THE GOOD OLD PLOUGH.

Let them sing who may of the battle fray,
And the deeds that have long since past—
Let them chant in praise of the tar whose days
Are spent in the scenes vast.
I would render to these all the worship you please,
I would honor them even now,
But I'd give far more from my heart's full store
To the cause of the goold old Plough.

Let them laud the notes that in music float
Through their bright and glittering halls,
While the amorous twirl of the hair's bright curls
Round the shoulder of beauty falls—
But dearer to me is the song from the tree
And the rich and blossoming bough—
O, those are the sweets which the rustic greets
As he follows the good old Plough.

Then how jocund the song as it comes along
From the ploughman's lusty throat!
Did the hunter's shout ever yet give out
To the brown woods a merrier note!
Tho' he followed no hound yet his day is crowned
With a triumph as good, I trow,
As though antlered head at his feet lay dead,
Instead of the good old Plough.

Full many there be that we daily see
With selfish and hollow pride,
Who the ploughman's lot in his humble cot
With a scornful look deride;
Yet I'd rather take, aye, a hearty shake,
From his hand than to wealth I'd bow—
For the honest grasp of that hand's rough clasp
Hath stood by the good old Plough.

All honor be then to these good old men
When at last they are bowed with toil;
Their warfare then o'er, why they battle no more,
For they've conquered the stubborn soil—
And the chaplet each wears are his silver hairs—
And no'r shall the victor's brow
With a laurel crown to the grave go down
Like these sons of the good old Plough.

From the Farmer's Book.

WORK FOR AUGUST.

HARVESTING.—With the exception of late Oats and Timothy, you have, we are aware, not only cut but secured all your grain and grass. So, therefore, it may only be necessary to jog your memory as to these, and with that view we would remind you that both should be cut before they become dead ripe. As to Oats, much is saved by cutting them early, in the prevention from shattering, a source of great loss to farmers, and against which all prudent men should guard.

THRASHING.—The sooner you get your wheat thrashed and cleaned, the better chance will you stand of being able to avail yourself of the rising of the market.

FALLOWING.—As soon as your harvest shall have been secured it will be time for you to begin to plough your fields for fall sowing. Your Rye, it should be your object to get in in September, and therefore if you do not intend to sow in corn-fields, you have but little time to delay. Our advice, in ploughing, is that you go as deep as your teams will allow, whether the ground to be ploughed be a clover-ley, a grass-ley or old field, as we think there is no truth more demonstrable than this, that deep pasturage always tends to promote healthful vegetation. Should the ground destined for your fall grain be an old field, unburthened with a grass carpeting, we would, by all means, recommend that it receive two ploughings, the first to be very deep, so as to completely bury all weed-seeds, and the second shallower; each ploughing to be followed by harrowing.—Ground appropriated to either Wheat or Rye cannot be too minutely pulverized—it serves to fructify the earth by extracting food from the atmosphere, and enables the plants to take good roote before frost—the latter being a matter of importance as it entrenches the plants against freezing out.

TIMOTHY.—Get yoor grounds ready for sowing Timothy seed, and remember that you cannot make the tilth too fine, as nothing requires it more, or will better pay for labor thus bestowed. Besides good ploughing and thorough harrowing, recollect that, unless your land is strong and rich, manure is essential to ensure a good crop of Timothy. In seeding a peck and a half to the acre should be taken, as by taking a sufficient quantity you fill your land with timothy plants instead of leaving room for weeds; clean meadows will be the consequence. If the field is infested with briars, root them out thoroughly—this is the month that it can be done with the surest prospect of killing them. If the meadows are wet, they should be ditched or drained, as sweet herbage will not grow on such soils. Of all months in the year this is the best adapted to draining and ditching. Therefore, attend to it at once.

POTATOES.—Give your fall potatoes their last working; do it effectually; leave neither weeds nor grass behind you.

SHEEP.—This is the season when the fly makes egg-deposites in the nostrils of sheep. To prevent them, get equal quantities of salt and tar, mix them together, and place it in a trough where the sheep can have access to it. In seeking a lick at the salt, they will smear their noses, and thus erect a barrier against the approach of the fly to their nostrils, and save them from the evil consequences of worm in the head.

FRUIT TREES must be examined for insects, and the latter exterminated. If a sponge be dipt in sweet oil and fixed upon a stick you can destroy every insect within your reach by simply touching them with the oil. Oils of all kinds are fatal to the whole insect tribe. Having attended to the above, paint the bodies of your trees with a mixture of soft soap and flour of sulphur.

BOROUGH ORDINANCE.

Be it enacted by the Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same:

SECTION 1st. That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons, at any time between the eighth day of July, 1847, and the first day of September, 1847, and between the tenth day of June and the first day of September in each year thereafter, to kill any dog, bitch or slut, which shall be found, within the period aforesaid, running or going at large in any of the streets, lanes or alleys of the borough of Gettysburg; and for every such service in killing and burying said dog, bitch or slut, the person so killing and burying the same shall be entitled to receive the sum of Fifty Cents, on due proof thereof, to be paid by the owner or actual possessor of such dog, bitch or slut, if he or she can be ascertained—to be collected as other Borough penalties of like amount are by law recoverable; and if such owner or actual possessor cannot be known or ascertained, then the same shall be paid out of the Borough Treasury, on orders drawn in the usual manner; and in addition thereto, such owner or actual possessor shall, on due proof of the fact and actual conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine of five dollars for every such offence, to be collected as similar penalties are by law recoverable; the one-half of said fine or penalty to go into the Treasury of the Borough, and the other half to the use of any person who may prosecute for the same.

SECTION 2ND. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person in or about whose premises any such dog, bitch or slut, shall harbor, and who shall suffer such dog, bitch or slut, to harbor, and frequent his or her premises habitually, shall be considered and held as the actual owner thereof, for the purposes of this ordinance; and such fact, if satisfactorily shown, shall be sufficient evidence to charge such person or persons with the penalties hereinbefore provided.

A Commentary for the People.

NOW publishing, the ECLECTIC COMMENTARY on the Bible, from the works of Henry and Scott, and above one hundred other writers. The work is printed on fine paper, and with large clear type. It will be completed in 24 parts, of 80 pages each, imperial 8vo, all of which are now stereotyped. It will be beautifully illustrated by accurate views of scriptural scenes, designed expressly to embellish a Commentary, and executed by the most eminent artists. Tables and charts are likewise added, where necessary for purposes of illustration, and the whole comprising as valuable a series of illustrative engravings and embellishments, as has ever been united in any similar work. It may be used with any edition of the Bible. Will be published semi-monthly at 25 cents each part.

The design of the Committee of the London Tract Society, under whose supervision the English work was prepared, has been to cover that ground where all evangelical denominations meet, and to make a plain and practical exposition of religious truth and duty.

This work is based upon the commentaries of Henry and Scott, and more than one hundred other writers in the various departments of Biblical Literature; the most important observations of these eminent divines being quoted, constituting a digest of the most valuable results at which the learned men of all ages have arrived, in their critical study of the Holy Scriptures. Reference has been had to the wants of Sunday School teachers, and of families engaged in the systematic study of the scriptures.

Perhaps there never was a juncture of time when true religion more greatly needed a safe-guard against attacks which are both boldly and insidiously aimed at her vital principles; perhaps true religion was never in a more perilous position between open enemies and pretended friends, than at this particular crisis; and surely never was it more incumbent than now, on every true friend of her holy precepts, every conscientious master of a house-hold, every anxious parent, guardian and protector, to be provided with the antidotes to the poison, which is so unscrupulously scattered abroad, or an argument against each dangerous fallacy which is propounded to the injury and detriment of that religion, which is the faithful oracle of the Divine Creator, and the best exponent of his will.

