

WM. H. JACOBY, EDITOR.

BLOOMSBURG, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23, 1864.

S. M. PETERSON & Co., 37 Park Row New York, are authorized to solicit and receive subscriptions and advertising for the Star of the North, published at Bloomsburg, Columbia county, Penna.

MATTHEW & Co., 335 Broadway, New York, are authorized to receive subscriptions and advertising for the Star of the North.

Peace, Conciliation, and Compromise.

Some of our Abolition friends are loudly talking about a Peace Proposition soon to be offered the Southern Confederacy by Mr. Lincoln. We have no doubt Mr. Lincoln will make some kind of proposition to the Southern people ere long, but whether it will be of such a character as they would accept, is yet to be seen. If he offer to them a proposition without the abandonment of their institution of slavery there is no question but what they will accept terms of peace, conciliation and compromise. The people of the South, save the leaders, are much more anxious for a cessation of hostilities than the people of the North. We would like to see this brought to a close without any more blood being shed if any possible. But at this late day we have very little confidence in the ability of Mr. Lincoln to bring it to a speedy close unless he acknowledge the Southern Confederacy, which every man North would cry loud against. The masses north are for a restored Union. They want the CONSTITUTION as it is, and the Union as it was. That kind of Union we lived and prospered under second to no other nation on earth. I was good enough for us then and it is good enough for us now. We would ask Mr. Lincoln to give us back this Union and the Union as they were when he received them and the whole country, north and south, would have just cause to rejoice. In order that Mr. Lincoln accomplish so much; that is give us back the whole Union; he will unquestionably be obliged to come down to the true VALLANBHAM doctrine, of Peace, Conciliation, and Compromise.

The Abolition party expect to recruit up the army by holding out to the Democratic party that they are trying to effect a compromise, in other words a restoration of the Union without further hostilities. The Democratic party is the fighting party, and so long as they will fill up the depleted ranks the war will go on. We do not say this with a view of discouraging enlistments, because every man has his own notion, and we to ours. The Abolition party is not a fighting party just so long as they can get some body else to do the fighting; but they are fully "no compromise with traitors," and "no compromise with traitors in arms." Now we hear of propositions of peace about to be offered! Is not it astounding? We offer propositions of peace to a rebel Confederacy that could be wiped out in sixty days by Seward's own time. After all, they, the Abs., fight only by proxy!

Mr. A. LINCOLN received less votes at this election than he did four years ago, in this country, although the poll was increased at the late election over FIVE HUNDRED; yet the Shoddy organ up town claims a gain for its party. The Democracy have given more than their usual majority, which is something less than one thousand, and at the same time the Opposition would have the impression get abroad that they cut down the Democratic majority, in this country, when it came to the McCLELLAN ticket received FOURTEEN HUNDRED and FORTY-SIX majority, while Mr. LINCOLN was beaten in this county only FORTY HUNDRED AND FORTY-NINE, in 1860! This does not look much like a gain, Mr. Shoddy, especially when his vote is less, besides the majority against him is more than three times as large as it was when he first ran. Who sees where the gain comes in, either for Lincoln or his party? The Shoddy organ is trying to puff its readers and make capital for itself absurd!

Butler is in favor of proposing peace, and offering an amnesty. Phila. Bulletin. Why not "spot him" as a traitor, then? No "Copperhead" ever proposed anything more or worse than that. It is claimed that the re-election of Lincoln is a condemnation of "peace" and "amnesty," so the quicker Butler, with such notions, is hustled out, the better. "Peace," indeed! Wasn't it asserted a hundred times, before the election, that the only peace commissioners that would be set about by such as Grant, Sheridan, and Sherman? What right has Shoddy to be on the Chicago platform? GET OFF IT AT ONCE!

Another invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania is talked of in the South, and mysterious movements of troops on the Virginia and Tennessee, and the Lynchburg and Gordonsville railroads, and other prognostics, are said to presage something of a hostile or aggressive nature. We were told before the election, that so soon as it should be known in the South that Abraham Lincoln was re-elected the rebels would lay down their arms and submit. It seems they are not submitting much.

