Principles of 1773 and '87. C. CHAUNCEY BURP, EDITOR.

his Masazine wal continue to defend the principles of Givernment which ded our fathers in the foundation of the lie. The spirit and dontrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despaism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of canning office weekers and speil bunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political enonomy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We 7000 Solitaire and gold brooches hall seknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enon ciate and support the principles of the entucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Sov ereignly and the other While supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government, 4000 California diamond breas pins and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly sprrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despitism. This year it has been en larged to double its former size-that is, to ony eight pages-for the purpose of mak it in all respects, as to style and maner a popular Literary and Family Mugazine. delinis min

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY So general has the une of this remedy become, and so popular is it everywhere, that it is unnecessary to recount its virines. Lis works speak for it, and find utterance in the abundant and voluntary testimony of the many who from long suffering and setiled disease have by its use been restored to pristine vigor and health. We can pres sent a mass of evidence in proof of our assertions, that
