THE A bolition party of this county held their County Convention in the Court the beck and bidding of such men as we said about their own candidates, and infibut appointed Congressional and Representative Conferees, without instructions. Dr. John alias Thomas Dann has not been able for the last few years to play off a county ticket on the Abolition convention. Renegade Democrats are scarce, and the Abolitionists aspiring for county honors are not numerous, who love to pay printer's bills? This convention would not compare with most of their conventions either in numbers or respectability. It was decidedly a shabby affair. No enthusiasm about it. Every thing that was before it fell like a wet blanket. The shoddyites are gone up this Fall. The thing is plainly to be seen. For conclusive evidence of the fact just attend one of their gatherings. Poor fel lows, good for them! Let them behave themselves when they get into power!

A "LOYAL" paper, in glorifying the conscription and its delicious fruits, justifies it on the ground that the Romans made their levies in that way from the male population between the ages of 17 and 45 years. A great similarity is discovered in the fact that the service was compulsory, and that age and infirmity were exempted. How fortunate it is that so remarkable a resemblance can be discovered between a tyranny of ancient times and one of more modern date. Other points of resemblance might have been found. Gen. McClellan's Letter of Acceptance

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 .- The following is

ORANGE, N. J., September 8, 1864. GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to ac knowledge the receipt of your letter in forming me of my nomination by the Democratic National Convention, recently as sembled at Chicago, as their candidate at the next election for President of the United States.

It is unnecessary for me to say to you that this nomination comes to me unsought.

I am happy to know that when the nomi nation was made the record of my public life was kept in view.

The effect of long and varied service the army during war and peace has been t strengthen and make indellible in my mind and heart, the love and reverence for the Union, Constitution, laws and flag of our county impressed upon me in early youth. These feelings have thus far guided the course of my life, and must continue to do so to its end. The existence of more than one Government over the region which once owned our flag, is incompatible with the peace, the power and the happiness of the people. The preservation of our Union was the sole avowed object for which the war was commenced, and it should have been conducted in accordance with those principles, which I took occasion to declare when in

Thus conducted, the work of reconstruction would have been easy and we might have reaped the benefit of our many victories on land and ses.

The Union was originally formed by the exercise of a spirit of conciliation and compromise, and to restore and preserve it the same spirit must prevail in our councils and in the hearts of the people. The re-establishment of the Union in all its integrity is, and must continue to be, the indispensable condition in any settlement.

So soon as it is clear, or even probable, that our present adversaries are ready for peace upon the basis of the Union, we should exhibit all the resources of statesmanship practiced by civilized nations and taught by the traditions of the American people-consistent with the honor and interests of the country-to secure such peace. re-establish the Union and guarantee for the future the conditional rights of every State. The Union is the one condition of peace,

Let me add what I doubt not was, althounexpressed, the sentiment of the Convention, as it is of the people they represent triotic statesman, one every way worthy of that when any one State is willing to return to the Union, it should be received at once with a full guarantee of all its Constitutional rights. It a frank, earnest, and persiswill fall upon those who temain in arms against the Union; but the Union must be preserved at all hazards.

I could not look in the face of my gallant comrades of the army and navy who have fought in so many bloody battles, and tell them that their labors and the sacrifice of so many of our slain and wounded brethren had been in vain, that we had abandoned that Union for which we have so ofand proves the necessity of changing our our people, whether in the army or navy rulers in order to secure individual rights, or at home, would, as I would, hail with unbounded joy the permanent restoration of peace, on the basis of the Union under Col. Victor E. Piollet, this day nominated the Constitution, without the effusion of another drop of blood ; but no peace can be permanent without Union.

As to the other subjects presented in the resolutions of the Convention, I need only say that I should seek in the Constitution of the United States, and the laws framed in accordance there with, the rule of my duty and the limitations of executive power ; penditure, re-establish the supremacy of law and by the operation of a more vigorous nationality, resume our commanding position among the nations of the earth.

The condition of our finances, the depreciation of the paper money, and the burdens thereby imposed on labor and capital. financial systen, while the rights of citizens and the rights of States, and the binding authority of law over the President, the army and the people, are subjects of not less vital importance in wat than in peace. Believing that the views here expressed are those of the Convention and the peo ple you represent, I accept the nomination I realize the weight of the responsibility to be borne, should the people satisfy your Conscious of my own weakness, I can only seek fervently the guidance of the Ruler of the Universe; and relying on His all-powerful aid do my best to restore Union and peace to a suffering people, and so establish and guard their liberties and rights. I am, gentlemen.

