

We call the special attention of our readers to the new advertisements in this week's issue.

The Legislature of this State meet to organize and proceed to business, on Tuesday, the second day of January, 1866.

A Bill was given at the "American House," at this place, on Friday evening last.

The Annual Settlement of the County Treasurer, will be held before the County Auditor, on Monday, the first day of January next.

The Senior editor of the Star will go to Harrisburg, to enter upon the duties of his office, in the Assembly of Pennsylvania, on Monday next.

CONTRARY to the notice given in our paper last week, we publish a paper to day. This is in account of some legal advertisements which require more publications than can be given should we omit this week.

THAT CHRISTIAN DINNER which we helped eat, at the "Forks Hotel," by request of the Proprietor, GEORGE W. MAUGER, was gotten up just right. Mr. Mauger knows how to entertain his guests.

The Lutheran Congregation, of this place, are holding a fair and festival in the room lately occupied by Mr. Christman, as an ice cream saloon. They will continue during this week and have a New Year dinner on Monday next. The receipts are to be used to refit their church building, on Market Street. Give them a call, and do not forget to leave some change.

The new advertisements and a want of hands this week has had the effect to greatly reduce the quantity of reading matter usually found in the Star. Having promised our compositors a week of recreation, they were much surprised to learn that the order had been revoked, and a new one issued, commanding them to report for duty immediately, at the office, in their own proper persons or by "sims." Our readers, remembering that these are holidays, will, therefore, excuse us.

A Musical Concert will be held in the Lutheran Church, at this place, on Friday evening next. Musical talent, from Pittston, Wyoming, Wilkesbarre, Northumberland, Danville, Light Street, and elsewhere, has been engaged. The Bloomsburg Brass Band will enliven the occasion with some of their choice pieces. The proceeds are to be applied towards enclosing and ornamenting the lot in which our soldiers are buried. A full attendance may be expected. The object is a worthy one, and should receive the approbation and support of everybody. The Concert will be tip-top.

GEORGE and CHARLES RUPERT, sons of Bernard Rupert, of this place, came home last week to spend a fortnight of fifteen days, from the service of the United States army. These young men both entered the army, early, for a term of three years, which they passed through honorably in the Sixth Regiment of the Pennsylvania Reserves. They re-enlisted, a short time after being honorably discharged on account of expiration of the term of enlistment, for another term of three years, in which they are now serving with honor. They have passed through many severe battles and escaped unscathed. Their smiling faces and ready hands are received by their many friends with much pleasure. May they live to return uninjured after their services may not be needed.

CHRISTMAS was quite a lively day in town, considering that no special arrangements were made to celebrate the day. The Bloomsburg Brass Band, engaged a sled and passed through the streets, tooting the citizens with excellent music. The ladies and gentlemen of the Lutheran church served a good dinner to which all were invited who could afford the "stamps." The children of the Presbyterian Sunday School were given much pleasure by an appropriate celebration in the basement of the church edifice. In the evening, at which time the ladies of the congregation presented to the pastor, Rev. D. J. Waller, a costly silver pitcher and goblets, and at the same time the leader of the choir, T. J. Morris, Esq., received from the members of the choir a beautiful photograph album.

This everything passed pleasantly, save with a few noisy fellows, slightly "indisposed," who received a forcible impression of a "MERRY CHRISTMAS," by coming in contact with moving fists.

PARENTS of this town, who do not wish to have their old age filled with grief, by the evils of erring sons, should be giving some attention to their children while they are young.

Most wilful and malicious conduct prevails among the boys of our town. Scarcely a lady or gentleman can walk or ride through the streets without being insulted or endangered by the throwing of snow-balls. Upon Christmas, they made a charge to force, upon the Band, while riding up town, and caused the suspension of the music. These acts are committed daily upon different persons. It is thought by many that the boys are instigated by men and older persons. We are slow to believe that there is a being in the town of Bloomsburg, aspiring to manhood, who is so much degraded, and yet from statements made to us it appears probable.

We do know that had a man been shown to the men of the Band, who threw a ball at them, or indeed any boy to throw, he would have gone home a wiser, if not a better man.

Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

PATRONAGE. This institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance during the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associations are first class.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS. The institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations, for extent, elegance and convenience, are unsurpassed. Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial co-operation of all honest men is needed to re-establish the peace of the country, and to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic party, whose history in the past is the history of private prosperity, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Queer, more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its time-honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and Southern States.

To the principles of the great Democratic Party of the Nation, The World has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and socially questionable financial, social, political, which come upon us with the return of peace. Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enlivened by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or hesitating voice, in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance to every citizen as must recommend The World to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

1866. THE WORLD An Independent Democratic Daily, Weekly and Semi-Weekly Newspaper.

After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial co-operation of all honest men is needed to re-establish the peace of the country, and to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enlivened by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or hesitating voice, in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance to every citizen as must recommend The World to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Whatever skill can devise or enterprise accomplish will contribute to make The World what it is our resolve that it shall continue to be—the Best Newspaper of the Day.

Competent correspondents at every commercial and political center of both hemispheres, who are always instructed to make the freest and promptest use of the telegraph, will keep our readers full informed of the doings and the progress of mankind in all parts of the world.

The Semi Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorial, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and enlarged amount of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly World, a large quarto sheet same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

The market reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge live stock markets; the New York county produce and general produce markets; special and valuable hop intelligence; a department of agricultural reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the farmer, live stock or produce dealer, the country merchant, etc.

2. Its reading for the family circle embraces the freshest and best statistics, poetry, religious reading, etc.

3. Its digest of the news is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste basket of the daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the weekly.

In every post office district there should be found some active, public spirited democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of four, ten, twenty, or fifty for the Weekly World, at our greatly reduced rates.

THE PHOENIX-PECTORAL

WILL CURE Your Cough. Read the advertisement below.

The Phoenix Pectoral; or compound Syrup of Wild Cherry and Seneca Snake Root, will cure the Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as colds, coughs, croup, Asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, sore throat, hoarseness, whooping cough, &c.

It timely use will prevent PULMONARY CONSUMPTION. And even where this fearful disease is fully developed, it will afford more relief than any other medicine.

J. Lawrence Goetz, ex-Speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, says: "This cough remedy is now extensively used, and is of the highest value to the community, its curative qualities having been tested by thousands with the most gratifying results. It is carefully and skillfully prepared from Wild Cherry Bark and Seneca Snake Root, by Dr. Levi Oberholtzer, a reputable physician of Phoenixville, Pa., and is sold by nearly all druggists and country storekeepers."

D. P. Crosby, ex-Post Master and ex-Burgess of Pottstown, certifies as follows: "I have used the Phoenix Pectoral in my family, and I recommend it to the Public as the very best remedy for cough and colds that I have ever tried. One of my children was taken with a cold, accompanied with a croupy cough, so bad, indeed, that it could not talk and scarcely breathe. Having heard so much said about the Phoenix Pectoral, I procured a bottle of it. The first dose relieved the difficulty of breathing, and before the child had taken one fourth of the bottle it was entirely well. Every family should have it in their house."
