Both was immediately taken sick, and has been most of the time since.
In October he was much better, so much so that he took some exercise in the open air, but he relapsed and was confined to his room until about four weeks ago. His condition, in my judgment, is raised, and I don't believe he will live long. He was preparing for a change of climate, and if no relapse has taken place, it probably now in another country, where he will meet with more of his own people, or people from the same country.

Mr. Editor, I write such poor English that I fear you will not be able to make it out, but it is the truth, the whole truth, and if you wish, you may publish it. I shall not be in the country to read it.
Yours, truly,
J. F.

A greenhorn went to a messenger to examine the beaver, the birds and creeping things there congregated, among which an orange gnat particularly struck his attention. Several gentlemen were conversing about the animal, one of whom expressed the opinion that it was a lower order of the human species. Jonathan did not like this, and striding up to the gentlemen, expressed his contempt for it thus:
"Pooh, pooh! he's no more human than I be."

How was it that Noah did not emerge first from the ark? Because he came from the ark!

Bloomsburg, Nov. 4, 1865.

1866: THE WORLD
An independent Democratic Daily, Weekly and Semi-Weekly Newspaper.
After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of these United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial co-operation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our Unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic party, whose history in the past is the history of private property, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Once more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its time-honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and Southern States.

To the principles of the great Democratic Party of the Nation, The World has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the return of peace. Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enlivened by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such importance to every citizen as most recommend The World to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Competent correspondents at every commercial and political center of both hemispheres, who are always instructed to make the freest and promptest use of the telegraph, will keep our readers full informed of the doings and the progress of mankind in all parts of the globe.

The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon the news of every day.
The Semi Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorial, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly World, a large quarto sheet same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published here. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expectations, which will make it unrivaled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.

1. The market reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge live stock markets; the New York country produce and general produce markets; special and valuable hop intelligence; a department of agricultural reading; all together composing an unrivaled handbook of current information for the farmer, live stock or produce dealer, the country merchant, etc.

2. Its reading for the family circle embraces the freshest and best stories, poetry, religious reading, etc.
3. Its digest of the news is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste basket of the daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the weekly.

In every post office district there should be found some active, public spirited democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors and the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of four, ten, twenty, or fifty for the Weekly World, at our greatly reduced rates.

Prospectus of Vol. III.—1865.
THE OLD GUARD,
A MONTHLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART, AND THE PRINCIPLES OF 1776 and '87.
C. CHAUNCEY BURR, Editor.

This Magazine will continue to defend the principles of Government which guided our fathers in the foundation of the Republic. The spirit and doctrine of the two first volumes will be fully maintained in the third volume. We have no compromise to make with error—no parody with despotism. Democracy will be treated, not as a varying policy of cunning office-seekers and spell hunters, but rather as an abiding principle of political economy and of popular liberty. All supporters of this revolutionizing, Abolition war, will be held as the enemies of the Democracy. We shall acknowledge no organization to be Democratic which does not honestly enunciate and support the principles of the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions of 1788 and the Dred Scott Decision of the Supreme Court, the one asserting State Sovereignty and the other Whitesupremacy. To preserve these honorable doctrines, the Democratic party was organized by the very founders of the Federal Government, and it remained true to them down to the fatal and dishonoring departure, at the commencement of this war. The Old Guard is an organ of Democracy as it was, before this cowardly surrender of principle and as it must be again, before it can redeem our country from the rule of faction and despotism. This year it has been enlarged to double its former size—its title, to forty eight pages—for the purpose of making it in all respects, as to style and matter a popular Literary and Family Magazine.

TERMS.
One copy, one year, $2 00
Seven copies, one year, and one to the getter up of club, 14 00
Twenty copies, 35 00
Single copies sent, post-paid, for 20 Terms invariably in advance, and the Magazine will be stopped when the time paid for expires.
As each number of THE OLD GUARD is stereotyped, back numbers and volumes can always be furnished.
Subscriptions will be understood as commencing with the year, and back numbers sent accordingly, unless specially ordered otherwise.

The Old Guard will be sent through the Post Office to subscribers in the city, Brooklyn, Williamsburg and Jersey City. The postage of The Old Guard is 12 cents per year, payable in advance, at the office of mailing or delivery.
Copies of Vol. I. and II. of The Old Guard for 1863 and 1864, will be furnished bound in paper, for $1.50; in cloth for $2. post paid.

All letters in relation to the business department of the Magazine, should be invariably addressed to the undersigned, as follows:
