BLOOMSBURG, PA.

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 7, 1864.

To our Patrons and the Public.

The present high price of paper, labor, rinting material and every article entering into our business, has compelled us to look to a corresponding advance in our charges. Hence the undersigned, publish- and Farming utensils, consisting of the folers in Bloomsburg, will on and after the lowing articleslet of September, 1864, make an advance of Fifty per cent. upon old rates.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE will appear in our next. It comes too late for this week's 3,000 Copies of Works of issue. We do not apprehend it to set forth any change of policy; that might be deemed impolitic with his party.

As we go to press Court is in session .-There are not very many people in atten dance. There are few causes on the list ready for trial. The Commonwealth matter is light. In our next we will give a synopais of the proceedings.

Ir has been stoutly contradicted that the company that paraded the streets in this place on Saturday a week were going to the front to join GRANT. They were Home Guards-Leaguers !

CONFECTIONERY .- B STORNER whose advertisement appears in another column, has just received a large and extensive assortment of toys procured expressly for the holi days. His assortment of fruit confectionery &c., is also full and complete.

ROBE MCHENRY, Esq., President of the board of County Commissioners, was no able to be in attendance at Court this week He is still suffering from the effects of his incarceration in Fort Mifflin. He has not been able to discharge any of the duties pertaining to his office since the latter part of August last.

PRINTING OFFICE FOR SALE .- The Johnstown Democrat, Cambris county, is offered for sale. The paper has one thousand subscribers and enjoys a fair share of advertising and job work.
