SEPTEMBER.

September's come! The sober Autumn, with a face serene, Smiles bland adieu to Summer, like a queen, Dismantling a gay favorite; the hum Of bird and bee is still upon the breeze, And though no leaves are fallen from the trees, September's come!

WORK FOR SEPTEMBER.

FOLLOWING OF GROUND.—Let all of your disposable force be put to the preparation of your ground for the winter grain; the sooner this is done, the sooner will you be in that position which all of us should covet—that of being ready for the next. In ploughing, whether the land be intended for Rye, or Wheat, it should be ploughed deep; for, in our humble opinion, there can be no surer truth than this—that depth of furrow is essential to successful culture. Under concurring favorable circumstances, shallow ploughing may, as it often has, produce very satisfactory yields; but these are mere exceptions, and do not interfere with the integrity of our rule. We would plough deep, whether the ground to be broken up be a clover-ley—a grass sward, a stubble-field, or, indeed, any other description of ground.

RYE.—In covering, do it with the plough, and be sure to give a bed of 3 or 4 inches to your seed—follow the plough with the harrow, and that by the roller, so as that the seed may be so compressed as to come into immediate contact with the earth.—This ensures an early germination and firm hold to the roots of the plants. And to order that the plants may have time to take deep root before frost sets in, and thus entrench themselves against winter killing, we would advise early, very early sowing.—We would much rather encounter the evil of rankness than that of winter killing.—Where the ground is not good, and other mild manure not attainable, we would certainly sow a bushel of plaster, or five of lime to the acre.

WHEAT.—As with many farmers this is the money crop—as it is one peculiarly liable to be taken off by disease and by insects,—and owing to these circumstances it is among the most important products of our country, we think it behoves every one, to do all within his power to devise some preventive means to save this valuable crop from its enemies: as to curative ones, under our present belief, we look upon them as being unattainable. The preventive means which now suggest themselves to our mind, are these—1. Early sowing. 2. The use of Plaster, Salt, or some other substance calculated to prevent the too rapid supply of the nutritive manures during the last two or three weeks of the growth of the plant.

PREPARATION OF THE SEED.—Wash it in clean water while ever it discolors the water; then soak it in ley made of salt, or ashes, for twenty-four hours, taking care to skim off all the light and imperfect seed of foreign bodies. Then dry it, by mixing the seed with either lime or plaster, so as to prepare it for sowing. There is no danger of the seed being injured by the soaks, though permitted to remain in them for several days, but the drying in lime should be done in such quantities as can be sown the same day.

MODE OF PUTTING IN.—All winter grain should be ploughed in, then harrowed and rolled. Care must be taken to run a sufficient quantity of water furrows to keep the plants dry through the winter, as it is destructive to permit the roots to remain imbedded in water during that inclement season, and we have no doubt that a very heavy prostration of loss arises, annually, from this cause.

SETTING OF MEADOWS AND SOWING GRASS SEED.—If the ground, in which you contemplate sowing your grass, be rich, it will, of course, need no manure; but if it be not in a good heart, let us advise you to give it a heavy dressing of good strong manure, before you attempt to sow your seed. If you intend manuring before you apply it, give your land a good deep ploughing, say six, ten, or twelve inches, roll it furrow-wise, and then harrow in the same direction; then apply your manure, plough it in, about three inches deep, then roll and harrow as previously directed, then sow your grass seeds, harrow them lightly in with a harrow, and finish by rolling.

SAND'S CELEBRATED SARAPARILLA.—This excellent compound, which is creating such a universal interest throughout the country, has at length made its way successfully into the favor of our citizens, and the people around us. It has so long been remarked, that the age is one of "nostrums and nostrum vendors," that we hardly dare recommend a valuable discovery in the medical science, lest we jeopardize our reputation for credulity and consistency, but in this instance we hesitate not to hazard the remark which we have made above.—Harford Review.

ROSS' EXPECTORANT.