The assertion made by Shoddy organs that Lincoln's total majority will reach 400,000 is an exaggerated calculation. It cannot reach beyond 250,000 if even 200,000, to a fairly conducted election it could not have reached the half of that number, and it is even possible that Lincoln might have been actually defeated. Uninfluenced and untrammeled, for instance, Maryland would have certainly cast her vote for Lincoln.

Income Taxes.

Persons having income taxes to pay are receiving the following notice from the Assistant Assessor, viz:

"By joint resolution of Congress approved July 4, 1864, it is provided that in addition to the duty already imposed, there shall be levied and collected a special income duty of five per cent. upon the gains and profits for the year ending December 31, 1863."

By law of Congress, a tax upon all real estate is to be collected, annually after April 1865, of five per cent. upon all real estate. This will amount to $50 tax on every $1000 of valuation. It applies to all real estate, whether the owner has an income or not, or whether under or over $600. Thus: if a man own a house and lot worth $500 his annual tax upon it for this purpose alone will be $25—a farmer whose farm is valued at $4,000 will have to pay $200 tax, &c., for this special purpose.

For making these statements in general terms we have been denounced in certain parts of Columbia county as misrepresenting or falsifying the facts. All we have to say is, if you do not believe us, then call on the Revenue officers—if you do not believe them, then wait till the collector comes—the latter will convince you to the extent that you can not doubt.

INSECT TO GOV. SEYMOUR.—On Friday evening, last after the Republicans of Albany had figured up a majority sufficient to insure the defeat of Governor Seymour, they became jubilant, and procuring a cannon, they fired it under the windows of Governor Seymour's chambers, derisively shouting "How are you, Horatio?" The "suber second thought" of these men, when they reflect that Governor Seymour saved many of them from the draft, by forcing the Administration to forego its wrong to New-York, and to credit it with its full quota of men enlisted, for which act a Republican Legislature gave him a vote of thanks, will bring with it fruits meet for repentance. A more causeless insult, or one in worse taste, could not well be imagined. There will be the greatest of curses, a repentance which comes too late.—N. Y. News.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine, for December. It is a splendid number; with a superb title-page for 1864. Notwithstanding the enormously increased price of paper, and the rise in all printing materials, "Peterson" will still be furnished at two DOLLARS A YEAR. No Magazine of similar merit approaches it in cheapness. Its stories and novelettes are by the best writers. In 1865, Four Original Copyright Novelettes will be given. Its FASHIONABLE ARTISTS, LATEST AND PRACTICAL Every neighborhood ought to make up a club. It is THE MAGAZINE FOR THE TIMES! Its terms to clubs are unprecedentedly liberal, viz:—8 copies for $12.00, or 14 copies for $20.00. To every person getting up a club, (at these rates), the Publisher will send, as a premium, that superb engraving for framing, size 27 inches—A WASHINGTON PARTING FROM HIS GENERAL, or an extra copy of the Magazine for 1865. Address, post-paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE FOR 1865.—The HOME MAGAZINE closes its volume for 1864 with the widest circulation it has yet attained. For 1865 it will be enlarged, and made still more worthy of the patronage it is receiving. No periodical in the country has met with a heartier welcome from the press. Its praises come heralded from every direction. To maintain the high place it has reached in public favor, the publishers and editors will spare neither expense nor labor. Give it, say we, a circulation for the coming year beyond that of any other periodical of its class in the country. It is, par excellence, the people's magazine, and should find a place in every home. Terms $2.50 a year, three copies, $6; five copies, and one to get-up of club, $10; nine copies, and one to get-up of club, $15.

Frank Leslie's Magazine or Gazette of Fashion has not yet received a notice from us for the month of November. It has been our neglect. We have received the publication, and a handsome number it is too. There are no Magazines that surpass this one in any particular. As for fashion plates it is impossible; and as to reading matter it is out of the question. Any person wishing to subscribe for a Magazine, one of high character and a wide spread reputation, will send for Frank Leslie, 557 Park St. N. Y., $3 per annum in advance. It is a large publication, well worth the money.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The November number of the Agriculturist comes to us laden with interesting and useful matter. The publisher has at last been compelled to succumb to the paper makers' monopoly, and raise the price of his subscription. The only wonder is that he was not driven to this step a year ago. On and after December 1st, the price of the English edition of the Agriculturist will be $1.50 a year. Four copies $5; ten copies $13. The German edition is $2 a year; for ten more copies, $15.00 a year. Orange Judd, Publisher, 41 Park Row, New York.

