Principles of 1776 and '87.

C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which suided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromises to make with error-no parley with despotism. Democracy will be treated. not as a varying policy of conning officeseekers and speil hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enun ciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1798 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one assserting State Sovereignty and the other White supremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, aim to make it Superior To All Others. and fashionable Clothing at his Store, on | before this cowardly sturender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH An excellent Lotion for diseases arising from bubils of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buche and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Dedence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines. Also explicit directions for use, with hundreds of thousands living witnesses, and nuwards of 20,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statemen, &c. The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not pand

to be propped up by certificates. The Science of Medicine, like the Dorle Column, should stand simple, pure, majestic, having Fact for its basis, Induction for its pillar, and Truth alone for its Capital.

My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Blood Purifier; my Extract

Buchu is a Diuretic, and will act as such in all cases. Both are prepared on purely scientific principles - in racuo-and are the most active measures of either that can be made.
