"Can't Afford It." How often does not this reply come from men, when called upon to subscribe for a newspaper!

How often does not this reply come from men, when called upon to subscribe for a newspaper! They will spend in the course of the year, perhaps, ten times the subscription price asked, for the most silly, if not actually injurious purposes.

Fanatics Visiting the South. Several prominent shoddies, from this country, have been "down South," looking after bargains, in the way of buying lands, upon which they might speculate at the expense of these poor, down-trodden people of the South.

NEGROES REALIZING THE BLESSINGS OF FREEDOM.—The Tribune reports 19,000 Blacks in the District of Columbia, and great personal distress. Here is a picture of the sufferings of these people:

The Danville Intelligencer came to us last week printed upon new type, looking bright and clear. This is one of the oldest and best local papers on our exchange list, and is thoroughly Democratic.

The wearing of "Confederate grey" having been prohibited to the Southern people, at the close of the war, large amounts of that kind of cloth accumulated at Richmond.

THE BARRON GAZETTE has lately been improved in its mechanical appearance.—It always was edited with ability. The paper is also enlarged. Success to the new firm.

State Convention.

We are decidedly in favor of holding the Democratic State Convention at a much earlier day than has been customary for the last two or three years past.

Death of Lord Palmerston.

This celebrated statesman died on the 18th ultimo at his residence in London—Henry John Temple, Third Viscount Palmerston, was born in 1784, and was descended from a younger branch of the Temples of Stowe, the founder of which was secretary to Sir Philip Sidney.

Negro Rebellion in Jamaica.

Another not very bright spot, to teeth with joy the heart of Abolition reason—a cloud—a nigger insurrection in free Jamaica! the raised white man under the knife of the free negro.

Time of Meeting of the Democratic State Convention.

We alluded some time since, to what we considered band policy, in postponing the meeting of the late Democratic State Convention, from June until August, and then suggested the idea that the party was more fortunate when it held its conventions on the 4th of March.

Pennsylvania State Election—Official.

Table with 2 columns: Repub. Majorities and Democratic Majorities. Lists names and vote counts for various counties like Adams, Bedford, Beaver, Blair, Bradford, etc.

The Next United States Congress.

Table with 2 columns: Senate—Twenty-five States and House of Representatives. Lists party affiliations and counts for Republicans and Democrats.

Table with 3 columns: R, D, and R. D. Lists states and their party affiliations in the next Congress, such as Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, etc.

There is a vacancy each in Massachusetts, Maryland and Nevada, which will no doubt be filled with Republicans, making 143 Republicans to 41 Democrats in the House.

Rebellion in the Human Interior.

Rebellions are not confined to bodies politic. They break out in our own interiors as well as in the "bowels of the land."

SAMUEL SNYDER, Sheriff's Office, Bloomsburg, Nov. 1, 1865.

1866: THE WORLD

An Independent Democratic Daily, Weekly and Semi-Weekly Newspaper. After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress.

The great Democratic party, whose history in the past is the history of private prosperity; of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen.

Once more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its time-honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and Southern States.

To the principles of the great Democratic Party of the Nation, The World has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the peace.

Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be ennobled by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolis of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance to every citizen as must recommend The World to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.