RAITHEN RICH.—A bright idea was promulgated last Sunday by the Pastor of the first Presbyterian Church of Mauch Chunk. As it is from a man of genius and something new, it deserves to be widely circulated.

It was in substance as follows, "That all Governments and rulers were ordained by the Almighty, and to criticize or ridicule rulers, was to criticize and ridicule God," thereby putting the Almighty on a par with Lincoln, Stanton & Co. Bright idea! Query, Would criticizing Lincoln and Chase for making a barem out of the Treasury Department be criticizing the Almighty?

SEEK.—We regret to learn that Thomas Chaffin Esq., editor of the Danville Intelligencer, is dangerously ill with Typhoid fever. We earnestly join his many friends in the hope that he may soon be restored.

THE WAR NEWS.

[From the Daily Age of the 17th.]

General Sherman's movements are still clothed in mystery. The belief now is that Sherman has not given up Atlanta, but, using it as a base, has moved off on a strategic raid similar to the one made last spring from Vicksburg. His intention seems to be to go to Columbus, in Georgia, a town on the Chattahoochee, about 85 miles south of Atlanta. He hopes to destroy various large stores of provisions which the Confederates have piled up for the use of their armies during the winter, and also to break their railroad communications between the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard.—Though Sherman uses Atlanta as a base, and still holds it by a strong garrison, there is not much probability that he will return there. Hood's army being north of him, may intercept his retreat, and he will have to go westward towards Vicksburg. We have no definite intelligence from General Sherman yet, and nothing can be positively said of his progress or his objects.

On Sunday last General Early, in the Shenandoah Valley, had advanced to the body northward to Strasburg and occupied it. Cavalry reconnaissances were sent northward towards Winchester. The Federal cavalry met one of them on Sunday morning, near Newtown, about six miles south of Winchester, and after a small fight, the Confederates retreated to the north. Middleburg is now their outpost. It is eight miles south of Winchester.—Kearstown, four miles south of Winchester, is Sheridan's outpost. The main body of the Confederate troops were on Sunday at Strasburg and Fisher's Hill. The main body of Sheridan's army was at Winchester, and that of the Confederates at Middleburg. The army of the Confederates have already gone to Grant's army by way of Harper's Ferry, and that Early, to meet their movements, has sent a large detachment of his command to Richmond.

Some interesting facts have been published regarding the Dutch Gap Canal, on the James. It is one hundred and sixty yards long, across the narrow neck of land. A large part of the canal has been excavated through high ground. At different times from fifty to five hundred negroes have been employed at digging; at last accounts two hundred were at work. During nearly all the time, the Confederate batteries have seriously interfered with the laborers. The excavations have been made deep enough to float the largest iron clads in the navy. The canal, it is thought, will be completed in the last week of November, and then a grand attack upon Richmond—naval and military—will be made. General Butler has returned to the army at Petersburg. On Tuesday, Grant, Admiral Porter, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy had a consultation at Fort Monroe. The Confederates in front of Grant's centre, on the Appomattox, near Port Walthall, have managed, by obstructing a water course, to overflow a Federal picket line. They have forced it to retire.

The Federal gunboat Montgomery reported on November 7, off the coast of North Carolina, she had captured an engagement with the Tallahassee. Three other Federal gunboats joined in the contest, but the Tallahassee outlasted them and got off. No damage was done to any of the vessels.

General McClellan's resignation has been accepted. General Sherman of the volunteer service, has been made a Major General in the Regular Army. It is reported that General Butler is to succeed Stanton as Secretary of War.

From England we have a report that on October 17th, Capt. Semmes and a crew, embarked at Funchal on a new Alabama, and sailed towards Bermuda.

The capture and destruction of Johnsonville by General Forrest is also confirmed. Forrest lost ten men wounded. He burned the town and destroyed four gunboats of eight guns each; fourteen transports; twenty barges; over twenty thousand tons of freight on the water, and three million dollars worth of stores on board. He captured three gunboats and a large quantity of provisions, some of them negroes, and then abandoned the town. A Federal force from Bridgeport and Chattanooga had re-occupied Decatur at last accounts, all the Confederate troops having gone southward.

There is an indication, though not very clear as yet, that Sheridan has abandoned Winchester, and retreated to the east side of the Opequan. Early is reported to have entered Winchester on Saturday last. In the recent cavalry contest near Front Royal, the Confederates report having captured two hundred Federal prisoners. General Early now commands one of Sheridan's corps. All is quiet at Petersburg. General Butler arrived yesterday at his headquarters, on the north bank of the James, and resumed command. The correspondents in that quarter say that the Confederates are preparing to attack Grant.

The report that General Canby was wounded by a guerrilla while sailing in a gunboat up White River, Arkansas, is confirmed. The wound, though not mortal, is dangerous.

[From the Age of the 19th.]

We are at length able to give a solution of General Sherman's mysterious movements. Sherman had, on November 9th, forty-seven thousand men, ten thousand of whom were cavalry. These he divided into two columns. The first column left Atlanta on November 9th, and marched south to Macon, Georgia. From there it was the intention to go to Milledgeville, the capital of the State, where a large number of Federal prisoners were confined. These are to be released, and the column will then turn east to Augusta. On November 12th, the second column of Sherman's army left Atlanta, going directly towards Augusta. It was hoped that a junction of the two columns could be effected by Nov. 26th, when a march eastward to Savannah, or Charleston, was to be made. Sherman carries six days' provisions with him, principally dry goods of a kind, which can be taken along without much trouble. We have information from Southern sources that a contest had been fought at Rough and Ready, on the railroad running from Atlanta to Macon, between the advance of one of Sherman's columns and some Georgia State troops. There is little doubt that the State troops were defeated, and then the column pushed successfully forward. Hood, on November 12th, was at Tusculum, Alabama, south of the Coosa River, and was

General Sherman's movements are still clothed in mystery. The belief now is that Sherman has not given up Atlanta, but, using it as a base, has moved off on a strategic raid similar to the one made last spring from Vicksburg. His intention seems to be to go to Columbus, in Georgia, a town on the Chattahoochee, about 85 miles south of Atlanta. He hopes to destroy various large stores of provisions which the Confederates have piled up for the use of their armies during the winter, and also to break their railroad communications between the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard.—Though Sherman uses Atlanta as a base, and still holds it by a strong garrison, there is not much probability that he will return there. Hood's army being north of him, may intercept his retreat, and he will have to go westward towards Vicksburg. We have no definite intelligence from General Sherman yet, and nothing can be positively said of his progress or his objects.

On Sunday last General Early, in the Shenandoah Valley, had advanced to the body northward to Strasburg and occupied it. Cavalry reconnaissances were sent northward towards Winchester. The Federal cavalry met one of them on Sunday morning, near Newtown, about six miles south of Winchester, and after a small fight, the Confederates retreated to the north. Middleburg is now their outpost. It is eight miles south of Winchester.—Kearstown, four miles south of Winchester, is Sheridan's outpost. The main body of the Confederate troops were on Sunday at Strasburg and Fisher's Hill. The main body of Sheridan's army was at Winchester, and that of the Confederates at Middleburg. The army of the Confederates have already gone to Grant's army by way of Harper's Ferry, and that Early, to meet their movements, has sent a large detachment of his command to Richmond.

Some interesting facts have been published regarding the Dutch Gap Canal, on the James. It is one hundred and sixty yards long, across the narrow neck of land. A large part of the canal has been excavated through high ground. At different times from fifty to five hundred negroes have been employed at digging; at last accounts two hundred were at work. During nearly all the time, the Confederate batteries have seriously interfered with the laborers. The excavations have been made deep enough to float the largest iron clads in the navy. The canal, it is thought, will be completed in the last week of November, and then a grand attack upon Richmond—naval and military—will be made. General Butler has returned to the army at Petersburg. On Tuesday, Grant, Admiral Porter, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy had a consultation at Fort Monroe. The Confederates in front of Grant's centre, on the Appomattox, near Port Walthall, have managed, by obstructing a water course, to overflow a Federal picket line. They have forced it to retire.

