BLOOMSBURG, WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1864.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864, GEORGE B. MCLELLAN, Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Democratic Electors, in and for the several Boroughs and Election Districts, will meet at their respective places of holding the General Elections, on Saturday, the 27th day of August next, between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock p. m. of said day for the purpose of choosing two Delegates from each District, to meet in County Convention, at the COURT HOUSE in Bloomsburg, on Monday, the 29th day of August, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of making the usual annual nominations of the Democratic party of Columbia County.

WILLIAMSON H. JACOBY, Chairman H. W. McREYNOLDS, JOHN A. FURMAN, W. KRICKBAUM, HIRSH BOWEN, JACOB YEAGER, JOHN MORGAN.

Soldiers' Voting.

In last week's Republican was an article on this subject, trying to work upon the sympathies of the people, but not one word as regards the negroes having a vote under this amendment was said. Upon this point the astute editor was perfectly mum.

The Democracy do not fear the white soldiers' vote. Give them a fair chance to exercise their opinions, and Shoddy will not be the gainer by it. Fetter them—their hands up under the army regulations, as the Shoddy dynasty knows so well how to do, and then Lincoln may perhaps poll a small majority.

Every Democrat desires that the soldiers should be allowed a vote, but in objecting to the right of negroes voting and to the holding of the ballot-box by one political party alone, he betrays the sentiment of the soldiers themselves, who are known to be in favor of even and exact justice to all the candidates whom the people put forward.

Repeal of the Commutation Clause.

After having refused to do so by a large majority, says the Lancaster Intelligencer, the House of Representatives has at length agreed to the repeal of the commutation clause. This change was made in obedience to the express desire of the President.

KEARSE—This word is of Indian origin. A mountain in New Hampshire bears the name, as well as the U. S. Gun boat that sank the Alabama. It is a word of three syllables—Kee-sar-ge—with the accent on the second and g in the third hard.

Embarrassing the Government.

The reason assigned by the war press of the country for the failure, or rather the refusal, of Congress to consider the Mexican question, is a very characteristic one. Congress was "unwilling to embarrass the Government."

Now, however, we have changed all that. The President is the Government, and to prevent him from doing as he pleases is treasonable. To doubt his wisdom or his purity is to be seditious.

What shall we have next? The Judiciary and the Legislature "embarrass" Mr. Lincoln, and are silenced; will not the ballot-box take its turn and be silenced also?

One of Mr. Lincoln's Pledges.

On the Sunday before the day the extra session of Congress of 1861 adjourned, President Lincoln said to Mr. Mallory, a Representative of Kentucky, in presence of Senator Crittenden and others:

Mr. Mallory, this war, so far as I have anything to do with it, is carried on on the idea that there is a Union sentiment in these States, which, set free from the control now held over it by the presence of the Confederate or rebel power, will be sufficient to replace those States in the Union.

The contingency supposed by the great pledge-breaker exists, and has existed for many months, caused in no small degree by this man's own acts. The people of the seceding States are determined, "with unanimity, that their States shall not be members of this Confederacy."

P. T. Barnum.

The ubiquitous Barnum has turned out as an author, having been engaged by the New York Mercury to write a series of articles for that journal upon the subject of "Ancient and Modern Humbugs of the World."

THE EMPEROR MAXIMILIAN arrived in the city of Mexico on the 11th of June, and his entry was saluted with 100 guns. His reception is said to have been enthusiastic.

THE WAR.

The expedition into Maryland, it appears, had an important effect on the state of affairs at Petersburg. Before it began, Gen. Grant's army was east and south of the town, his southern flank being near the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad.

The Maryland expedition has got safely off. They have entered the Shenandoah Valley. The Federal troops followed them to the Potomac, where there was some slight skirmishing, but very few pursued their farther. Gen. Wright's Corps is at Poolesville and Rockville, and Reynold's 19th Corps in near Edwards' Ferry.

There is great doubt as to the real condition of affairs in front of Atlanta. It is not certainly known that Sherman has crossed the Chattahoochee. If he has crossed it, he has not advanced beyond the river bank.

SHODDY DASH.—In noticing instances of foolish extravagance, so prevalent at this time in the great metropolis, the New York Tribune relates the following: We heard the other day of a most ridiculous "dash" made by a New Yorker of reported wealth now; but who was not long ago a citizen of Rochester in moderate circumstances.

VERY COOL.—The Springfield Republican charges that many leaders of the Democratic party are in open sympathy with the rebellion. This is cool, to say the least of it, while a majority of the President's family are with the rebels, and Mrs. Lincoln's sister but lately went from Washington into the rebel lines under a pass from Abraham; while the men who have been found guilty of selling to the rebels munitions of war, and food and clothing, in the loyal States, are Republicans, and men who were appointed to office by Mr. Lincoln—officers of Republican organizations, and others of their ilk.

THE THREE GRACES OF SHODDY.—Howard of the Times, Stanton of the Tribune, and Anderson of the Post, all have niches in the walls of Fort La Fayette. Albany Argus.

Democratic editors are sent to Fort La Fayette.

Democratic editors are sent to Fort La Fayette but there is a difference between the "order of their going" and that of the Shoddies. The former are sent because of their political opinions, but the latter are sent—one for forgery another one for furnishing the enemy with contraband goods, and a third for violating the Government.

THE DEMOCRATS predicted that the triumph of a sectional party would produce a dissolution of the Union. That was denounced as "lucio loco stuff!" The result is before the country.

THE LEWISBURG ARGUS proposes to use the stay at home war shrieking coward who try to drive him and cox others on to death, as grave stones to set up over the graves of the murdered victims with the following inscription stamped upon their foreheads:

I helped to murder him who sleeps here! I made his mother shed bereavement's tear! I cried aloud for blood and war, But never left my dwelling door! The Copperheads! helped to fleece, And crossed the man that plead for peace! I helped lay traps for Richmond's fall, And helped contrive each conscript call! I filled the land with mothers wails, And made full many an orphan child! I struck the hated Union's knell, And sunk the country deep as hell! A memorial now I have to stand Of Treason and its wicked band!

PRACTICAL TREASON!—The Republicans say that Lincoln and Hamlin, are the Government, and to oppose the Government, which they call Copperhead treason. The Republican Convention at Baltimore, threw Hamlin off, and thereby upset half of the "Government."

AN ABOLITION contemporary, in an article condemning any course of General Banks, thinks that he is "just about as likely as the majority of editors to know the points that pertain to the conduct of a given battle." Yes, we suppose so—"just about!"

SOLDIERS VOTING.—The Lancaster Examiner, a shoddy organ, says "the Copperheads of Berks county are electioneering against the constitutional amendment allowing soldiers to vote on the ground that there are negro soldiers, and it would let them vote."

ANDREW H. READER, ex-Governor of Kansas, died at his residence in Easton, Pa., on the morning of July 15th.
