

The Executors of William Cole, dec'd, offer a large amount of real estate for sale. See advertisement.

Prof. S. K. White gave a free lecture on music, in the basement of the Lutheran Church, on Monday evening last, at this place.

Thos. Dunn, Esq., of Jackson, was chosen as foreman of the Grand Jury, at our Court last week. This was a very proper selection.

Orange Judd's American Agriculturist is the best publication for the Farmer published in America. It is cheap. Only $1 50 in advance.

The Methodist Episcopal Congregation, of this place, are holding a revival meeting. We understand it is being pretty well attended and promises to be a success.

Charles G. Barkley, Esq., started out on Monday and expects to be absent from his office the whole week, examining schools, in the upper end of the county.

The Ladies connected with the Episcopal Church of Bloomsburg, held a Fair and Festival, during Court week. They realized a handsome sum, which their articles and labors merited.

Thomas Stroud, who stole a horse from George Reilwick, of this place, some time last summer, was committed at our late Court and sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for a term of one year and ten months.

Geo. W. Marcus, the gentlemanly Proprietor of the "Forks Hotel," at this place, has just completed some valuable improvements in his house. "George" is an enterprising landlord and is making hosts of friends.

A. B. Tate has changed the title of his paper to read ASHLAND ADVOCATE, instead of Constitutional Advocate. The heading is better proportioned, and looks neat.

Our county jail received a pretty good clearing out last week. There is but one prisoner inside of its walls at present. He was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the county jail, costs of prosecution, and fined twenty-five dollars.

THANKSGIVING DAY was pretty generally observed by the citizens of Bloomsburg in respect of party or religion. It being court week, his honor, Judge Ellwell, adjourned court on Wednesday evening until Friday morning. The stores and shops were all closed, and the town bore a sedate and melancholy appearance.

M. M. Traylor, Esq., entered upon the duties of his office as District Attorney last week. He will make an attentive and efficient officer. At present his office will remain at Berwick, where he can be seen or addressed, relative to any matter coming under his official duties.

FRANK LESLIE'S MAGAZINE for December has been received, looking as bright and cheerful as ever looked the most handsome and best periodical published in this or the Old World. For choice reading it cannot be surpassed. We know of no slyer corps of contributors. And as for fashion plates we defy all the Magazine publishers combined to go by FRANK LESLIE. Send and get it.—Published in New York.

The remains of Lieut. ISAIAH ROBINSON, youngest son of William Robinson of this place, were brought home on Monday last for interment. He was a gallant young soldier, among the very first to enter the service, and, if we mistake not, lost his life in one of those hard fought battles in Tennessee, some time before the close of the war, under Gen. Sherman. This is our present impression. Peace to his ashes.

Mrs. SAMUEL F. SEBERT, of this place, publishes a notice in the Democrat asking for information of the whereabouts of her husband, who left, some two weeks since, with an understanding that he was going to Philadelphia to buy goods. He was in the shop business at this place. He was about 27 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, light complexion, blue eyes, dark hair, with whiskers and mustache, and by occupation a shoemaker. His wife and family are desirous of learning his whereabouts, for which they will pay a suitable reward.

The citizens of Danville voted the Democratic ticket, Mr. Chaffin, a splendid silver-headed cane, a short time since, over his cotemporary, Dr. Brower, of the Democrats. They now contemplate casting the vote over again and the editor receiving the highest number to be presented with a very large sum. We should think the Doctor would win this present; if he does not he ought to, for his top piece always looks as though he had just come out of a severe gale of wind.

E. H. LITTLE, Esq., retired from the duties of Prosecuting Attorney of this county last week. Mr. L. has filled the office for six years, making a very efficient and attentive officer, and could have been re-elected this Fall had he desired to continue in that position any longer. While conducting the business of his office he always commanded the highest respect of the entire bar as well as the community generally. He endeavored to do justice to all. His attention will be given, since his retirement from office, more exclusively to the "Gleaner" Court practice and civil cause generally.

Jens J. Smith, Esq., newly elected Treasurer, has filed the necessary bonds required by law, to make him fully eligible to his office, and will enter upon his official duties on or about the 1st of January next.—He was elected for two years, and it is admitted on all sides that the people made a good selection.

