ART, AND THE Principles of 1776 and '87.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with lespotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of cunning officeseekers and spoil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enon riate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 | country under four years more of Black and the Dred Scott Decision of the Su- Republican misrule. Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the ins me asylums and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution, once affected by organic weakness. requires the aid of medicine to strongthen and invigorate the system, which HI-LMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU invariably doce. A trial will convince the most sceptical.

Of all the discoveries that have necu made to purge it out, none em equal in effect Hamadolo's Compound Extract of Sal-Paraticaa. It clearses and renovates the Plood, instill a the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make discase. It stimulates the healthy function of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and ranked in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now, for the first time the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has its virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken Two tablespoon ful of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Dyrup of Sarsa-

The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates. The Science of Medicine, like the Doric Column, should stand simple, pure, majestic, having Fact for its basis,

> My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Flood Purifier; my Extract Buchu is a Diuretic, and will act as such in all cases. Both are prepared on purely scientific principles-in vacuo-and are the most active measures of either that can be made. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the following works:
