

STAR OF THE NORTH

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

WEDNESDAY NOV. 22, 1865.

SCHOOL ORDERS, handsomely printed, for sale, cheap, at this office.

UNCHANGEABLE—Our pockets, always empty.

ATTENTION is directed to new advertisements in this paper.

THE Furnaces in this county are all in full blast, save a few old defunct concerns.

HON. WM. ELWELL, of this place, has sold his Farm in Bradford county, for $5,000.

On our first page will be found an interesting article on the subject of "Education."

SPILL COMING—New subscribers to the STAR. Plenty of room for more on our new books.

Those of our patrons who promised to pay us in potatoes will do us a favor by bringing them along.

STRAVE GOLD—The Amber Coal Company, in Greene County, while searching for coal oil. The prospects are flattering, and the whole community is in an excitement.

S. B. MILLER has received another lot of new goods which are going off like "hot cakes." Mr. M. has first-class goods—sells a great many in the course of the year—and cheap. Give him a call.

FOR SALE—One certificate of membership, entitling the holder to a full course of instruction, in the Quaker City Business College, Philadelphia, will be disposed of cheap, by the editor of this paper. For information regarding the school, see advertisement in another column.

The editor of the Republican feels that after the result of the late elections. That's all right; we don't blame him any; but we are inclined to the opinion, that the Gen will be on the wrong side of his potato hole before another year rolls round. Stick a pin there, if you please.

B. STOWNER is receiving from the city, a large lot of Holiday presents which he will sell cheap for cash. He has toys, candies, and notions, of every description. This is the best place in town to buy your holiday presents.

CHARLES H. DORSEY, of Williamsport, we understand, has purchased property of Elias Hicks of this place. Mr. Doeber having sold his property, where he now resides, is desirous of re-moving back to Bloomsburg, the place of his former residence.

THERE are a great many men who subscribe and receive newspapers that never pay for them. How do they expect the Printer to make an honest living? Suppose all would neglect paying him anything, would he not soon be compelled to steal or starve?

PRICES still remain high—and seem firmer than they were a year ago. A reduction in the price of almost every article consumed in a family is imperatively demanded. The grocermen should be the first to step into the channel of retrenchment and reform in this line.

DWELLING HOUSES are going to be scarce, for the first of April. If we are any capitalists in our town! Have we any here who do they not build some good houses for rent? They could let them at a good price. The money invested would bring in a fair return. Good dwelling houses are in great demand, in this place, and no signs of the demand soon abating.

MONT. WILLIAMS advertises in today's Star his Corn Broom Manufacture at Wilkes-Barre. He has had considerable experience in this business, in Northumberland and Columbia counties, and no doubt will give entire satisfaction. He is prepared to furnish parties with brooms at wholesale, upon the most reasonable terms, or work up material upon shares for those having the material and desiring it made into brooms.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of Michael Fry, late of Millin township, Columbia county, dec'd.

BLOOMSBURG, NOV. 22, 1865.

"VERILY, IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."—Among the obituary notices in this paper we chronicle the demise of ELIAS DIETZBERG, Esq., of Montour township, who died rather suddenly from the effects of an acute attack of Erysipelas, leaving an interesting family and a large circle of friends to mourn his speedy death. Mr. D. was a well-to-do farmer, respected, and esteemed by all who knew him, having lived more than the average years of a man's life, and at one time filled the position of County Commissioner with credit alike to himself and his constituents. His funeral obsequies were largely attended, there being some fifty carriages in the procession. The remains were interred in the old Presbyterian burying ground, at this place, after which the mourners, relatives and friends repaired to the Lutheran Church and listened to an appropriate and impressive sermon, delivered by the Rev. J. R. DIMM.

PEE JOHN chapters quite a good deal over additions made to his subscription list, increased advertising patronage, and large run of job work. All this may seem flattering to him, if true; but we have often heard it remarked that a hungry dog always made the most noise. His yelping may now be expected soon to cease, as he is supported and paid out of taxes wrong from the pockets of the poor people. It's a blessed thing to pay taxes to keep up such individuals as Pee John. The community could not spare him—especially the ladies.

DEAD—Samuel Alexander, a worthy and respectable citizen of this place, died at his residence in Sagetown a few days ago. He was in the 59th year of his age. Long a devoted christian in communion with the Methodist Episcopal Church, he saw his approaching end with calmness and met the last great foe, like a good soldier of the Cross.—Montour American.