"The object of the compilers has been to provide a commentary compact in size, moderate in price, and suited to christians of every station, rank and denomination.

"The family into whose hands this work comes have in their possession a store of Biblical science and practical instruction of more value than gold. The re publication is a great undertaking, and we hope it will receive an adequate support."—N. Y. Observer.

"This commentary has enjoyed an extraordinary popularity as a practical exposition of God's word. It differs from any other, presenting the best evangelical illustrative and practical comments which the editors were able to select from the best scholars, on each passage in course. The text being omitted, it is enabled to present a vast amount of learning in a small space. The sources from which it is compiled afford a perfect guarantee of its soundness, both of doctrine and interpretation, while the advantage of having the opinion of different commentators is apparent and very great."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"We regard the Eclectic Commentary, now in course of publication by Mr. Shannon, as especially deserving the patronage of Protestant Christians. Its cheapness, beautiful finish of mechanical workmanship, and its comprehensiveness, embracing, as it does, the cream of all the ablest commentaries, all entitle it to very high consideration."—Christian Parlor Magazine.

We have received the most favorable notices from many distinguished clergymen of various denominations in this country, and also from the religious press, which cannot be inserted in a newspaper advertisement on account of their length—they will be found on the cover of each part.

Protection against Loss by Fire.

THE "Cumberland Valley Mutual Protection Company," being incorporated by an Act of the Legislature, and fully organized and in operation under the direction of the following Board of Managers, viz: T C Miller, James Weakly, D W M'Cullough, A G Miller, T A M'Kinley, Philip Spangler, Samuel Galbraith, Samuel Tritt, Abm Kurz, (Adams.) John Zug, Samuel Huston, J T Green, J Bear—call the attention of the inhabitants of Cumberland and Adams counties to the cheapness of the rates, and the many advantages which this kind of insurance has over any other.

1st. Every person insured becomes a member of the company and takes part in the selection of officers and the direction of its concerns.

2d. For insurance no more is demanded than is necessary to meet the expenses of the Company, and indemnity against losses which may happen.

3d. The inconvenience of frequent renewals is avoided by insuring for a term of five years.

4th. Any person applying for insurance must give his premium note for the cheapest class at the rate of five per cent., which will be $50 on the 1000, for which he will have to pay $2 50 for five years, and $1 50 for survey and policy, and on more unless loss be sustained to a greater amount than the funds on hand will cover, and then no more than a pro rata share. These rates are much cheaper than those of other companies, except such as are incorporated on the same principles. T. C. MILLER, President.

SAND'S SARSAPARILLA.—The amount of suffering relieved by this invaluable preparation is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Thousands have been restored to health by its healing and regenerating efficacy, who were considered past the reach of remedial means, as various certificates heretofore published abundantly establish. It has received the entire approbation of many practitioners in this and other cities, and its rapid growth in the estimation of the public has placed it beyond the reach of detraction or the efforts of competition. Diseases which arise from impurity of the blood or vitiation of the humors generally, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Rheumatism and Incipient Gout, Salt Rheum and other cutaneous diseases, Fever Sores, Internal Abscesses, Fistulas, painful Affections of the Bones, Chronic Inflammation of the Kidneys, Female Derangements, General Debility and Prostration of the System, are all removed by its use.

☞ For further particulars and conclusive evidence of its superior efficacy, see Pamphlets, which may be obtained of agents gratis. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. THE AMERICAN REMEDY.

THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR AND WOOD NAPTHA.

OF all the remedies recommended, in late years, for the cure of CONSUMPTION, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Spitting Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side and Breast, Palpitation of the Heart, Influenza, Croup, Broken Constitution, Sore Throat, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the Throat, Breast and Lungs:

None has been found more CERTAIN and PERMANENT in its curative power over these so general and often fatal diseases, than the above preparation. The Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha is an unparalleled remedy. In addition to the healing power of Tar—the virtues of which, in affections of the lungs, is universally acknowledged—there is combined with it in this preparation the active principles of some of the most certain Tonic Vegetable Pectorals, which unite to make it the most valuable medicine ever offered to the public for the cure of the diseases for which it is employed, so that it never fails, if taken in time, to produce the intended effect.