A REMEDY For Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Sore Throat, Pains and Oppressions of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS!

Read the following Certificate of Cure published by the use of Ross' Expectorant, and you will longer neglect your cough, or doubt its efficacy. Baltimore, March 12, 1847.

Mr. Jas. F. Ross, Dear Sir: About three weeks ago my wife caught a severe cold, which troubled her a good deal and gave her great uneasiness; she prepared a great many articles which were recommended to her by her friends, but without receiving the benefit from any of them; her cough was getting worse every day, her appetite was fast falling, and she was unable to sleep—the pains in her breast and side became so severe that she was unable to get up, and she was obliged to call in a Physician. I thought I would call in the store where you were engaged and see if I could not get something that would relieve her, when you gave me a bottle of your Expectorant, saying that it would cure her in a few days, and now let me tell you the result! From taking the first dose she felt easier, though unable to sleep on account of the quantity of phlegm that loosened, and she could not sleep; but with the second dose she felt better, and she was enabled to sleep, and she continued it according to the directions, and that time for the first time for nearly two weeks, she enjoyed a good night's rest and by the time she had finished the first bottle, she was entirely cured. I think what use of this compound, for such an invaluable medicine should be made known to the afflicted every where. With best wishes for your success.

I remain, Sir, your obedient servant, CHARLES PASSWAY. CAUTION!!! Beware of Counterfeits and Spurious Imitations. See that the initials "J. F. R." are on the seal; also my Written Signature on the wrapper and the name of the Dispensing Apothecary. Prepared only by James F. Ross, Drugist, Baltimore Md. For sale in Gettysburg by SAMUEL H. BUEHLER, and in Millersboro by G. W. HEAGY, May 25, 1847.—1y

Will be published in Washington, D. C., on the Seventh of December next, The United States Reporter, A Daily Journal of Government, Legislative and General News.

THE subscriber is enabled to announce the completion of his arrangements for the establishment of a well organized and Independent Journal of News at the Seat of the General Government. The leading features of "The United States Reporter" will be the following: I. Early intelligence of the movements of the various Departments of the Government, in reference to Domestic affairs and to the Foreign intelligence of the country, will be given with scrupulous fidelity. II. Interesting particulars for obtaining information, the "Reporter" will be frequently to communicate, exclusively, intelligence of the most important character. III. The verbatim Reports of the Proceedings and Debates of the United States Senate, which the proprietor is bound to furnish daily to that body, in accordance with the terms of the contract made at the close of the last session of Congress. The arrangements now made will at once fully secure the publication of the verbatim reports, and complete record of its debates; and to the people—in a greatly enlarged degree—the benefit of the experience, sagacity, and statesmanship of the body to which they have ever looked with solicitation and respect. IV. The Proceedings and Debates in the House of Representatives will also be given, with fullness, impartiality, and the utmost promptitude. V. A Synopsis of the Proceedings and Debates of all the State Legislatures will be regularly given. VI. The General News of the Day will be given in a condensed form, with industry and attention.

Such is a brief view of what the "United States Reporter" is designed to be. All the plans and arrangements have been well matured, and the prospect is bright. The paper will be published weekly, and will be a vehicle of news, not the organ of any set of opinions. The grand aim of the subscriber is to establish at once a reliable and useful medium of communication of all sorts of intelligence—a responsible agent, to which the politician, the business man, the manufacturer, the mechanic, and every one interested in the affairs of Congress and the Government, may resort for information. It is believed that the establishment of such a reliable Journal of Intelligence, on terms which place it within reach of the great masses of the people, at the commencement of this promising era, will be a national benefit, and a history of Congressional proceedings, will be regarded with favor by all classes of the community, and, having thus stated his objects, the subscriber respectfully solicits a liberal and general support from the enlightened public of the United States.

