

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTRY. BLOOMSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 3, 1866.

Read the advertisements in the Star. The Court advertisements for February Term, appear in this week's issue of the Star.

PATENTS.—Six thousand six hundred and sixteen patents have been issued during the past year from the Patent Department—the largest issue ever made.

We call attention to the advertisement of the sale of valuable real estate, to be sold by Solomon Neyhart, Guardian of the minor children of Samuel A. Bowman late of Millis township dec'd.

Our CARRIER BOY requests us to return thanks to the many from whom he received liberal remuneration for his services. It is not in earnest, just view his pleasant countenance as he walks the streets with a new hat, neck-tie, gloves, &c.

New Year's Day came and passed in our town, quietly and without the occurrence of anything, particularly notable.

The business places were all open and doing business; it was not generally considered a holiday, and the mass of people appeared to think it proper to open 1866 with industrious and frugal habits.

The Mayor of Philadelphia has decided, in answer to a petition praying him to enforce the Sunday law, that he has no power to close taverns or drinking places on Sunday, and that a policeman cannot be sent to such resorts without lowering their dignity.

Certainly not, it would be disloyal to "stop the whiskey out" so great a number of loyal persons, as reside in Philadelphia.

We have received the Old Guard for January. It is enlarged, and its list of contributors is greater than ever. The Publishers will commence in the February number an original and most thrilling romance of the war, entitled Bertha Seeley, the Heroine of the old Dominion, by a distinguished Southern author.

Those who wish a good Democratic monthly, would do well to subscribe for the Old Guard. Address, Van Erie Horton & Co 162 Nassau Street, Philadelphia.

SAMUEL GROOL, son of Jacob Grool of Bloomsburg, returned to visit his parents and friends, on Monday morning, after a long absence in the Southern States.

Mr. Grool removed from this place to Richmond, Va., in the Fall of 1860, and being there when the rebellion opened he was retained within the Southern lines during the continuance of the war. He was once conscripted by the Confederate authorities and reported for duty; but being a good mechanic, the demand for workmen was so great in Richmond, that he was relieved from service immediately, and was never afterwards called upon to serve in the army.

HE CALLED HIS COUNSEL.—It is a well known fact that lawyers seldom fail to secure their fees. And, hence, it rarely happens that a man engages one of the profession, unless he is provided with the "legal tender." But occasionally a criminal is caught without money, and in immediate need of counsel. This seems to have been the case of a man named Wilson who was lately hung at Genesee N. Y., for the killing of Devoe. However, the lawyers came, on the "home stretch." The murderer, before being hung, gave his body to his counsel, who sold it to a surgeon at Sunda. Had he not been hung he could not have paid his debts.

PETITIONS are in circulation throughout the country, and receiving some subscribers, asking for an amendment of the constitution of the United States, giving to the women of the several states, right to vote. This is certainly in accordance with the views of the "universal suffrage" party.—They are anxious to give the elective franchise to negroes; we are of the opinion that a "white woman is as good as a black nigger," and we think they may be quite as competent to exercise the voting privilege as the many "unintelligent contrabands," of whom we hear so much from radicals. Send your petitions to Sumner and Stevens, ladies, though it might be well enough to have them recommended by T. DAVIS, it being well known that he is a "ladies man."

ADVICE FOR THE NEW YEAR.—If you wish to save money, read the advertisements in the Star. If you wish to preserve your health read the advertisements in the Star. If you wish to buy good Liquors read the advertisements in the Star. If you desire to see a good dentist read the advertisements in the Star. If you wish to buy a fine, and good fitting suit of clothes, read the advertisements in the Star. If you wish to buy valuable real estate, or personal property read the advertisements in the Star. If you wish to buy good Clothing, Dry Goods, of any sort, Groceries, Watches, Jewelry Castings, or anything else read the advertisements in the Star. If you desire to save money and live an honest life get advice from Lawyers who advertise in the Star. And finally, if you wish to be a wise and good man subscribe for the Star and read it carefully, and never neglect to pay the printer.

THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE

The most complete and thoroughly appointed Business Commercial College in the country. The only one in the City possessing a Legislative Charter, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of Merit. Diplomas awarded to graduates in the Commercial Course under its corporate seal by authority of law.

Conducted by gentlemen of liberal education and extensive experience in business and affording unequalled advantages for the thorough theoretical and practical education of young men for the various duties of the most important business life.

THEORY AND PRACTICE COMBINED by a system of ACTUAL BUSINESS TRAINING, original and pre-eminently practical, giving the student in the shortest time a complete insight into the routine, details, customs and forms of business in general, as conducted in the best regulated commercial and financial establishments.

THEORETICAL BOOKKEEPING. Upon a new plan, with an original exposition of the science of accounts, arranged and published by the proprietor of this Institution exclusively for his own use, saving one-half the ordinary labor of the student, and teaching him a complete knowledge of the practice of the best accountants.

THE COMMERCIAL COURSE. Bookkeeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Law, Lectures on Business Affairs, Commercial Customs, Forms, and Account Business Practices.

SPECIAL BRANCHES. Algebra and the Higher Mathematics, Pronography, Ornamental Penmanship, the Art of Detecting Counterfeit Money, Engineering, Surveying, Navigation and Telegraphing.

The arrangements for Telegraphing are far in advance of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branches in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and to which the students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associates are first class.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS. The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations, for extent, elegance and convenience, are unsurpassed. All the rooms have been fitted up in the very best style with BUSINESS OFFICES OR COUNTING HOUSES, TELEGRAPH OFFICES, STATIONERY STORE, BANK OF DEPOSIT AND ISSUE, supplied with finely engraved lithographic paper used as a circulating medium in the Department of Actual Business.

TO YOUNG MEN who desire a PRACTICAL EDUCATION FOR BUSINESS, we guarantee a course of instruction to where else equaled, while the reputation and standing of the institution among business men, make it an endorsement of the best passport to success and advancement. All contemplating entering any commercial College, are invited to send for an ILLUSTRATED CIRCULAR AND CATALOGUE containing complete interior views of the College, and full particulars of the course of instruction, terms, &c.

Blank! Blank! Blanks! DEEDS, SUMMONS, EXECUTIONS, SUBPENAS

of proper & desirable forms, for sale at the Office of the "Star of the North." J. H. HARMAN, Dec. 20 '65 1y.

1866: THE WORLD'S PROSPECTUS, FOR 1866.

After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States, by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial co-operation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The Lady's Friend will continue to be devoted as heretofore to choice literature and the illustrations of the seasons. It will contain the latest patterns of Cloaks, Capes, bonnets, head-dresses, fancy work, embroidery, &c., with receipts, music, and other matters interesting to ladies. The music alone is worth more than the cost of the whole magazine, the pieces being selected by Prof. Gaze from the spacious repository of that widely known and enterprising firm, Messrs. Lee & Walker.

The Lady's Friend is edited by Mrs. Henry Peterson, supported by the following brilliant corps of contributors. Florence Percy, Mrs. Bella Z. Spencer, Mrs. L. C. Moulton, Annie F. Kent, Mrs. M. F. Tucker, Frances H. Sheffield, Miss El. C. Donnelly, Carrie E. Meyer, Julia Gray, Marie Dyer Brits, Mrs. Eliza S. Turner, E. Margaret Starr, Francis Lee Pratt, Emile Lester Leigh, Mrs. P. H. Phelps, Charles Morris, Mrs. M. C. Pyle, Miss H. S. Corey, "Aunt Adeline," August Bell, Mrs. M. A. Denton, Emma B. Phipley, Cath. M. Trowbridge, Miss A. L. Mozzy, Mary J. Allen, Mrs. H. A. Heydon, Miss A. Forestier, Virginia Townsend, J. C. T., Mrs. Margaret Homer, Clara Augusta, Miss L. W. Tappan, Mrs. Anna Babco, Annie Russell, Marcia Hope, Leslie Walter, Hattie Hammond, Helen M. Pratt, Sarah J. Ramsey, Sophie May, Helen May, Edwin R. Martin, Edw. V. Martin, Caroline A. Bell, T. J. Chambers, Harris Byrne, Mary H. Cox, Emma M. Johnson, Addie E. Sutton, Minnie W. May, And other talented Mrs. James ——— writers.