The Federal gunboat Montgomery reported on November 7, off the coast of North Carolina, she had captured an engagement with the Tallahassee. Three other Federal gunboats joined in the contest, but the Tallahassee outlasted them and got off. No damage was done to any of the vessels.

General McClellan's resignation has been accepted. General Sherman of the volunteer service, has been made a Major General in the Regular Army. It is reported that General Butler is to succeed Stanton as Secretary of War.

From England we have a report that on October 17th, Capt. Semmes and a crew, embarked at Funchal on a new Alabama, and sailed towards Bermuda.

The capture and destruction of Johnsonville by General Forrest is also confirmed. Forrest lost ten men wounded. He burned the town and destroyed four gunboats of eight guns each; fourteen transports; twenty barges; over twenty thousand tons of freight on the water, and three million dollars worth of stores on board. He captured three gunboats and a large quantity of provisions, some of them negroes, and then abandoned the town. A Federal force from Bridgeport and Chattanooga had re-occupied Decatur at last accounts, all the Confederate troops having gone southward.

There is an indication, though not very clear as yet, that Sheridan has abandoned Winchester, and retreated to the east side of the Opequan. Early is reported to have entered Winchester on Saturday last. In the recent cavalry contest near Front Royal, the Confederates report having captured two hundred Federal prisoners. General Early now commands one of Sheridan's corps. All is quiet at Petersburg. General Butler arrived yesterday at his headquarters, on the north bank of the James, and resumed command. The correspondents in that quarter say that the Confederates are preparing to attack Grant.

THE WAR NEWS.

[From the Daily Age of the 17th.]

General Sherman's movements are still clothed in mystery. The belief now is that Sherman has not given up Atlanta, but, using it as a base, has moved off on a strategic raid similar to the one made last spring from Vicksburg. His intention seems to be to go to Columbus, in Georgia, a town on the Chattahoochee, about 85 miles south of Atlanta. He hopes to destroy various large stores of provisions which the Confederates have piled up for the use of their armies during the winter, and also to break their railroad communications between the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard.—Though Sherman uses Atlanta as a base, and still holds it by a strong garrison, there is not much probability that he will return there. Hood's army being north of him, may intercept his retreat, and he will have to go westward towards Vicksburg. We have no definite intelligence from General Sherman yet, and nothing can be positively said of his progress or his objects.

On Sunday last General Early, in the Shenandoah Valley, had advanced to the body northward to Strasburg and occupied it. Cavalry reconnaissances were sent northward towards Winchester. The Federal cavalry met one of them on Sunday morning, near Newtown, about six miles south of Winchester, and after a small fight, the Confederates retreated to the north. Middleburg is now their outpost. It is eight miles south of Winchester.—Kearstown, four miles south of Winchester, is Sheridan's outpost. The main body of the Confederate troops were on Sunday at Strasburg and Fisher's Hill. The main body of Sheridan's army was at Winchester, and that of the Confederates at Middleburg. The army of the Confederates have already gone to Grant's army by way of Harper's Ferry, and that Early, to meet their movements, has sent a large detachment of his command to Richmond.

Some interesting facts have been published regarding the Dutch Gap Canal, on the James. It is one hundred and sixty yards long, across the narrow neck of land. A large part of the canal has been excavated through high ground. At different times from fifty to five hundred negroes have been employed at digging; at last accounts two hundred were at work. During nearly all the time, the Confederate batteries have seriously interfered with the laborers. The excavations have been made deep enough to float the largest iron clads in the navy. The canal, it is thought, will be completed in the last week of November, and then a grand attack upon Richmond—naval and military—will be made. General Butler has returned to the army at Petersburg. On Tuesday, Grant, Admiral Porter, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy had a consultation at Fort Monroe. The Confederates in front of Grant's centre, on the Appomattox, near Port Walthall, have managed, by obstructing a water course, to overflow a Federal picket line. They have forced it to retire.

The Federal gunboat Montgomery reported on November 7, off the coast of North Carolina, she had captured an engagement with the Tallahassee. Three other Federal gunboats joined in the contest, but the Tallahassee outlasted them and got off. No damage was done to any of the vessels.

