To defeat this ticket florace Greeley, the father of the abolition negro equality party. and Fernando Wood, a leading Democrat of the most extreme views, have united Mozar: Hall and the Citizens' Association, and nominated John Hecker for Mayor and O' Gorman for Corporation Counsel. We call attention to this most unnatural fusion for the purpose of showing how hollow hearted and hypocritical are the pretentions of both Greeley and the Woods that they are governed by principle. Wood pretends that he hates the negro equality party, and Greeley cannot say things vile perheads," and yet here we find the very antipodes in politics in a warm and loving embrace-each praising the other through the columns of their respective organs.

When Democrats of the Wood school who, are constantly condemning the action of the Democracy in their conventions for not repudiating every dogma or principle started by our opponents, thus lovingly em brace the vilest enemies of Democracy for the very purpose of defeating the regular Democratic ticket as in New York, we may well hold up our hands in amazement and await with anxiety the next development. Well, Democrats, we have been beaten bud enough in the recent elections, but we never dreamed that Mozart Hall under the lead of Fernando and B. Wood would march bodily over to the most extreme negro equality man of the abolition party and surrender everything preconditionally to him, and this too whilst the Democracy have a maority of twenty five thousand in that city.
