TED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE Finciples of 1776 and 187. C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the in the third volumes well be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of cunning office-seekers and speil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enun-ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one assserting State Sou ereignly and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very tounders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old. Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can releem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. This year it has been en-larged to double its former size—that is, to forty eight pages-for the purpose of making it in all respects, as to style and matter a popular Literary and Family Magazine.
