

STAR OF THE NORTH

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY.
BLOOMSBURG, PA.
WEDNESDAY JANUARY, 11, 1865.

Wm. PIATT of Pine township, Columbia county, was killed by the falling of a tree, on Thursday 22d ult.

Our thanks are due the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company for an "Editor's" annual pass.

The stock in the National Bank of Berwick has lately been increased to $75,000. It is thought it will still go higher.

Hon. W. J. Woodward has sold his property in Bloomsburg to Mr. Mathias S. Appleman, of Hemlock. It is occupied at present by Hon. WILLIAM ELWELL.

Our thanks are returned to the Catawissa Railroad Company, for their favor conferred by sending us an Annual pass over their road.

The proprietors of the Democrat conferred a favor by lending us the matter for the outside of our paper, for which they will please accept our thanks.

Fort Mifflin prisoners still continue to return. Among those released, recently, are D. L. Chapin, Abraham Kline, Abraham Hartman, Geo. Hirsleman, Henry Hirsleman and Henry H. Hirsleman.

The house of ANATHAN POWELL, on Iron Street, took fire on Monday last, causing considerable excitement but not resulting in much damage. The Bloomsburg Fire Company with their valuable engine—quickly—soon extinguished the flames.

JOHN J. STILES of Benton, Columbia Co. called at our office a few minutes on Tuesday. He was on his way to Troy, to report to the draft commissioners. Being conscripted while confined in Fort Mifflin he could not report. When released he was sick and has just recovered sufficiently to make the journey.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE COMMISSIONERS.—The Commissioners of our county have made the following appointments for the present year, viz:

Attorney to Commissioners—W. Wirt, Esq. Commissioner's Clerk—R. C. FEUER. Mercantile Appraiser—C. B. BROCKWAY. These appointments are all judicious and will no doubt be strictly in accordance with the will of the people.

A race, called by some an election, was held in Orangeville on Saturday Dec. 31st 1864, for the purpose of electing Trustees for the ensuing year of the Orangeville Academy. M. C. Vance, Wesley Bowman, John Staley, Elias Snyder, Wm. Fisher, J. S. Pettibone and Miles S. Williams, are said to have been elected. We have reliable information that an opportunity will be given the above named gentlemen to show the validity of their election.

A second meeting was held by the citizens of our town on Monday evening, to consider the raising of money for payment of volunteers to fill the late call. This several soliciting committees reported subscriptions amounting to about three thousand two hundred dollars. About two thousand dollars more are required; it is believed this can easily be obtained, before the next meeting, which is to be held on Wednesday evening. The citizens meet on Tuesday evening to instruct the Directors upon laying a tax.

RETURNED SOLDIER.—Private Stephen B. Lee, son of Daniel Lee, Esq., of this place returned home a few days since, discharged from the United States service. He has served three years. Two other sons of Daniel Lee yet remain in the service. They are Democratic boys and are fighting their country's battles while their father has been slandered and abused by those Abolition stay-at-home patriots whose sons are skulking about from place to place to avoid the draft. They support the war! The last dollar and the last man must go, has been the Abolition watchword.

DIRECT TAX.—We stated in the Star some time ago that there would be a direct tax laid on all real estate after the 1st of April 1865. The act requires that twenty millions be raised annually by direct taxation.—The Abolitionists here seem to deny any such tax. It is one of their own laws, they should know something about it. These poor miserable Abolition dupes will not be the wiser if they continue to believe in the Star Machine until the tax-gatherer comes round.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE will appear in our next issue. Other matter equally as important to our readers has excluded it from the columns of this week's paper.—The message is tame and in the usual Republican tone. It is of more than the ordinary length. And found quite a good deal to talk about this time. We would not publish all those messages if it were not that we desire putting them on record for future reference.

CHARLES N. SAVAGE, late of the "Pennsylvania House," has re-opened the Danville House, formerly owned and kept by John Davis, Jr., and is making it a pleasant and agreeable place to stop at. The house has undergone a thorough change and renovation, and with Mr. Savage as proprietor we can recommend it to the traveling public. His fare is most excellent, and terms moderate. There is no reason why this house should not do a good business, considering its desirable location and the fact that it is kept by a "Charity" know-

Thousands are using this preparation and offering willing testimonials.

These photographs, taken from life, have been awarded to extend the knowledge of the merits of this wonderful discovery.—Hundreds have seen these ladies and heard the facts from their own lips.

Mrs. Maxwell's Testimonial.
New York, Dec. 23, 1862.
Knowing positively that Reeves' Ambrosia produced a beautiful head of hair for Mrs. Lizzie Shepherd, of Brooklyn, New York, I was induced, thereby, to use it thoroughly. I needed something for my hair, it being short and thin—had used one half dozen bottles when I could plainly notice an increase in its length, strength, and beauty. An experience of about two years has proved a complete success. My hair is now by measurement, four feet ten inches in length, nearly reaching the floor. I have allowed my photograph to proclaim the merits of Reeves' Ambrosia to the world.

MRS. WALLACE E. MAXWELL.
All enterprising Druggists have these Photographs and keep for sale, REEVES' AMBROSIA at 75 Cents per Bottle.
Druggists who may not have our preparation, will send for it—it is applied to Principal Depot, 62 Fulton Street, New York. Nov. 30, 1864.—6 mos.

L. LYONS' PURE OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY, AND Sparkling Catawba Wines, equal in Quality and Cheaper in Price than the Brandy and Wines of the Old World.
For Summer Complaint, Cholera Infantum, Bowel Complaint, Cramp, Cholera and Diarrhoea.
A sure Cure is guaranteed, or the money will be refunded.

In support of the above statements, are presented the Certificates of Dr. James R. Chilton, chemist, New York, Dr. Hiram Cox, Chemical Inspector, Ohio, Dr. Jas. R. Nichols, chemist, Boston, Dr. N. E. Jones, Chemical Inspector, Cincinnati Ohio, Prof. C. T. Jackson, chemist, Boston, Dr. Chas. Upham Shepard, Charleston, S. C., and J. V. Z. Blancy, and G. A. Mariner, consulting chemists, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms, for medicinal use.

Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, Jan. 25, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a Pure spirituous liquor. The Oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike food, or grain oil. Its odor parades of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids, it produces others of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of feticious spirits sold under this name both at home and abroad.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to State Mass., 16 Boylston St.

By the same, in 1864.

I have analyzed "L. Lyons' Pure Catawba Brandy" with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity, a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D. State Assayer, 16 Boylston St. Boston, July 20, 1864.

What Everybody Knows viz: That iron well galvanized will not rust. That a simple machine is better than a complicated one. That a Wringer should be self adjusting, durable, and efficient. That Thumb screws and Fastenings cause delay and trouble to regulate and keep in order. That wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split. That wood bearings for the shaft to run in will wear out. That the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog wheels, will not tear the clothes. That cog wheel regulators are not essential. That the Putnam Wringer has all the advantages above named. That all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made. That it will wring a THREAD or a BED QUILT without alteration.

We might fill the paper with testimonials, but insert only a few to convince the skeptical, if such there be; and we say to all, test Putnam's Wringer. Test it thoroughly with any and all others, and if not entirely satisfactory, return it. Putnam Manufacturing Co. Gentlemen—I know from practical experience that iron well galvanized with zinc will not oxidize or rust one particle. The Putnam Wringer is as near perfect as possible, and I can cheerfully recommend it to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours, JOHN W. WHEELER, Cleveland, Ohio. Many years experience in the galvanizing business, enable me to endorse the above statement in all particulars.

It will pay for itself in a year at most.