Stenographer to the Senate of the U. States. The "United States Reporter" will be printed on a large and handsome sheet, and issued every morning, except on Sundays, at the rate of $6 per annum; single copies 2 cts. In connection with the daily paper, there will be issued from the same establishment, THE MIRROR FOR NEGROES. This publication will contain exclusively the reports of the proceedings and debates of the Congress of the U. States. It will be issued weekly, in an elegant quarto form, throughout the sessions of Congress, and at the rate of two dollars for the long session, and one dollar for the short session. It is believed that this great national work will be deemed indispensable in the library of every public institution, politician, and statesman, and that it will be regarded by the great mass of the people as the very best political text book for their own instruction and that of their children.

DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE.

Promptly expels Worms to an almost incredible number!

TO substantiate the above fact many hundreds of testimonials could be adduced, out of which the following are selected, from individuals of standing and veracity. Indeed, it is confidently affirmed that each new trial of the powers of this remedy will have an additional tendency to widen and confirm its fame, and that if it were universally known and diffused over the U. States, it would save not less than many hundreds, if not thousands of lives annually. CERTIFICATE.

I do certify that a child of Dr. McLANE'S American Worm Specific expelled five hundred and two whole worms, and pieces that would have made sixty more, from a boy of John Lewelling, which if laid in a straight line, would have most probably measured the enormous length of one hundred yards. JOSIAH JACKSON, Owner of Water Forge, and other works, Monocacy Falls, Va.

This is a child that I purchased from Holmes & Kidd a child of Dr. McLANE'S American Worm Specific, and gave two doses to a boy of mine about three years of age. He passed fully half a pint of worms. The quantity was so large I was really alarmed, and felt that he would never get over it. Had this story been related to me, I could not have credited it, without being an eye-witness to the same. My child's health improved much after SAM L. MORRISON, Merchant Tailor, Wood St., Pittsburg.

Dear Sir:—I have used in my practice Dr. McLANE'S American Worm Specific and have often witnessed its efficacy in expelling worms from the system. A patient of mine, a short time ago, gave a vial of the Worm Specific to a child and in a short time upwards of 65 worms were expelled. Dr. McLANE'S Worm Specific expelled the worms alive in about four hours after I gave the medicine.

N. B. Be particular to inquire for Dr. McLANE'S American Worm Specific, or Patent Vermifuge. Be prepared to get the genuine, from J. KIDD & Co., Wholesale & Retail Druggists, Wood St., Pittsburg. The above medicine can be had of the following Agents: S. H. Buehler, Gettysburg; J. Lower, Arendtville; J. & C. M'Knight, Beidersville; J. S. Hollinger, Heidersburg; Holtzinger & Ferree, Peterburg; Jacob Aulsebrook, Hampton; J. T. Hildebrand, E. Berlin; Peter Micky, Munnsburg; Wm. Bittinger, Abbotstown; Coulson & Co., Wholesale Agents, Liberty St., Baltimore, Md. Feb. 26, 1847.—6m

A Commentary for the People. NOW publishing the ECLECTIC COMMENTARY on the Bible, from the works of Henry and Scott, and above one hundred other writers, in a large type. It will be completed in 24 parts, of 80 pages each, imperative, all of which are now ready. It will be beautifully illustrated by accurate views of scriptural scenes, decorated with elegant engravings, and executed by the most eminent artists. Tables and charts are likewise added, where necessary for purposes of illustration, and the whole comprising an valuable series of illustrative engravings and emblematic designs, which will be a most interesting and useful work. It may be used with any edition of the Bible. Will be published semi-monthly at 25 cents each part.

The design of the Committee of the London Tract Society, under the supervision of the English work was prepared, has been to cover that ground where all evangelical denominations meet, and to make a plain and practical exposition of religious truth and duty.

This work is published upon the commentaries of Henry and Scott, and more than one hundred other writers in the various departments of Biblical Literature; the most important observations of these eminent divines being quoted, and the result being a more perfect exposition of the learned men of all ages have given in their critical study of the Holy Scriptures. Reference has been had to the wants of Sunday School teachers, and of families engaged in the systematic study of the Scriptures.