General McClellan's resignation has been accepted. General Sherman of the volunteer service, has been made a Major General in the Regular Army. It is reported that General Butler is to succeed Stanton as Secretary of War.

From England we have a report that on October 17th, Capt. Semmes and a crew, embarked at Funchal on a new Alabama, and sailed towards Bermuda.

The capture and destruction of Johnsonville by General Forrest is also confirmed. Forrest lost ten men wounded. He burned the town and destroyed four gunboats of eight guns each; fourteen transports; twenty barges; over twenty thousand tons of freight on the water, and three million dollars worth of stores on board. He captured three gunboats and a large quantity of provisions, some of them negroes, and then abandoned the town. A Federal force from Bridgeport and Chattanooga had re-occupied Decatur at last accounts, all the Confederate troops having gone southward.

There is an indication, though not very clear as yet, that Sheridan has abandoned Winchester, and retreated to the east side of the Opequan. Early is reported to have entered Winchester on Saturday last. In the recent cavalry contest near Front Royal, the Confederates report having captured two hundred Federal prisoners. General Early now commands one of Sheridan's corps. All is quiet at Petersburg. General Butler arrived yesterday at his headquarters, on the north bank of the James, and resumed command. The correspondents in that quarter say that the Confederates are preparing to attack Grant.

The report that General Canby was wounded by a guerrilla while sailing in a gunboat up White River, Arkansas, is confirmed. The wound, though not mortal, is dangerous.

[From the Age of the 19th.]

We are at length able to give a solution of General Sherman's mysterious movements. Sherman had, on November 9th, forty-seven thousand men, ten thousand of whom were cavalry. These he divided into two columns. The first column left Atlanta on November 9th, and marched south to Macon, Georgia. From there it was the intention to go to Milledgeville, the capital of the State, where a large number of Federal prisoners were confined. These are to be released, and the column will then turn east to Augusta. On November 12th, the second column of Sherman's army left Atlanta, going directly towards Augusta. It was hoped that a junction of the two columns could be effected by Nov. 26th, when a march eastward to Savannah, or Charleston, was to be made. Sherman carries six days' provisions with him, principally dry goods of a kind, which can be taken along without much trouble. We have information from Southern sources that a contest had been fought at Rough and Ready, on the railroad running from Atlanta to Macon, between the advance of one of Sherman's columns and some Georgia State troops. There is little doubt that the State troops were defeated, and then the column pushed successfully forward. Hood, on November 12th, was at Tusculum, Alabama, south of the Coosa River, and was

General Sherman's movements are still clothed in mystery. The belief now is that Sherman has not given up Atlanta, but, using it as a base, has moved off on a strategic raid similar to the one made last spring from Vicksburg. His intention seems to be to go to Columbus, in Georgia, a town on the Chattahoochee, about 85 miles south of Atlanta. He hopes to destroy various large stores of provisions which the Confederates have piled up for the use of their armies during the winter, and also to break their railroad communications between the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard.—Though Sherman uses Atlanta as a base, and still holds it by a strong garrison, there is not much probability that he will return there. Hood's army being north of him, may intercept his retreat, and he will have to go westward towards Vicksburg. We have no definite intelligence from General Sherman yet, and nothing can be positively said of his progress or his objects.

On Sunday last General Early, in the Shenandoah Valley, had advanced to the body northward to Strasburg and occupied it. Cavalry reconnaissances were sent northward towards Winchester. The Federal cavalry met one of them on Sunday morning, near Newtown, about six miles south of Winchester, and after a small fight, the Confederates retreated to the north. Middleburg is now their outpost. It is eight miles south of Winchester.—Kearstown, four miles south of Winchester, is Sheridan's outpost. The main body of the Confederate troops were on Sunday at Strasburg and Fisher's Hill. The main body of Sheridan's army was at Winchester, and that of the Confederates at Middleburg. The army of the Confederates have already gone to Grant's army by way of Harper's Ferry, and that Early, to meet their movements, has sent a large detachment of his command to Richmond.