We understand that Pokk has been sold in some of the mining districts, in Luzerne and Schuylkill counties, as low as 10 and 12 cents per pound, according to quality.—And what is remarkable about it, if anything, is the fact that this pork was hauled to those places and sold by Columbia county farmers, while at home, here, they have the conscience to ask their neighbors, when who are obliged to buy pork, from sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. This is outrageous, when we think that they will spend several days carting it off to a strange market, and there sell for considerable less.—How long will this kind of business continue? We hope not long.

SEVERAL things needed in Bloomsburg: First, a Borough Charter; second, a large, spacious Town Hall; third, a Water Company, to erect works and furnish the town with plenty of water; fourth, Gas Works, that the town may be lighted up. (With the present bad and irregular walks it is a difficult matter for one not acquainted to pass through town at night without breaking or breaking his shins.) We might go on and enumerate many other valuable and necessary improvements but we will let this suffice for the present. A town of the size and age of Bloomsburg, possessing the wealth she does, should have had all that we have mentioned above, ten, say, twenty-five years ago. Why is it that we are in the back ground? We could mention, but we do not feel disposed to wound the tender feelings of our town fathers. They are nice old gentlemen and believe in doing things in the "old way."

THOMAS DUNN argues that bonds should not be taxed, because money was procured upon them "at a time of dire necessity."—We say the shoddy speculators picked up these bonds with the money they cheated the government out of, and rightfully should pay tax upon them. These 7-30's, in a great measure, went into the hands of persons who made their money out of some heavy gun, horse, beef, pork or grain contract; men, too, who were, before the war, not worth a dollar, and to-day count their millions as profits, besides what they have defrauded the government out of; and these are the men the home patriot of the Republican would smile upon—would exempt from taxation and allow to go "scot-free" from paying anything towards the support of the government. And the poor tax paying people must each and every one pay his share of the interest upon these bonds, which the holder sticks into his pocket, and takes off. This is the way the farmers, mechanics, and laboring men generally, are taxed to support the government. Did you ever think of it? The shoddy capitalists, who tolls in wealth, pays no tax. He possesses exemption bonds, and you and all of us, pay the interest upon them. This, Thomas Dunn says, is right. We say it is not, and the people will say the same.

Judge Henry Boyer, of Alexandria, has been elected, with the Honorable Randall Hunt, as Senators from Louisiana. The former was United States Judge in that State.—Mr. Hunt is a distinguished lawyer of New Orleans.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT & UNION, FOR THE CAMPAIGN OF 1865.
The political campaign just opening in Pennsylvania is destined to be one of great importance, and to have a powerful influence upon the future of the country at large. A great measure it will determine the gubernatorial contest of 1866, and have an influence upon the presidential election two years thereafter. But more important, it will probably determine the choice of the next U. S. Senator from this State and thus affect the legislation of Congress and the restoration of peace to the land. It is, therefore, of vital importance that every citizen should be made by every member of our party to secure the victory. Not only should every local organization be put to work, but every honorable means should be adopted to stir up the apathetic and lukewarm, and to make new votes by conversion. It can only be through the immutable and golden principles of Democracy, and the sound Democratic platform, that the triumph of liberty, degradation and taxation. Outside the Democracy there are no principles. The rule of action of the opposition is ever changing—one thing today—something else to-morrow. It is held together merely by expediency—the latest and most outrageous of all being the moderate six-months political truce of retro-spect. To defeat this, and all other schemes of the Abolition-shoddy horde who live only to plunder and tyrannize, let every Democrat arouse and stir up the rusty armor of his fathers in Democracy—of Washington, of Jefferson, of Jackson, and march to battle and to victory.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT & UNION.
As the Central organ of the Democratic Party the Weekly Patriot and Union has acquired a large and more diffused circulation than any other Democratic journal in the State. It has heretofore occupied an influential position as an able and industrious worker in the cause of Democracy, and its friends say that it will continue to be a valuable organ of the party. It is not for us, however, to puff our own work. If we have been faithful to the cause of the party and the country, we hope every Democrat will make it an object to extend our field of operations by adding to our list of subscribers. The low price of the Weekly in comparison with the amount of matter furnished, makes it one of the cheapest of newspapers. We send every good Democrat a gratis trial, which will send his name and $2 50 for a copy for one year. It is too much for those who are very poor, let all such send us fifty cents each, and receive the Weekly Patriot and Union for the campaign. The following are the terms:

THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE
N. E. corner Tenth and Chestnut Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

The most complete and thoroughly appointed Business Commercial College in the country.

