

Jefferson into the Presidential chair, and swept out of existence that old Federal Party; and it has been a bye-word, a hissing and a reproach in the mouths of all honest and law and constitution loving citizens, from that day to this. And yet the wrongs, outrages and violations of the constitution done and committed by that party, enormous as history shows them to be; were but as the gentle breeze compared to the terrible hurricane of military despotism and disregard of constitution and of law, which swept over us in these latter days.

Let the people awake and arouse themselves to this second reign of terror, to this second attempt to carry elections by military force; and the abolition republican party of to-day will never be heard of again, except in history, where they will be known as the most corrupt and soundly organized organization that ever attained power in any country. And I ask you, my Fellow Citizens, who do not belong to the Democratic organization, whether, seeing and hearing and knowing all this, you are content that the liberties of the country shall be wrested by force from the people; and the union, its laws and its constitution go down in a sea of blood, and be known no more forever.

It is high time, Fellow Citizens, that this question shall be considered by you, and settled without mistake, upon a firm and secure basis. No party but the Democratic party feels itself bound by constitution or by law—no other party believe that the constitution ought to bind us. In the opinion of the leaders of the opposition, "the Constitution is a league with death and a covenant with hell;" and they have set it aside and trampled upon it, as a piece of old parchment, which could no longer afford you and me protection, and under which we are no longer to be permitted to live. Take this business into your own hands—see to it, that this fall, and from this forth forever, there shall be such a political raid at the polls, with ballots, as shall wipe out all sorts of military raids, not only in the County of Columbia, but throughout the entire country. Ask President Johnson by your votes and your voice, to restore to this country its dearly loved ancient laws and constitution—Ask him to go back to the time when he, as a disciple of Andrew Jackson and James K. Polk, sat under the Old Democratic hickory tree, and listened to their honored teachings—Ask him to remember the time when he himself was a Democrat in whom there was no guile, battling nobly for the constitutional rights of all sections and all men, sharing in the triumphs and defending the doctrines and principles of his party; and now having the power, demand that he give back to the people of the United States their country, their laws and their constitution, intact and unimpaired.

Neither worth nor station nor innocence, nor all three combined were a protection. Nor was the law or the constitution effectual to shield the accused or afford him a speedy or a legal trial. The presidential election was made the occasion for repeating many of these outrages, but it is now unnecessary to particularize or elaborate them. The "reign of terror" ended with the elections, and the troops being withdrawn, the Fishing Creek rebellion being now over, the social pursuits of civil life were again resumed. But few of the Fort Mifflin victims were pardoned, and of the whole number arrested, but seven were convicted; and that before Military Commission, on testimony not even have been received in due time and before a jury. I have seen a particular examination of the evidence taken in these cases, and the strength of the argument in the political complexion of this case, but that object is, I think, sufficiently accomplished by what has been said.

The seven men convicted by the Military Commission, one paid his fine, one was pardoned by President Lincoln, and five by President Johnson, and every one of them was undoubtedly innocent of any criminal offense. This expedition, Gentlemen, including lateral expenditures cost the Government, from first to last, not less than half a million of dollars. Two Major Generals, a couple of Colonels, numerous Captains, a thousand men, horses, artillery and military stores, a large destruction of private property, and occupation of our territory for a fourth of a year, resulted in a military point of view, in one innocent man killed and forty four taken prisoners. Oh! it was not a most brilliant episode—something for the abolition party to be proud of, when its history comes to be written.

This political raid into Columbia County is but part of a system. What we have seen here at our own doors, what we have experienced in our own persons, we have read of as occurring at other places. We have read of elections being carried in the State of Delaware at the point of the bayonet, and in Kentucky and Tennessee and Indiana. And when at some points, where the bayonets were not sufficient, the elections were carried against the administration, they were coolly set aside, and treated, as Old Joe Ritner once proposed to treat an election in Pennsylvania, "as if it had never been held;" in which project he was assisted and counseled by Thad. Stevens, the present leader of the negro equality party in this State.

This military mode of carrying elections is, as I have said, part of a system. For the abolitionists know that the record they have made for themselves, if power shall once more return to the Democrats, will keep it in their hand for all time. Many persons in the audience remember the first reign of terror through which the people of this country were called to pass during the reign of Old John Adams. Then, the people arose in their might, and in behalf of the law and the constitution, yet Thad.

THE OLD GUARD,
A MONTHLY JOURNAL,
DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE PRINCIPLES OF 1776 and '87.
C. CHAUNCEY BURR, Editor.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error—no parity with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a mere policy of coming officers, seekers and spoil hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be democratic which does not honor its annals and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Sovereignty and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. This year it has been enlarged to double its former size, and is now forty eight pages—for the purpose of making it in all respects, as to style and matter, a popular Literary and Family Magazine.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
HELMBOLD'S BLOOD EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
For purifying the Blood, removing all chronic local diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Sore Throat, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Rheumatism of the Throat and Legs, Itchings, Pimples on the Face, Tetor, Erysipelas, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.
NOT A FEW of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the diuretics that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the Blood, restores the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow out of impurity in the Blood. This remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now, for the first time the public have one on which they can depend. Our price here does not admit of competition with others. One bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH,
An excellent Lotion for diseases arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicine, and the explicit directions for use, with hundreds of thousands living witnesses, and upwards of 50,000 uncollected certificates and recommendations, letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including the celebrated Physicians, Chemists, Apothecaries, &c. The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be attested by certificates.
The Science of Medicine, like the Doric Column, should stand simple, pure, majestic, having Fact for its base, and Truth for its pillar, and Truth alone for its Capital.

L
My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Blood Purifier; my Extract Buchu is a Diuretic, and will act as such in all cases. Both are prepared on purely scientific principles—in costs—and are the most active measures of either that can be made. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the following works:
See Dispensatory of the United States.
See Professor DAWSON'S valuable works on the Practice of Physic.
See remarks made by the celebrated Dr. FARRER, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., and published in the Transactions of the King and Queen's Journal.
See Medical-Chemical Review, published by BERRY, Thayer, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons.