Beautiful Engravings. A beautiful Steel Fancy Engraving and a superb colored steel fashion plate will illustrate every number; besides well executed wood cuts, illustrative of the fashions, fancy work, &c., too numerous to detail.

SEWING MACHINE PREMIUM. In order to enable ladies to procure a first quality Sewing Machine at very little outlay, we will give one of WHEELER & WILSON'S Celebrated Sewing Machines, the regular price of which is FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS, on the following terms: 1. Twenty copies of the Lady's Friend, one year, and the Sewing Machine, $70 00 2. Thirty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 85 00 3. Forty copies, one year, and the Sewing Machine, 100 00

In the first of the above clubs, a lady can get twenty subscribers at the regular price of two dollars and fifty cents a copy, and when by sending on these subscriptions, and Twenty Dollars in addition, will get a Machine that she cannot buy anywhere for less than Fifty-five dollars. If she gets thirty subscribers and Seventy five Dollars she will only have to add ten dollars to the amount. While if she gets forty subscribers at the regular price, she will get her machine for nothing.

The Magazine will be sent to different post offices if desired. To name and money should be forwarded as regularly as obtained, in order that the subscribers may begin to receive their magazines at once, and not become dissatisfied with the delay. When the whole amount of money is received, the Sewing Machine will be duly forwarded.

The Clubs may be partly composed of subscribers to the "Saturday Evening Post" if desired.

In cases where the Machine sent will be regular Wheeler & Wilson's No. 3 Machine, sold by them in New York, boxed, and forwarded free of cost, with the exception of freight.

TERMS.—Our terms are the same as those of that well known weekly paper the Saturday Evening Post.—In order that the Clubs may be made up of the paper and magazine conjointly when it is so desired—and are as follows: One copy one year, $2 50 Two copies one year, 4 00 Four copies one year, 7 00 Eight copies one year, and one to get-up of club, $16 00 Twenty copies one year, and one to get-up of club, 35 00

One copy of the Lady's Friend and one of the Post, 4 00 Single numbers of the Lady's Friend (postage paid by us) twenty-five cents. Subscribers in British North America must remit twelve cents in addition to the annual subscription, as we have to repay the United States postage.

The contents of the Lady's Friend and of the Post will always be entirely different. Address, DEACON & PETERSON, No. 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia. Specimen copies will be sent to those desirous of getting up Clubs, on the receipt of fifteen cents. October 18, 1865.

THE PHENIX PECTORAL

WILL CURE Your Cough. Read the advertisement below.—The Phenix Pectoral; or compound Syrup of Wild Cherry and Seneka Snake Root, will cure the Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as colds, coughs, croup, Asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, sore throat, hoarseness, whooping cough, &c.

It is timely use will prevent PULMONARY CONSUMPTION. And even where this fearful disease is fully developed, it will afford more relief than any other medicine. J. Lawrence Getz, ex-Speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, says: "This cough remedy is now estimated to be of the highest value to the community, its curative qualities having been tested by thousands with the most gratifying results. It is carefully and skillfully prepared from Wild Cherry Bark and Seneka Snake Root, by Dr. Levi Oberholzer, a reputable physician of Phoenixville, Pa., and is sold by nearly all druggists and country storekeepers."

D. P. Crosby, ex Post Master and ex-Burgess of Pottstown, certifies as follows: POTTS TOWN, Jan. 3, 1865. This certifies that I have used the Phenix Pectoral in my family, and I recommend it to the Public as the very best remedy for cough and colds that I have ever tried. One of my children was taken with a cold, accompanied with a croupy cough, so bad, indeed, that it could not talk and scarcely breathe. Having heard so much said about the Phenix Pectoral I procured a bottle of it. The first dose relieved the difficulty of breathing, and before the child had taken one fourth of the bottle it was entirely well. Very family should have it in their houses. D. P. CROSBY. [Signed.]

