Nothing that is not 'wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOM-ACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant : but it is a combination of the extracts of mure balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease and, so lar as the human system can be protected by human means against malad es engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeggard.

Is districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge ; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after be-ing plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerons alk-loid, are not unfrequently restored to heath within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigoreted and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion.
