The spirit and doctrine of the the republic depends upon the politics two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of couning office-seekers and speil hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enun ciale and support the principles of the Kentucky and Vyginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Sou ereignly and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very lounders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war.
