Principles of 1776 and '87. C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which ded our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despotism. Democracy will be treated. as a varying policy of cunning officeseekers and speil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enun ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one assserting State Sov ereignly and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government. and it remained true to them down to the has done. fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle deem our country from the rule of faction | the Democratic faith. and despotism. The small majority of the popular vote that elected the Black Republican candidates, considered in view of the extraordinary resources of the Administration for corruption and epmpulsion, attests that the power of the Democracy, on a fair field, is equal to the vindication of Democratic oringioles.

There is one feature in the result of the Presidential election that goes far to re concile the patriot to the hard fate of hi country under four years more of Black Republican misrale. The baleful meteor that lingered in grief while in our political atmosphere has vanished for ever.