On Saturday morning of last week, two young men, named Wm. Thompson alias Clark K. Little, and George Shippy, the former charged with horse stealing and the latter with larceny, escaped from the Jail at Tanhannock, Wyoming county, by climbing over the wall. They made a rope ladder out of a blanket which they tore and twisted into ropes.

They made a rope ladder out of a blanket which they tore and twisted into ropes.

REBELLION in the Human Interior. Rebellions are not confined to bodies politic. They break out in our own interiors as well as in the 'bowels of the land.'

The natural law of our bodies is health, but we misuse them and they revolt. We subject them to exposure, we overeat them, we overload the stomach, we neglect the bowels, we plunge out of rooms hotter than the tropics into an atmosphere below freezing point, and in various other ways trifle with our health.

But these frames of ours are wonderful machines, and we can, by the use of the PROPER MEANS, SO INVIGORATE AND REGULATE them as to render them almost proof against the ordeals to which, in our recklessness, we subject them.

Nothing that has ever been known or heard of as a tonic adds so much to the resistant power of the human system under circumstances unfavorable to health as HOBSTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If you would escape the intermittent fevers, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and bowel complaints, of which cold and damp are the frequent causes, use the BITTERS as a PROTECTIVE MEDICINE. This is the wisest course; but if already an invalid, try the preparation as a RESTORATIVE. In either case, full reliance may be placed upon its efficacy. Sold everywhere.—Sunday Mercury, Dec. 25th, 1862, Nov. 1st, 1865.

BROOMS.

MONTGOMERY WILLIAMS respectfully announces to the public generally that he is manufacturing CORN BROOMS, for sale, wholesale or retail, in Wilkes-Barre. He is prepared to furnish merchants and others with a good article of Brooms at reasonable prices. Persons having material that they desire made up upon shares can send it to him. His work will compare favorably with any made up in the State. MONT. WILLIAMS, Wilkes-Barre, Nov. 22, 1865.

THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE

N. E. corner Tenth and Chestnut Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

The most complete and thoroughly appointed Business Commercial College in the country.

The only one in the City possessing a Legislative Charter, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of Merit. Diplomas awarded to graduates in the Commercial Course under its corporate seal by authority of law.

Conducted by gentlemen of liberal education and extensive experience in business and affording unequalled advantages for the thorough theoretical and practical education of young men for the various duties and employment of business life.

THEORY AND PRACTICE COMBINED by a system of

original and pre-eminently practical, giving the student in the shortest time a complete insight into the routine, details, customs and forms of business in general, as conducted in the best regulated commercial and financial establishments.

THE BOOKKEEPING COURSE. Upon a new plan, with an original exposition of the science of accounts, strangled and published by the proprietor of this Institution exclusively for his own use, saving one-half the ordinary labor of the student, and giving him a complete knowledge of the practice of the best accountants.

THE COMMERCIAL COURSE. ENCOMPASSES Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Law, Lectures on Business Affairs, Commercial Customs, Forms, and Actual Business Practice.

SPECIAL BRANCHES. Algebra and the Higher Mathematics, Phonography, Ornamental Penmanship, the Art of Detecting Counterfeit Money, Engineering, Surveying Navigation and Telemetering.

TELEGRAPHING. The arrangements for Telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branches in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which the students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regulation office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

PATRONAGE. This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associations are first class.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS. The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations, for extent, elegance and convenience, are unsurpassed. All the rooms have been fitted up in the very best style with

BUSINESS OFFICES OR COUNTING HOUSES, TELEGRAPH OFFICES, STATIONERY STORE, and a regular

BANK OF DEPOSIT AND ISSUE, supplied with finely engraved lithographic notes used as a circulating medium in the Department of Actual Business.

TO YOUNG MEN who desire a PRACTICAL EDUCATION FOR BUSINESS, we guarantee a course of instruction no where else equalled, while the reputation arising from the institution among business men make its endorsement the best passport to success and advancement. All contemplating entering any commercial College, are invited to send for an ILLUSTRATED CIRCULAR AND CATALOGUE, containing complete interior view of the College, and full particulars of the course of instruction, terms, &c.

PROSPECTUS, FOR 1866.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.

Splendid Array of Talent.

In entering upon the third year of its existence, the proprietors of this new magazine beg leave to offer their thanks to the ladies of America for the liberal support already extended to them. Few magazines have reached their second year of a life so bristling with twenty-five thousand names.

