HON WILLIAM ELWELL, of this place, had his house broken isto, one night la-t week, by thieves, and was robbed of about $200 worth of property, consisting of silver plate. clothing, boots, &c. The burglars are supposed to be a couple of greasy looking individuals, who were going the rounds gathering up broken umbrellas for repairs. They had visited the Judge's residence the afternoon pravious to the theft.

THE Philadelphia Bulletin says: "The right arm of the Republic in this section o the country is unquestionably the Union League of Philadelphia," Does not the Bulletin mistake right for left ?- for surely the right arm would not have been left at home during the momentons struggles of the War. Most assuredly the "Union League" was the left arm.