The only one in the City possessing a Legislative Charter, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of Merit. Diplomas awarded to graduates in the Commercial Course under its corporate seal by authority of law.

Conducted by gentlemen of liberal education and extensive experience in business, affording unequalled advantages for the thorough theoretical and practical education of young men for the various duties and employments of business life.

THEORY AND PRACTICE COMBINED by a system of ACTUAL BUSINESS TRAINING original and practically practical, giving the student in the shortest time a complete insight into the routine, details, customs and forms of business in general, as conducted in the best regulated commercial and financial establishments.

THEORETICAL BOOKKEEPING Upon a new plan, with an original exposition of the science of accounts, arranged and published by the proprietor of this Institution exclusively for his own use, saving one-half the ordinary labor of the student, and giving him a complete knowledge of the practice of the best accountants.

THE COMMERCIAL COURSE. Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Law, Lectures on Business, Advances, Commercial Customs, Forms, and Actual Business Practice.

SPECIAL BRANCHES. Algebra and the Higher Mathematics, Phonography, Ornamental Penmanship, the Art of Detecting Counterfeit Money, Engineering, Surveying, Navigation and Telegraphing.

TELEGRAPHING. The arrangements for Telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branches in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which the students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance during the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students can be found here, and all its accommodations are first class. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS. The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations, for extent, elegance and convenience, are unsurpassed. All the rooms have been fitted up in the very best style with

BUSINESS OFFICES OR COUNTING HOUSES, CLERK OFFICES, STATIONERY STORE, and a regular

BANK OF DEPOSIT AND ISSUE, supplied with finely engraved lithographic notes as well as a circulating medium in the Department of Actual Business.

TO YOUNG MEN who desire a PRACTICAL EDUCATION FOR BUSINESS, we guarantee a course of instruction on whose standing the institutions of the country, and men make its endorsement the best passport to success and advancement. All contemplating entering any commercial College, are invited to send for an ILLUSTRATED CIRCULAR AND CATALOGUE containing complete interior views of the College, and full particulars of the course of instruction, terms, &c.

PROVINCIAL NEAPOLITAN PROMPTLY DONE, BY C. G. BARKLEY, Attorney at Law, Bloomsburg, Pa.

1866: THE WEEKLY WORLD
An Independent & Moderate Party. Weekly and Semi-Weekly Newspaper.

After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial cooperation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our national position in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic party, whose history in the past is the history of private prosperity, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions, its loyalty to the State of equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Once more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and Southern States.

The principles of the great Democratic Party of the Nation, The World has borne witness through the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the return of peace. Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enabled by the free and untrammelled by the professions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should be uttered, with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance as to every citizen as most recommended. The World to the cooperation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Whatever skill can devise or enterprise accomplish will contribute to make The World what it is our resolve that it shall continue to be—the Best Newspaper of the Day.

Competent correspondents at every commercial and political center of both continents, who are always instructed to make the freest and promptest use of the telegraph, will keep our readers full informed of the doings and the progress of mankind in all parts of the globe.

EDITIONS. The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon the news of every day.

The Semi-Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorial, commercial and market news, cable market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly World, a large quarto sheet same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus, has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivaled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

The market reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge live stock markets; the New York country produce and general produce markets; special and valuable hog intelligence; a department of agricultural reading; all together comprising an indispensable handbook of current information for the farmer, live stock or produce dealer, the country merchant, &c.

Its reading for the family circle embraces the freshest and best stories, poetry, religious reading, &c.

Its digest of the news is not like most city weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the weekly.

In every post office district there should be found some active, public spirited democrat who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors and the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of four, ten, twenty, or fifty for the Weekly World, at our reduced rates.

PROSPECTUS, FOR 1866. THE LADY'S FRIEND.
A Splendid Array of Talent.

In entering upon the third year of its existence, the proprietors of this new magazine beg leave to offer their thanks to the ladies of America for the liberal support already extended to them. Few magazines have boasted during their second year of a list of nearly twenty-five thousand names.