Very respectfully. Your obedient servant, GEO. B. McCLELLAN. Hon. Horatio Seymout and others. Com-

The following is the letter of the Com-

of your unanimous nomination by that body as the candidate of the Democratic party for President of the United States, and also to present to you a copy of the resolutions of the Convention. It gives us great pleasure to perform this duty, and to act as the representatives of that Convention, whose deliberations were witnessed by a vast assemblage of citizens. who attended and watched its proceedings with intense interest.

their candidate of one whose life has been devoted to its cause, while it is their earnest hope and confident belief that your election will restore to our country, Union, Peace and Constitutional Liberty. We have the honor to be your obedient servants.

A Word to Republicans.

We do not address ourselves to holders of office, shoddyites or Government contractors. Argument with them is useless They have other objects in view than the good of the country. Gold, public plunder, to enrich themselves at the expense of a ruined and disgraced country, is all they care about, think about, or talk about .-You might as well expect to find virtue or love of country in them, as holiness among the imps of Satan himself. But you, Mr. Republican, whoever you are, who has come to the conclusion that there is something wrong in the administration of our Government, you who have been made uneasy by the manner in which this dreadful war has been waged, to bay nothing of its objects and purposes, may we ask you WHEAT. to read the Chicago platform? When you RYE, voted for Mr. Lincoln, who subsequently declared the purpose of this war to be, for the restoration of the Union and the enforcement of the laws, did you expect that in so short a time Mr. Lincoln would cheat every one of you, sell you out, and hand his administration over to the gentle guidance of Horace Greeley and the radicals? Did you expect that your Republican party would be blotted out of existance, or rather amalgamated or miscegenated with these abolitionists whom you denied as belonging to your party, previous to the Presidential election. Is it not plain that Mr. Lincoln has perverted the war, bent all the energies and powers of his ad ministration for other purposes than the restoration of the Union? Have not most of his measures had a direct positive disunon tendency? Answer to your own con-sciences for you know it is so. But we offer you a candidate whose public and private record we earnestly beseech you to examine. We offer you a platform which "adheres with unswerving fidelity perches. to the Union under the Constitution." Do you doubt the patriotism of GEN. McCLEL- and fourteen perches. LAN? You can find nothing upon which to | No. 4. Beginning at a base any doubt. I would ask, do you abandon your party when you refuse to vote for Lincoln's re-election upon the ground that he abandoned the principles of the platform upon which he was elected, and disgracefully belied his intentions, the object of the war, &c., in his inaugural address, Country is above party; and when we hear the roar of the coming storm, it is well to be prepared to meet it .- Luzerne Union.

THE WAR.

There is no contest reported yet from General Grant's camp. Secretary Stanton stated in a despatch on Saturday that all was quiet. The preparations for a grand conflict continue, however. Grant is massing all his available troops on the Weldon Railroad, about five miles south of Peters- ACRES ten perilled our lives. A vast majority of burg. Lee has a strong force on three sides of Grant's position. There are Confederates west of it; in Petersburg, north of it, and at Reams' Station, south of it. Lee is reported as having made his headquarters at Reams' Station. Troops are evidently hurrying to Richmond from all quarters, and we have all the symptoms of a Confederate attack, which foreworned McClellan in 1862, when on the Peninsula.

From General Sherman there is intelligence as late as teno'clock on Friday morning. At that time he had withdrawn his army to Atlanta, and was fortifying the position. There is no indication of any further advance by him. Confederate despatches state that Generals Anderson and Cumming were wounded in the late contest, and that their loss was one thousand killed and wounded, beside prisoners .-Wheeler's expedition to the railroad in Sherman's rear is regarded, in the South, as show the necessity of a return to a sound a failure. Wheeler is evidently retreating to Hood's camp.

There is a variety of intelligence from New Orleans. General Banks will come north on September 15. General Herron. with the Federal troops, has evacuated Clinton, Louisiana, and the Confederates have re-occupied it. General Dick Taylor, with the Confederates from the west side of the Mississippi, has certainly crossed the river and will march to the relief of Hood and Mobile. The Confederates have captured the Federal garrison at Duval's Bluff, Arkansas, with two gunboats and seven

There was a report on Saturday that Mobile had surrendered. Secretary Stanton states that he has received no confirmation of it; General Granger, who commands the Federal land forces, is at New Orleans, and though Farragut was, at last accounts, making extensive preparations for an attack, vet it was announced that he would not make one until Gen. Granger returned.

A reconnoissance from Sheridan's camp n the Shenandoah Valley, has found the Confederates in a strongly intrenched position, four miles west of Berryville, on the Opequan River. Nothing bas occurred in the Valley, though it is stated that Early is

The Confederates have made a raid against the railroads running from Newbern, North Carolina, to Moorehead City,on the seacoast. A train was thrown from the track, some passengers killed and injured and some negroes captured. General Grierson, with a body of troops from Memphis, has began an expedition into Arkansas opposite Memphis, to drive away the guerrillas who annoy the steamers on the river. General Imboden, with some Confederate cavalry, recently made a raid into Randolph county, Western Virginia. He captured seventy two prisoners, and ninety-six horses
