THE WORLD FOR 1865. GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION! 250,000

Prospostus.

THE Presidential contest just closed consigns the political destinies of the peo-ple of the United States, during another term of years, to the control of President Lincoln of the North, and Jefferson Davis at the South.

The Democratic party, always indentiwith the prosperity, growth, and glory of the republic, may point with honest pride to its record in this great contest. Against an administration wielding the ost enormous power of patronage and he most unlimited command of treasure ever poisessed by any government, and reinforced alike by the unbounded fears of many patriots and the sympathies of all traitors, the Democratic party fought the battle of 1864 firmly and learlessly to the