Among the testimonials to the value of the above medicine, are several from distinguished physicians of Philadelphia. Read the following from Dr. Young, the eminent oculist:

Philadelphia, Jan. 18, 1847.

Having used in my practice, as well as in my own family, "Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naptha," I have no hesitation in saying that it is the best preparation of the kind in use for persons suffering from Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and all affections of the Throat, Breast, &c. so prevalent at this season of the year.

WM. YOUNG, M. D.
152 Spruce street.

Read also the following from a man who will at any time corroborate its statements.

MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

Philadelphia, Dec. 4, 1847.

Penetrated with a deep sense of gratitude for the benefit experienced by the use of Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar, and that others who, like me, have languished through years of affliction and suffering, without being able to find a remedy may know where it can be obtained, I voluntarily make the following statement.

About four years since, after being affected with a violent cold, it left upon me a troublesome and severe cough. Whilst the cough continued, which was with scarcely an intermission during this long period, language fails to tell what I have suffered from debility, pains in the breast and side, night sweats, difficult expectoration, oppressed breathing, and in fact all those symptoms which mark a severe pulmonary affection. The relief occasionally obtained by the discharge of the matter which obtructed the healthy action of my system, but increased my fears, as the purulent matter discharged was frequently streaked with blood.

During this time I was under the treatment of several physicians, and took many of those preparations recommended as serviceable in the cases of others, but without relief: and I at length concluded that a cure in my case was hopeless. But how aggreably changed is now my opinion! I have used for about three weeks Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar. By the use of one bottle my cough has been relieved and my system reinvigorated, and by continuing the use of it up to this time, I am satisfied that my complaint is entirely removed and eradicated.

GEO. E. STAUNTON,

Dear Sir—I feel bound to the afflicted to give publicity to the extraordinary effects of your invaluable External Remedy, called Hunt's Liniment.

My daughter, a girl of twelve years old, had been afflicted with White Swellings, in one of her legs, directly below the knee joint, for several months, during which time her sufferings have been excruciating and deplorable. I called on a Physician, who, during frequent visits, made use of every means in his power to arrest the fell destroyer, but all without effect. The leg continued swelling, until it opened, forming various disagreeable ulcers, rendering amputation necessary unless immediate relief be had. Fortunately, however, on the first day of December last, your agent having been in our village, and hearing of the sufferings of my daughter, he sent me one bottle of your Liniment, the use of which alone, thank God, has not only arrested the further progress of the disease, but has cured the leg perfectly, removing all pains and swellings, and restored the leg to its proper use.

I am under many obligations to your kind agent, who thus, by one bottle of your invaluable medicine, saved the leg of my daughter from amputation. Your Liniment should find its way into every family. MOSES PHILLIPS.

DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

For the cure of Hepatitis or Liver Complaint Dyspepsia and Sick Head-Ache.

THIS remedy has been for several years employed by the proprietor in the practice on a very large scale in Monongalia, Preston, Harrison, and Randolph counties, in Virginia, besides several other places; and having been attended with the most happy effects, he has been from time to time solicited to take such a course as would give it a more extensive circulation with a view to lessen the amount of human suffering. Aware of the fact that many nostrums have been palmed upon the public, he hesitated for several years, until thoroughly convinced that the above medicine, if properly used, would not fail to effect cures in a great many instances, and even to alleviate those cases which are quite incurable.

Symptoms of a diseased Liver.—Pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increased on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the right arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels, in general, are costive, sometimes alternating with lax, the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it—In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that having been associated with Dr. M'Lane in the practice of medicine for nearly two and a half years, I had many opportunities of witnessing the good effects of his Liver Pills, and I believe they have cured and relieved a much larger proportion of the diseases of the liver, than I have known cured and relieved by any other course of treatment.