The Lady's Friend will continue to be devoted to heretofore to choice literature and the illustrations of the fashions. It will contain the latest patterns of Cloaks, Caps, bonnets, head-dresses, fancy work, embroideries, &c., with excerpts, music, and other matters interesting to ladies. The music is mostly worth notice, than the cost of the whole magazine, the pieces being selected by Prof. Geize from the extensive repository of that widely known and enterprising firm, Messrs. Lee & Walker.

The Lady's Friend is edited by Mrs. Henry Peterson, supported by the following brilliant corps of contributors:

Florence Perry, Mrs. B. K. Spencer, Mrs. L. C. Moulton, Annie F. K. Z. Francis H. Sheffield, Mrs. M. F. Tucker, Carrie E. Meyer, Miss E. C. Donnelly, Matie Dyer Britts, Mrs. Eliza S. Turner, E. Margaret Lister, Frances Lee Pratt, Eunice Lester Leigh, Mrs. P. H. Phelps, Charles Morris, Mrs. M. C. Pyle, Miss H. S. Corey, "Aunt Abigail," Emma R. Finley, Mrs. M. A. Dewison, Miss A. L. Muzzy, Cath. M. Dowbridge, Mrs. A. A. Heydon, Mary J. Allen, Virginia F. Townsend, Miss A. Forester, Beatrice Colonna, J. C. F., Mrs. Margaret Hosmer, Clara Augusta, Miss L. W. Tappan, Mrs. Anna Bacho, Maria Hope, Hattie Hammond, Leslie Walker, Sarah J. Ramsey, Helen M. Pratt, Mrs. L. J. Rutenhouse, Sophie May, Helen Mayo, Edwin R. Martin, Etie V. Slade, Caroline A. Bell, T. J. Chambers, Harris Byrne, Mary H. Cook, Emma M. Johnson, Addie E. Sutton, Mrs. James ———, and other talented writers.

Beautiful Engravings. A beautiful Steel Engraving and a superb colored year book will illustrate every number; besides well executed wood cuts, illustrative of the fashions, fancy work, &c., too numerous to detail.

SEWING MACHINE PREMIUM. In order to enable ladies to procure a first quality Sewing Machine at very little cost, we will give one of WHEELER & WILSON'S Celebrated Sewing Machines, the regular price of which is FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS, on the following terms:

1. Twenty copies of the Lady's Friend, one year, and the Sewing Machine, $70 00
H. Forty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 85 00
H. Forty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 100 00

In the first of the above clubs, a lady can get twenty subscribers at the regular price of two dollars and fifty cents a copy, and then by sending on these subscriptions and Twenty Dollars in addition, will get a Machine free of cost, with a year's fuel for the same.

Machine free of cost, with a year's fuel for the same. If she gets thirty subscribers and Twenty-five Dollars she will only have to add ten dollars to the amount. While if she gets forty subscribers at the regular price, she will get her machine for nothing.

The Magazine will be sent to different post offices if desired. The names and addresses must be forwarded as rapidly as obtained, in order that the subscribers may begin to receive their magazines at once, and not become dissatisfied with the delay. When the whole amount of money is received, the Sewing Machine will be duly forwarded.

The Clubs may be partly composed of subscribers to the "Saturday Evening Post" if desired.

In all cases the Machine sent will be the regular Wheeler & Wilson's No. 3 Machine, sold by them in New York, boxed, and forwarded free of cost, with the exception of freight.

TERMS.—Our terms are the same as those of that well known weekly paper the Saturday Evening Post—in order that the Clubs may be made up of the paper and magazine conjointly when it is so desired.

One copy one year, $2 50
Two copies one year, 4 00
Four copies one year, 8 00
Eight copies one year, and one to get up of club, $16 00
Twenty copies one year, and one to get up of club, 35 00
One copy of the Lady's Friend and one of the Post, 4 00

Single numbers of the Lady's Friend (postage paid by us) twenty-five cents.

Subscribers in British North America must remit twelve cents in addition to the annual subscription, as we have to repay the United States postage.

The contents of the Lady's Friend and of the Post will always be entirely different.

Address, DRACON & PETERSON,
No. 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

Specimen copies will be sent to those desirous of getting up Clubs, on the receipt of fifteen cents.
