Cures Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nerouspees, Depression of Spirits, Constipa tion, Colie, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps | solas, and Spasms, and all complaints of either Sez, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent-in the system or producod by special causes.

Nothing that is not 'wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOM-ACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamio berbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimu auta.

It is well to be forearmed against disease and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maiad es engendered by an unwholesonie atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hosteller's Billers may be relied on as a saleggard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge ; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinice for months in yain. until lairly saturated with that dangerous alk-loid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a faw days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigoreted and the appelite restored by this sureable the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forme of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient, as well as apon the liver, it also invariably relieves the EPILEPTIC FITS, in one of which the CALICOES, Constipation superinduced by inegular Patient may expire.