Some interesting facts have been published regarding the Dutch Gap Canal, on the James. It is one hundred and sixty yards long, across the narrow neck of land. A large part of the canal has been excavated through high ground. At different times from fifty to five hundred negroes have been employed at digging; at last accounts two hundred were at work. During nearly all the time, the Confederate batteries have seriously interfered with the laborers. The excavations have been made deep enough to float the largest iron clads in the navy. The canal, it is thought, will be completed in the last week of November, and then a grand attack upon Richmond—naval and military—will be made. General Butler has returned to the army at Petersburg. On Tuesday, Grant, Admiral Porter, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy had a consultation at Fort Monroe. The Confederates in front of Grant's centre, on the Appomattox, near Port Walthall, have managed, by obstructing a water course, to overflow a Federal picket line. They have forced it to retire.

The Federal gunboat Montgomery reported on November 7, off the coast of North Carolina, she had captured an engagement with the Tallahassee. Three other Federal gunboats joined in the contest, but the Tallahassee outlasted them and got off. No damage was done to any of the vessels.

General McClellan's resignation has been accepted. General Sherman of the volunteer service, has been made a Major General in the Regular Army. It is reported that General Butler is to succeed Stanton as Secretary of War.

From England we have a report that on October 17th, Capt. Semmes and a crew, embarked at Funchal on a new Alabama, and sailed towards Bermuda.

The capture and destruction of Johnsonville by General Forrest is also confirmed. Forrest lost ten men wounded. He burned the town and destroyed four gunboats of eight guns each; fourteen transports; twenty barges; over twenty thousand tons of freight on the water, and three million dollars worth of stores on board. He captured three gunboats and a large quantity of provisions, some of them negroes, and then abandoned the town. A Federal force from Bridgeport and Chattanooga had re-occupied Decatur at last accounts, all the Confederate troops having gone southward.

There is an indication, though not very clear as yet, that Sheridan has abandoned Winchester, and retreated to the east side of the Opequan. Early is reported to have entered Winchester on Saturday last. In the recent cavalry contest near Front Royal, the Confederates report having captured two hundred Federal prisoners. General Early now commands one of Sheridan's corps. All is quiet at Petersburg. General Butler arrived yesterday at his headquarters, on the north bank of the James, and resumed command. The correspondents in that quarter say that the Confederates are preparing to attack Grant.

THE MAGAZINE FOR THE TIMES!

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE

The Best and Cheapest in the World for Ladies!

The popular monthly Magazine will be greatly improved for 1865. It will contain One Thousand Pages! Fourteen Splendid Steel Plates! Twelve Colored Fashion Plates! Twelve Colored Berlin Work Patterns! Nine Hundred Wood Cuts! Twenty-four Pages of Music!

All this will be given for only Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of the class of "Peterson." Its Thrilling Tales and Novelettes are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1865, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, Four Original Copyright Novelettes will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Louise C. Moulton, Frank Lee Benedict, and the Author of "The Second Life." It also publishes Fashions Ahead of all Others. Each number, in addition to the colored plate, gives Bonnet, Cloak, and Dresses, and several pages of Household and other Receipts.

It is the best Lady's Magazine in the world TRY IT FOR ONE YEAR.

TERMS—Always in Advance. One copy, one year, $ 2.00 Eight copies, for one year, 12.00 Fourteen copies for one year, 20.00

Premiums for Getting up Clubs: To every person getting up a club, at the above rates, a copy of the Magazine for 1865 will be sent gratis; or, if preferred, the superb engraving (size, 27 inches by 20 inches)—"Washington Parting From His Generals!" Address, post paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Nov. 23, 1864.

THE NEW GROCERY STORE ON MAIN STREET, BLOOMSBURG. More Fresh Goods.

Just received at Henry Giger's New Store. MOLLASSES, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SPICES, RICE, HATS, CAPS, FISH, SALT, TOBACCO, CANDIES, SEGARS, RAZORS, FEED AND PROVISIONS.

Together with a great variety of notions and numerous to mention. Butter, Eggs, Meat and produce generally taken in exchange for goods. HENRY GIGER, Bloomsburg, Nov. 23, 1864.

OYSTERS, OYSTERS! Eating and Drinking SALOON.