The Lady's Friend will continue to be devoted as heretofore to choice literature and the illustrations of the fashions. It will contain the latest patterns of Cinks, Caps, bonnets, head-dresses, fancy work, embroidery, &c., with receipts, music, and other matters interesting to ladies. The music alone is worth more than the cost of the whole magazine, the pieces being selected by Prof. Getze from the capacious repository of that widely known and enterprising firm, Messrs. Lee & Walker.

The Lady's Friend is edited by Mrs. Henry Peterson, supported by the following brilliant corps of contributors:

Ellen Purdy, Emma Bell Z. Spencer, Mrs. L. C. Moulton, Annie F. Kent, Mrs. M. F. Tucker, Frances H. Sheffield, Miss E. C. Donnelly, Carrie E. Meyer, Julia Gill, Mattie Dyer Britis, Mrs. Eliza S. Turner, E. Margaret Starr, Frances Lee Pratt, Emily Lester Leigh, Miss F. H. Peeples, Charles Morris, Mrs. M. C. Pyle, Miss H. S. Cory, August Bell, Mrs. A. A. Denison, Miss A. L. Muzzy, Cath. M. Trowbridge, Mrs. H. A. Haydon, Mary J. Allen, Virginia F. Townsend, Miss A. Forrester, Beatrice Coleman, J. C.

Elmore Parry, Homer-Clara Augusta, Miss L. W. Tappan, Mrs. Anna Babbe, Annie Russell, Marcia Hope, Leslie Walter, Hattie Hammond, Helen M. Pratt, Sarah J. Ramsey, Sophie May, Mrs. L. J. Rutenhouse, Philia H. Chase, Helen Mayo, Edwin R. Martin, Caroline A. Bell, Harris Byrne, T. J. Chambers, Emma M. Johnson, Addie E. Sutton, Minnie W. May, And other talented writers.

Beautiful Engravings.

A beautiful Steel Fashio Engraving and a superb colored steel fashion plate will illustrate every number; besides well executed wood cuts, illustrative of the fashions, fancy work, &c., too numerous to detail.

SEWING MACHINE PREMIUM.

In order to enable ladies to procure a first quality Sewing Machine at very little outlay, we make the following liberal offer: We will give one of WHEELER & WILSON'S Celebrated Sewing Machines, the regular price of which is FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS, on the following terms:

1. Twenty copies of the Lady's Friend, one year, and the Sewing Machine, $70 00

2. Fifty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 85 00

3. Forty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 100 00

In the first of the above clubs, a lady can get twenty subscribers at the regular price of two dollars and fifty cents a copy, and by sending on these subscriptions, and Twenty Dollars in addition, will get a Machine that she cannot buy anywhere for less than Fifty-five dollars. If she gets thirty subscribers and Seventy-five Dollars she will only have to add ten dollars to the amount. While if she gets forty subscribers at the regular price, she will get a machine for nothing.

The magazines will be sent to different post-offices if desired. The names and money should be forwarded as rapidly as obtained, in order that the subscribers may begin to receive their magazines at once, and not become dissatisfied with the delay. When the whole amount of money is received, the Sewing Machine will be duly forwarded.

The Clubs may be partly composed of subscribers to the 'Saturday Evening Post' if desired.

In all cases the Machine sent will be the regular Wheeler & Wilson's No. 3 Machine, sold by them in New York, boxed, and forwarded free of cost, with the exception of freight.

TERMS:—Our terms are the same as those of that well known weekly paper the Saturday Evening Post—in order that the Clubs may be made up of the paper and magazine conjointly when it is so desired—and are as follows:

One copy one year, $2 50

Two copies one year, 4 00

Four copies one year, 8 00

Eight copies one year, and one to get-ter up club, $16 00

Twenty copies one year, and one to get-ter up club, 35 00

One copy of the Lady's Friend and one of the Post, 4 00

Single numbers of the Lady's Friend (postage paid by us) twenty-five cents.

Advertisements in British North America must remit twelve cents in addition to the annual subscription, as we have to repay the United States postage.

The contents of the Lady's Friend and of the Post will always be entirely different.

Address, DEACON & PETERSON, No. 319 Walnut st., Philadelphia.

Specimen copies will be sent to those desirous of getting up Clubs, on the receipt of fifteen cents.
