C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despotism. Democracy will be treated. not as a varying policy of cunning office-seekers and spoil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enun ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly sturender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despotism.
