

STAR OF THE NORTH

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 30, 1864.

The present high price of paper, labor, printing material and every article entering into our business, has compelled us to look to a corresponding advance in our charges.

A LOAD OF DRY WOOD is wanted at this office on subscription to the Star.

Mr. FRENK DEER will sell personal property on Tuesday, the thirteenth of December next.

FRESH BEEF is selling on our streets off the wagons, by the side and quarter, at 10 and 11 cents per pound.

COPY will be in session at his place next week. This will be a fine time for many of our patrons to renew their subscriptions to the Star.

ON MONDAY last a drove of two hundred and twenty-one fine looking Turkeys were driven through this place on their way to some market.

Mrs. BARBARA DISCHILLER, of Hemlock township will sell personal property, on Friday next.

THE ABOLITION JUBILEE held at this place on Sunday last, has been proved by all who saw it, a perfect fiasco.

CAMPBELL SUBSCRIBERS.—We have been sending our paper to a considerable number of subscribers for the campaign.

THE REPUBLICAN HONORS on our principal streets were illuminated on rather a cheap scale on Saturday evening last.

WE HAVE nothing left from the trial of STOR E. COLLEY, which is progressing at Harrisburg.

THOS. DUNS, as usual, finds fault with the political complexion of the Jury for the next term.

THOSE persons whose names are dropped from our subscription list from time to time, may take it for granted that they owe as much as we can afford to trust them to.

WE NOTICED that the better portion of our Republican friends did not join the grand torch light procession at this place on Saturday evening last.

THE subscriber respectfully gives notice to the public that he has at his Saloon, on Main Street, constantly on hand

FRESH OYSTERS, either in the shell or by the CAN, to suit his customers.

WE UNDERSTAND that some of our blasphe- mous Clergy have been exhorting their congregations to subscribe and give towards ameliorating the condition of those rebel white refugees, made so by Mr. LINCOLN'S present policy of conducting the war.

Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, Jan. 25, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a Pure spirituous liquor.

It is wholly unlike fruit or grain oil, and is wholly unlike the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids, it produces others of a high fragrance.

It is sold under this name both at home and abroad.

I have analyzed "L. Lyons' Pure Catawba Brandy," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years.