J. C. Smith, druggist of New Hope Bucks county, Pa., in writing to Dr. Oberholzer, says: "A few days since I bought two dozen of your valuable cough remedy to try, and find it very good, and as it is nearly all gone I would like you to send me a gross of it."

The proprietor of this medicine has so much confidence in its curative powers, from the testimony of thousands who have used it, that the money will be paid back to any purchaser who is not satisfied with its effects. It is so pleasant to take that children cry for it. Price THIRTY-FIVE CENTS; large Bottles ONE DOLLAR.

It is intended for only one class of diseases, namely those of the THROAT and LUNGS.

Prepared only by LEVI OBERHOLTZER 112 North Sixth St., and sold by all Druggists and Storekeepers. Johnson, Holloway & Cowden, No. 23 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, and F. C. Wells & Co., 115 Franklin Street, New York, General Wholesale Agent.

N. B.—If your nearest druggist or store-keeper does not keep this medicine do not let him put you off with some other medicine, because he makes more money on it, but send at once to one of the Agents for it. June 21, 1865.—6m.

THE PHILADELPHIA AGE, 1866.

THE only Democratic Daily Morning Journal published in Philadelphia. The publicists of the Philadelphia AGE invite the earnest attention of business men, thinking men, literary men, and all who are interested in the various occupations and pursuits of life, to the DAILY and WEEKLY editions of their Journal.

The Philadelphia Age, in accordance with the principles and policy of the democratic party, is issued every morning, (Sundays excepted), and contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world; with carefully prepared articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions and affairs of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Price Current, Stock quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literary Art and Music, Agricultural Matters, and discussions of whatever subject is of general interest and importance.

No event of any importance occurs in any part of the country without being fully and promptly telegraphed to and published in its columns. It has all the despatches of the Associated Press from their correspondents in the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed, from whatever point the steamers first touch.

TERMS.—Ten Dollars per annum, for a single copy. Five Dollars, for six months. Two Dollars and Fifty cents for three months. And for any less time at the rate of One Dollar per month, payment required invariably in advance.

The Philadelphia Weekly AGE, is a complete compendium of the news of the week, and contains the chief editorials, Price Current and Market Reports, Stock Quotations, Intelligence from Farmers, Correspondence, and General News Matter published in the Daily Age. It also contains a great variety of other literary and miscellaneous matter, including Tales, Sketches, Biography, Facetiae, and Poetry, rendering it in all respects a First Class Family Journal, particularly adapted to the Literary taste of the Farmers, Country, Literary men, and all classes of readers. It has in fact, every character of a fine newspaper, fitted for the Counting House, the Workshop, the F. reside and the General reader.

THE WEEKLY AGE is mailed in season to reach all parts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and Maryland, on or before Saturday of each week.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum for a single copy. One Dollar for six months, and Sixty cents for three months. One copy gratis will be sent for one year to the person forwarding us 20 yearly subscribers paid in advance. No paper will be sent until the subscription is paid.

SPECIMEN COPIES of the above papers sent gratis to any address, on application.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The circulation of the Philadelphia AGE, which is steadily and rapidly growing, makes it at least a valuable medium for advertising as an official commercial and business newspaper in Philadelphia; and the fact that it reaches a large class of conservative readers, scattered over a vast extent of country, who do not take any other Philadelphia paper, commends it, to an extraordinary degree, as a means of communicating with the public not possessed by any other Journal published in this city.

The AGE has now established on a safe and permanent foundation. The publishers could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand alone, upon claims to public confidence well-known and established. It will be, as heretofore, the supporter of the National, Conservative, Democratic, Union Principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of Good Government, Law, and Order. The revival of all the business relations of the country, consequent upon the suppression of the rebellion and the restoration of peace, will enable the publishers to make a number of improvements in the various departments of this Journal, and they, therefore, respectfully solicit the support of all who wish to secure one of the best Commercial, Literary, Business, and Family newspapers in the country.

Now is the time to subscribe. Address, GLOSSBRENNER & WELSH, 430 Chestnut Street. June 7, 1865. PHILADELPHIA.
