army .-At present he is in want of men, and the which has proved to be no better. query is bow to get them. Money will not hire them, and conscription will not compel them to enter the service. The people are willing to pay their money for a reasonable length of time but when they concot do that, we fear the "Government," body and breeches, Lincoln thrown in, has gone under, and the acknowledgment of the Southern Confederacy a fixed fact. Abe Lincoln has clearly shown his inability to restore the Union as it was, or any other way, say nothing about his whipping the rebels. That will be something to talk about hereafter.

SHERIFF FURMAN advertises in another column of the STAR the Governor's proclamation ordering an election, to be held on the 2d day of August next, to approve and ratify or reject the amendments to the constitution, extending the right of suffrage to the soldiers in the service of Abraham Lin coln. The amendments may carry throughout the State by a considerable majority; field has an opportunity of carrying out conscription act having made it so. and expressing his own wishes, either by ballot or any other way. We have witnessed some voting and understand well how such things are managed under military discipline. The men generally carry out the wishes and instructions of their and seldom ever exercise their suffrage to about 15,000 people. It will be well ventithe contrary. The army vote as we said before is for their own rulnation. Mark the prediction !

WE HAVE been authorized to state that. Martin A. Annernan, Esq., of Fishingcreek township, respectfully declines being a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the

We go to Press a little earlier than usual this week, consequently we are deprived of giving our general variety of army inelligence. Gen. Grant has made no advances for over a week. Two weeks ago mounted to the destruction of some 1500 and entrenching his army. A despatch from General Grant's head quarters, dated the 3d inst., says that Gen. Wilson's operaions were a complete success. This was a raid, made by cavelry. Sixty miles of the Danville railroad were torn up by him. He destroyed all the shops where he sup posed the rails might be straightened. Thirty miles of the Southside railroad were de-together with a large lot of the very best horses. He seems to have made this raid for the purpose of capturing their "darling," a wagon train and twelve cannon, which looks very much as if he made a perfect "skedaddle." It is said that he saved his artillery horses. We may safely multiply this destruction of life and property by teo, if we would arrive nearer the truth of the Martinsburg a few days ago, and were at the last accounts destroying the railroad and advancing on Martinsburg. The extent of the destruction is not fully known; and the accounts are too confused to determine their following :

This last raid is heralded by the Abolition Press as an entire success. It is true Gen. Wilson was over a week in making it. and returned with some one thousand or less men, besides a loss of property, than when he started. Let us see what he accomplished. In the first place it is said he destroyed two trains of cars, the Danville Railroad, burned the ties and twisted the rails, and cut off Lee's communication, thus isolating his army from the South, besides the capture of 400 negroes, the chief played out. In some districts nearly all re- object of the raid ! After all the flourish the "draft." We say the thing is about run still in arms, threatening Gen. Grant's flanks

DR. JACOB HORLOCHER, of New Berlin. Union county, Pa., sent us a few copies of a little tract, written and published by himself, entitled, "Is SLAVERY CONDEMNED BY THE BIBLE, or Prohibited by the Constitution of the United States ?" These tracts are offered for sale at 10 cents apiece. They are well worth the money and a person's time to set down and read one of them. The entire little work is supported by scriptural evito misunderstand. The New York Tribune in noticing its re peal says "the bloodshed stain that has blotted the statute book of the Republic for seventy years is wiped out forever." That is highly complimentary to the nineteen men who framed the Constitution, and passed the act of 1793 to carry out its pro-Wilson brought in about 400 negroes, visions. Those men headed by General Washington, were, in the estimation of the shoddy patriots of the present day, perfect monsters for placing the same "blood-red stain" in the Constitution and in the statute the negro. In this expedition Wilson lost book. Four years more of shoddy misrule would destroy the last vestige of the Constitution and laws under which the people of the country have so happily lived for so many years. If the people would arrest the work of disintegration, they have only to let their voices be heard at the ballot-box.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S LAST .- Yesterday's Pittsburgh Commercial informs its readers A rebel force made its appearance near that a gentleman from Washington relates the following that occurred the other day at the White House. Some gentlemen were present, excited and troubled about things generally, when Old Abe put a sudden stop to their complainings by the recital of the

No you would hold your breath as well as your tongue, and keep your hands off until the was safe over The Government are carrying an immense weight. Untold treasures are in their hands. They are doing the very best they and we'll get you safe across."

The difficulty of this last "good one of made over this bit of a raid, Wilson arrived Old Abe's" is that he doesn't rell us how 5th of August. The whole number will be safe in Butler's camp, and the rebels are far he has gone over his imaginary Niagara, thirteen tollowing each other weekly, until shore. LET THE FACT be made known East and West, North and South, that the Tribune of June 17th 1864, editorially admitted that In Clubs of not less the radicals and rebels understood each other, and conspired together to destroy this glorious Union. "When," said the the above terms. Tribune, "through their (the rebel) aid we elected Lincoln and Hamlin, our triumpht was nowhere more generally or openly exulted over than in Charleston, the fountain. and focus of the rebellion." These factions have been equally the curse of the country and it is the duty of the country to rally at the next election and put down Lincoln as well as his confederate JEFF DAVIS.
