

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT AND UNION, FOR THE CAMPAIGN OF 1865.

The official campaign just opening in Pennsylvania is destined to be one of great importance, and to have a powerful influence upon the future of the country at large. It is a great measure it will determine the gubernatorial contest of 1865, and have an influence upon the presidential election two years thereafter. But, more important, it will probably determine the choice of the next U. S. Senator from this State and thus affect the legislation of Congress and the restoration of peace to the land. It is, therefore, of vital importance that every exertion should be made by every member of our party to secure the victory. Not only should every local organization be put to work, but every honorable means should be adopted to stir up the apathetic and lukewarm, and to make the voters by conviction. It can only be through the immutable and golden principles of Democracy that the country can be redeemed from the thralldom of fanaticism, degradation and taxation. Outside the Democracy there are no principles. The role of action of the opposition is ever changing—one thing to-day—something to-morrow. It is held together merely by expedients—the latest and most outrageous of all being the modern, six-months political trick of negro suffrage. To defeat this, and all other schemes of the Abolition-shoddy hordes who live only to plunder and tyrannize, let every Democrat arouse and grind on the rusty armor of his fathers in Democracy—of Washington, of Jefferson, of Jackson, and march to battle and to victory!

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT AND UNION.

As the Central organ of the Democratic party, the Weekly Patriot and Union has acquired a large and more diffused circulation than any other paper in the Democracy of this State. It has heretofore occupied an influential position as an able and industrious worker in the cause of Democracy, and its friends say that it still continues to be a valuable organ of the party. It is not for us, however, to puff our own work. If we have been faithful to the cause of the party and the country, we hope every Democrat will make it an object to extend our field of operations, by adding to our list of subscribers. The low price of the Weekly in comparison with the amount of matter furnished, makes it one of the cheapest of newspapers. We hope every good Democrat who reads this will send his name and $2.50 for a copy for one year. If this is too much for those who are very poor, let all such send us fifty cents each, and receive the Weekly Patriot and Union for the campaign. The following are the terms:

THE NEW YORK NEWS. THE BEST PAPER IN THE WORLD.

B. Wood, Ed. and Proprietor. Prospectus.

The Democracy of the North will commit a fatal error if they accept the result of the late Presidential election as an indication from the hands of the victors, to relax their political action until the opening of the next campaign. The future welfare of the republic depends upon the political zeal and activity of the Democracy during the year 1865.

The small majority of the popular vote that elected the Black Republican candidates, considered in view of the extraordinary resources of the Administration for corruption and compromise, attests that the power of the Democracy on a fair field, is equal to the vindication of Democratic principles.

There is one feature in the result of the Presidential election that goes far to reconcile the patriot to the hard fate of his country under four years more of Black Republican misrule. The baleful meteor that lingered in grief while in our political atmosphere has vanished for ever. War Democracy has fulfilled its mission of disorganization, and like any other pestilence will be remembered only for the evil it has done.

The issue now before the people is the final struggle between Centralization and States' Rights, and no journal is Democratic that does not devote the champion of States' Rights to the paramount principle of the Democratic faith.

The New York News needs no testimony beyond its plain unadorned record to substantiate its claim to being and having been the most earnest, able and consistent States' Rights Journal in the land. We have no excuses to invent for modifications of sentiment, nor have we to plead "excuses" in palliation of inconsistency. Our path has been straight forward. Our columns are before the people, not a line in them that we would cancel nor sentiment we would recall, not an assertion that requires an explanation, not a word that we regret to have uttered, not a principle advocated that we have not stood by and stand by to the last. Such has been our past record, so will be our future.

We do not, however, ask the Democracy to sustain us in our mission as a reward for the service we have done, but in consideration of the good work that we propose to do. The New York News for 1865 will not merely imitate its predecessors, it will excel them. It shall be, not only the truest exponent of Democratic principle, but the best newspaper in the country. Hereafter it has had no superior as a vehicle of news, hereafter it shall have no equal. In every department of journalism we have arranged that the News shall distance competition. It is the only Democratic newspaper in the metropolis that has the advantage of publishing a daily issue with the full dispatches of the Associated Press, and therefore its machinery for furnishing a complete record of every more perfect than that of any of the Democratic contemporaries. None have attempted lately, to compete with it in the publication of Southern intelligence, as our system of exchange with Southern journals baffles the sagacity and enterprise of our rivals.

A glance at the columns of The News devoted to "Southern and Northern personalities" will remark the extraordinary success that has attended our enterprise in that direction. We are in daily receipt of letters expressing the thanks of those who, through the medium of the "Personals" in The News, have been enabled to receive tidings from their friends and relatives in the South, and the heart of many an exile and wanderer has been gladdened through that instrumentality by words of affection and hope from those mourned for as dead.

The New York News has become so popular in the rural districts that other metropolitan journals, in publishing their stereotyped boast of "the largest circulation of any weekly journal" are constrained to make an exception in our favor. It is a significant circumstance that since the Presidential election and consequent demise of War Democracy, the subscriptions to this paper have been unusually numerous.

The Agricultural Department of The New York News renders it an invaluable companion and assistant to the farmer; and its Cattle, Market and Produce Reports are more reliable and full than those of any other journal.

The Daily News will forfeit one thousand dollars if, in the above Departments, competent judges should deny its superiority.

THE OLD GUARD, A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE Principles of 1776 and '87.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, Editor.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromise to make with error—no parity with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of cunning office seekers and spoil-hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enunciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Sovereignty and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonouring departure, the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. This year it has been enlarged to double its former size—that is, to forty eight pages—for the purpose of making it in all respects, as to style and matter a popular Literary and Family Magazine.
