IRON IN THE BLOOD. It is well known to the medical profesion that fron is the vital Principle or Life Element of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we eat; but if the food is not properly digested or if, from any cause whatever, the decessary quan-tity of iron is not taken into the circulation or becomes reduced, the whole system suflers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the lungs, will supply the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its disease producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one w'll soffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease. The great value of

Or are we obliged now to exchange the hopes we had of Southern Union men for that other and miserable hope in the negro ? Is he all that is left of loyalty in the South, and the only ally that we can rely upon to aid us in restoring the Union ? Ye gods ! what have we come to at last ? The murderer, the carniverous miscreant whose savage intentions were gratified was present, and with fiery eyes gazed upon the foul work he had so cowardly done. A cold shudder would have run through the veins of the most hardened mortal witnessing the scene.

The real cause of this punishment was that the poor worn out creature had hid himself, or could not be lound when wantng to go on duty. The regiment had just arrived from the front and had gone into quarters, which the 36th U. S. C. T. had just evacuated, the men were busily engaged in removing the rubbish which had accumulated.

Mr. President, our Government was tended to be one of law, pre eminently of law. There was to be nothing in the administration of it left to the arbitrary will of an individual or individuals. This was its merit, or intended so, par excellence. I am for preserving its character in that respect strictly. Let no man, from the President down to the most petty officer, dare to do anything, whether to friend or enemy, except as warranted by law. Let us make war according to law, and let us have peace according to law. If we fight a belligerent enemy, let us do it according to the law of nations. > make him believe that he is a favored member of the community, and therefore has no right to join his voice in the general and universal curse that is now pursuing to destruction the corrupt and wicked Administration of Abraham Lincoln.

We trust that the farmers of Pennsylvania by the farmers themselves, who bring this will remember this assault upon them, and ing up the State Guard leaving it in his pow- produce into the market generally with the avenge it in a proper manner. Perhaps, dacity, that the war is not to be prosecuted understanding for several successive weeks Mr. Rawle may be employed to prosecute them for conspiracy ; but if they escape cents on each merket day. Thus the price punishment and remain freemen until the was 65 cents on Wednesday week, 70 day of election, they will then have ample cents on Saturday, and 75 cents on last opportunity to strike a blow, not only at the wicked Administration that has brought

Lincoln, War, Anarchy.

We predicted in 1860 that the election of the Union Splitter, LINCOLN, would be followed by a long and bloody war, that the Constitution would be trampled under foot, that State rights and State laws would be dal hands of a reckless, dishonest, treasonable Abolition faction took hold of the ship of Sfate. Our predictions were laughed at, the power of the South was sneered themselves and their hearers merry at the expense of those who warned the people of the impendig crisis. A sectional party was a dangerous experiment. WASHING Ton and others of the early fathers had warned us against giving countenance to any thing of the kind, but all to no purpose The words of departed statesmen were forgotion or disregarded by the mad fanatics who had resolved upon war, desolation and plunder. Nothing but a little blood-letting would satisfy them, and, God knows, they have had blood letting in abundance. Some seven or eight hundred thousand men, North and South, sleep in gory graves, and the end is not vet. No not yet, and no man living has an idea when this "wicked war," this sanguinary contest is to be brou ht to a close. Mr. Lincoln has called for $00.000 more men, and he delares at the same time, with brazen aufor the purpose of restoring the Union, but for the abolishment of slavery. In violaion of his cath, in violotion of his plighted word and the resolution unanimously adopted by Congress, the President insults the people by telling them that this infernal war is to go on from year to year until the slaves of the South are all set free and negro equality established. This accomplished, he will be ready to recognize the South as a separate and distinct power. Mark it Lincoln is ready and willing to dissolve the Union the very hour the is succenstul in the scheme nearest his heart-