Perhaps there never was a juncture of time when true religion more greatly needed a safe-guard against attacks which are both bold and insidious, and aimed at her vital principles; perhaps true religion was never in a more perilous position, than at this particular crisis; and surely never was it more incumbent than now, on every true friend of the cause, to exert his influence, and to be a bold and every anxious parent, guardian and protector, to be provided with the antidotes to the poison, which is so unscrupulously scattered abroad, or an argument against such dangerous falshy opinions, which are so rapidly spreading, and which, if not checked, will be the ruin of the Divine Creator, and the best exponent of his will.

The object of the compiler has been to provide a commanding array of moderate in price, and suited to Christians of every station, rank and denomination.

"The family into whose hands this work comes have in their possession a store of Biblical science, and a volume of more value than gold. The re-publication is a great undertaking, and we hope it will receive an adequate support."—N. Y. Observer.

"This commentary has enjoyed an extraordinary popularity as a practical exposition of God's word. It differs from any other, presenting the best evangelical illustrative and practical comments which the editors were able to select from the best scholars, on each passage in course, and being bound in a more portable form, than any amount of learning in a small space. The sources from which it is compiled afford a perfect guarantee of its soundness, both of doctrine and of fact. It is a volume of more value than gold, and suited to Christians of every station, rank and denomination."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"We regard the Eclectic Commentary, now in course of publication by Mr. Shannon, as especially deserving the patronage of Protestant Christians. Its cheapness, beautiful form of mechanical workmanship, and its comprehensiveness, embracing, as it does, the cream of all the ablest commentaries, all entitle it to very high consideration."—Christian Register.

We have received the most favorable notices from many distinguished clergymen of various denominations in this country, and also from the religious press, which cannot be inserted in a newspaper advertisement on account of their length—they will be found on the cover of each part. ROBERT T. SHANNON, 115 Nassau street, N. York.

Bookellers and agents supplied at the regular trade prices. Numbers, as published will be sent by express to any part of the United States, by remitting the amount for the same, at the time of sending the order. JUNE 18, 1847.—12t

THE AMERICAN REMEDY.

THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR AND WOOD NAPHTHA.

OF all the remedies recommended, in late years, for the cure of CONSUMPTION, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Spitting Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side and Breast, Hemoptoe, the Heart, Influenza, Croup, Broken Constitution, Sore Throat, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the Throat, THOMSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR AND WOOD NAPHTHA is an unparalleled remedy. In addition to the healing power of Tar—the virtuous of which, in affections of the lungs, is universally acknowledged—there is combined with it in this preparation the active principles of some of the most curative Vegetable Remedies, which are so made as to make it the most valuable medicine ever offered to the public for the cure of the diseases for which it is employed,—so that it never fails, if taken in time to produce a permanent cure.

Among the testimonials to the value of the above medicine, are several from distinguished physicians of Philadelphia. Read the following from Dr. Young, the eminent oculist, as published in the Philadelphia Medical Register, Jan. 18, 1847.

Having used in my practice, as well as in my own family, "Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha," I have no hesitation in saying that it is the best preparation of the kind in use for persons suffering from Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and all affections of the Throat, Breast, &c. so prevalent at this season of the year. WM. YOUNG, M. D. 152 Spruce street.

Read also the following from a man who will at any time corroborate its statements. MOST WONDERFUL CURE. Philadelphia, Dec. 4, 1847.

Penetrated with a deep sense of gratitude for the benefit derived from the use of Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar, and that others who like me, have languished through years of affliction and suffering, without being able to find a remedy, may know where it can be obtained, I voluntarily make the following statement: About four years since, after being affected with a violent cold, it left upon me a troublesome and severe cough. Whilst the cough continued, which was with scarcely an intermission during this long period, I was afflicted with a variety of other symptoms, which I will not detail, but which were such as to render my existence a mere torment. I was frequently attacked with a severe pulmonary affection.
