From a late letter received, from a member of the Army of the Potomac, we learn that ANDREW GILLESPIE, of this County, lost an arm in the battles under Gen. Grant.

WE LEARN that SYLVESTER CRAWFORD, of Mt. Pleasent township, son of Philip Crawtord, was killed in one of the late battles in front of Petersburg. He was a member of the 112th Regiment, P. V.

Wm. Cain, of Stony town, this county, was of tax levies in various parts of the coundrowned in the can't at that place, not long since. Families living close to the canal cannot be too watchful of their children. This is another warning.

We would direct attention to our 'advertising columns. Several advertisements appear in to-day's Stan which will more or less interest every person; and may be the means of their being benefitted when they

THE Lincolnite journals have much to say at our the scarcity of Fremont's friends, and assert that he has not a single press in his interest. THE 4TH OF JULY did not reach Bloomsburg this year. The day in this place was AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBremarkably quiet, save the snaping and SCRIBERS. cracking of a few fire crackers. There was not the usual amount of drunkenness and carousing about on our streets that has heretofore characterized the 4th in this place. A great many of our "young sprigs" went to Catawissa to see the 4th. The old fash-Abe Lincoln has taken it away from them.

THE CELEBRATION of the 4th at Catawisen was, we understand, a fine affair There were a great many people in attendance .-Nothing occurred to mar the pleasures of the day, so far as we have learned. The Festival was an entire success. The orations were among the most interesting exfar as heard from on the catalogue of Cel. ble affair The information will cost you ebrations.
