A MONTHLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE

Principles of 1776 and '87. C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Macazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despoism. Democracy will be treated. seekers and speil hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We chall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not bone-tly enun. ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Son ereignty and the other White supremary. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very lounders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction | the Democratic faith. and despotism. This year it has been en larged to double its former size—that is to forty eight pages-for the purpose of making it in all respects as to style and matter a popular Literary and Family Magazine. The future welfare o and at as low prices. He has on hand the republic depends upon the politica zeal and activity of the Democracy during the year 1865.

The small majority of the popular vote hat elected the Black Republican candidates, considered in view of the extraordinary resources of the Administration for corruption and epippulsion, attests that the power of the Democracy, on a fair field, is equal to the vindication of Democratic

There is one feature in the result of the Presidential election that goes far to re concile the patriot to the hard fate of hi country under four years more of Black Republican misrale. The baleful meteor that lingered in grief while in our political armosphere has vanished for ever.