THE subscriber respectfully gives notice to the public that he has at his Saloon, on Main Street, constantly on hand Fresh Oysters, either in the shell or by the CAN, to suit his customers. Families can be supplied by the can or by the quart upon short notice. He also keeps on hand XX Ale, St. Ger and minerals. Give him a call. B. STÖHNER, Bloomsburg, Nov. 23, 1864.

ADJOURNED SALE. PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

In pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Columbia county, on SATURDAY, THE 3d OF DECEMBER, 1864, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon Abraham Young, Administrator of James S. Gibson, late of Greenwood township, Columbia county, adjoining lands of Isaiah Kline or the west, Sylvester Albertson on the south and east, and Elias McHenry on the north, containing about one hundred and six acres and thirty-nine perches strict measure, of about ninety acres are improved land whereon is erected a Two Story Frame House, Log Barn, Wagon Shed, and other outbuildings, a spring of water near the dwelling, and a large Apple Orchard and other fruit trees on the premises, late the estate of said deceased, situate in the township of Greenwood and county aforesaid.

Terms of Sale—ten per cent. of one fourth of the purchase money to be paid on the striking down of the property, one-fourth of the purchase money, or less than ten per cent. to be paid to the administrator on the confirmation of sale, and the balance of the purchase money to be paid one year from the confirmation, with interest from the confirmation of sale. JESSE COLEMAN, Clerk, Bloomsburg, Nov. 16, 1864.

Notice to Trespassers. THE following farmers and land owners, of Orange and Centre townships, Columbia county, do hereby caution all persons against hunting or in anywise trespassing on their lands, thus making themselves subject to the penalties of the law which will be most stringently enforced—David E. Haymen, Stephen Hill, Samuel Heidler, Frank Hayman, Simon Lawry, Reuben Siller, All of Orange township, Benj. Singer, Wm Beck, Frederick Beck, Adam Hill, Wm Wilmire, Geo Wilmire, Joseph Rockle, all of Centre twp. Orange, Nov. 16, 1864.

Auditor's Notice. To the children, heirs, and legal representatives of James Evans, late of Locust township, deceased. THE undersigned having been appointed auditor by the Orphans' Court of Columbia county, to distribute the funds in the hands of Lewis Yetter, Trustee, to sell the real estate of the said James Evans, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will meet the parties interested, at his office in Bloomsburg, on Thursday, the 24th day of November, at 10 o'clock, a. m., to attend to the duties of his appointment. R. F. CLARK, Auditor.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS! Toys, Notions and Knick-Knacks! NUTS, CANDIDS AND SWEET-MEATS! AT B. STÖHNER'S BLOOMSBURG BAKERY AND Confectionery Store.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Bloomsburg and the public generally, that he has just received, at his Store, a large stock of ALL KINDS OF CHRISTMAS TOYS, consisting of Candies made up into nearly every kind of shape, besides thousands of little notions, manufactured out of wood, all of which are gotten up with a good deal of care, and with a view of being very appropriate for the season.

He has a LARGE CASE well filled with NOTIONS, such as Misses Nets, different styles of combs, beads, buttons, gloves, belts, suspenders.

THE MAGAZINE FOR THE TIMES!

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE

The Best and Cheapest in the World for Ladies!

The popular monthly Magazine will be greatly improved for 1865. It will contain One Thousand Pages! Fourteen Splendid Steel Plates! Twelve Colored Fashion Plates! Twelve Colored Berlin Work Patterns! Nine Hundred Wood Cuts! Twenty-four Pages of Music!

All this will be given for only Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of the class of "Peterson." Its Thrilling Tales and Novelettes are the best published anywhere. All the most popular writers are employed to write originally for "Peterson." In 1865, in addition to its usual quantity of short stories, Four Original Copyright Novelettes will be given, by Ann S. Stephens, Louise C. Moulton, Frank Lee Benedict, and the Author of "The Second Life." It also publishes Fashions Ahead of all Others. Each number, in addition to the colored plate, gives Bonnet, Cloak, and Dresses, and several pages of Household and other Receipts.

It is the best Lady's Magazine in the world TRY IT FOR ONE YEAR.

TERMS—Always in Advance. One copy, one year, $ 2.00 Eight copies, for one year, 12.00 Fourteen copies for one year, 20.00