Prospectus of Vol. 111.-1865. THE OLD GUARD, A MONTHLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE

Principles of 1776 and '87.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no partey with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of canning office-seekers and spoil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enon ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Sapreme Court, the one assserting State Sov reignty and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can releem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. This year it has been enarged to double its former size-that is, to fony eight-pages-for the purpose of makig it in all respects, as to style and matter a popular Literary and Family Magazine.

the year 1865. The small majority of the popular vote that elected the Black Republican candidates, considered in view of the extraordinary resources of the Administration for corruption and epmpulsion, attests that the power of the Democracy, on a fair field, is equal to the vindication of Democratic principles.

There is one feature in the result of the Presidential election that goes far to re concile the patriot to the hard fate of hi country under four years more of Black Republican misrule. The baleful meteor that lingered in grief while in our political atmosphere has vanished for ever. War Democracy has fulfilled its mission of disorganization, and like any other pestilence will be remembered only for the evil it has done ...

The issue now before the people is the fin i struggle between Centeralization and States' Rights, and no journal is Democratic that is not the devoted champion of States' Rights, the paramount principle of the Democratic faith.

The New York News needs no testimony beyond its plain unalterable record to sub stantiate its claim to being and having een the most earnest, able and consistent States' Rights Journal in the land. We have no excuses to invent for modifications
