AGRICULTURAL.

IMPORTANT PROCESS.

Mr. S. Bentz, of Boonsborough, Maryland, has sent us two papers containing samples of wheat. No. 1. is wheat in a natural state, as grown with the bran on. No. 2 has the bran taken off, and is as nicely denuded of its outer coating as is pearl barley. He has also sent us a third paper containing the bran taken off of No. 2. Mr. Bentz is the inventor of the process by which this operation is performed; and without pretending to an extraordinary knowledge in the art of milling, we are to admit that this improvement appears to us, what his circular designates it, an "important" one. He affirms that all varieties of wheat, white, red, and yellow, are at once improved from 5 to 15 per cent. by the process—and that the red and yellow wheats will make as good and fair meal as the white varieties now do. We, of course, cannot be presumed to form any definite opinion upon the validity of his conclusions, but judging by the sample of unhulled, and hulled wheat, we should be disposed to yield our acquiescence in the justness of his declaration, and we are the more ready to yield this point, as by the separation of the outer-coating from the farinacious parts of the berry, nearly all the coloring matter being removed, there can be but little left calculated to discolor the flour made from it.

Among the advantages claimed for this process, the circular of Mr. Bentz sets forth that a saving in time in grinding is effected of from 25 to 50 per cent., while from 40 to 52 lbs. of wheat is saved in each barrel of flour: and that this system imparts to flour made by it the capacity of keeping in hot climates. This opinion he predicates upon the hypothesis, that it is the bran, which remains in all meal ground after the old method, which causes it to sour. This opinion derives support from the fact, that what is termed dyspeptic flour—flour containing the bran—will not keep longer than a few weeks without becoming sour. Why this is so, we are not chemists enough to determine, and only note the fact as one which has come under our observation.—American Farmer.

FORMATION OF A POULTRY YARD.

As soon as it is determined to have a poultry yard, and the breed or breeds have been determined on, for some of them should be sitters, and others should supply the nests and tables with eggs, great care should be taken in the selection of the fowls; for on their healthiness, or freedom from disease, success will chiefly depend. The signs of health are as evident and as certain in the feathered tribes as in the quadrupeds. The glossiness and smoothness of the feathers, the brightness of the eye, the cleanness of the nostrils, the florid redness of the comb, the soundness of the legs, and the shortness of the claws, will be sufficient pledges of health. The male should be large of his kind, and bold and active; the hens should be gentle and tame; and, as sitters, by no means above the middle size; a small comb on the hen may be pardoned but should not be chosen. A large comb is a frequent pledge of her unquietness, and rarely belongs to a good sitter or careful nurse. They should be of a middle age, from eighteen months to two years. Before that period, the eggs will not have attained their full size, and the young broods will be proportionally small. The first inhabitants of the fowl-yard, and which will give to it its future character, should not be bought from a stranger; but there should be a certainty that the hens are good and early layers, and that they begin to lay again as soon as their brood is disposed of.

When a considerable number of fowls are kept, a poultry-house, however small and simple it may be, should be devoted exclusively to their use. In a farm-establishment it is particularly necessary, otherwise the owner will materially suffer.—They will wander away, and be liable to be killed by foxes, hawks, &c., and the eggs will be laid in all kinds of places.—This building, although well ventilated, should be warm and comfortable. Few animals suffer more from cold than our domestic fowls. The roosting places should be easy of access to the poultry, but sufficiently high to be out of the reach of vermin, and they should consist of one or more level ranges. The boxes for laying and sitting should be convenient and warm, apart from each other, and sufficiently numerous. If there be sufficient space, a yard-house should be fenced in, communicating with the poultry-house, and in which the whole stock may be occasionally confined. If it contain a stream or a pond of water, that would be a considerable advantage. At all events if the poultry wander about the yard, or other parts of the premises, their roosting, laying, and sitting-place should be comfortable, closed at night, and there they should always be fed. The poultry-yard should be dry. It should be sheltered from the northerly winds; oyster-shell lime, gravel, and brick-layers' rubbish, should be strewn in different parts of it, in which they may roll themselves at their pleasure. This is more conducive to the health of the fowls than is generally imagined, not only cleaning the feathers, but getting rid of eruption and vermin, and favoring that most important of all functions—cutaneous perspiration.

The sick will be attended to at their private dwellings.

Stanton's External Remedy,

CALLED

HUNT'S LINIMENT,

IS now universally acknowledged to be the INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Rheumatism, spinal affections, contractions of the muscles, sore throat and quinsy, issues, old ulcers, pains in the back and chest, ague in the breast and face, tooth ache, sprains, bruises, salt rheum, burns, croup, frosted feet, and all nervous diseases. The triumphant success which has attended the application of this most wonderful medicine in curing the most severe cases of the different diseases above named, and the high encomiums that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the afflicted to resort at once to the only remedy that can be relied on.

The faculty unite in recommending the celebrated External Remedy, Hunt's Liniment:

The following letters from the highly eminent Physicians who have been attached to the Mount Pleasant State Prison for many years, is the best evidence of the value of this celebrated Liniment:

SING SING, DECEMBER 26, 1845.

MY DEAR SIR:—I received your note of yesterday, asking my opinion of Hunt's Liniment, as prepared by Mr. George E. Stanton. Knowing its composition, and having frequently used it, I can recommend it to you as a safe External Remedy, and, in my opinion, the best Liniment now in use.

Very truly and respectfully yours,
A. K. HOFFMAN.

Col. Pierre Van Cortlandt, Groton Manor.

I fully concur in the above opinion.
W. N. BELCHER.

YORKTOWN, JANUARY 14, 1845.

SIR:—In reply to your letter I would say that I have used your External Remedy, called Hunt's Liniment, in my practice since you made me acquainted with its composition, and unhesitatingly say that I believe it to be the best External Remedy now in use for the complaints for which you recommend it.

Yours respectfully,
BENJ. D. MILLER, M. D.

GEORGE E. STANTON, Esq.

From the New York Sun.

Among the mass of worthless articles and humbugs that are poured forth at the present day upon the country, it really refreshing to find something of real practical utillity, something simple, speedy, and effectual in its operation, and at the same time free from those injurious effects which generally attend powerful remedies. Hunt's Liniment prepared by George E. Stanton, of Sing Sing though it has been but a short time before the public, has already obtained the confidence, not only of our most wealthy and influential citizens, but our most eminent physicians. All acknowledge it to be a sovereign balm for many of the ills that flesh is heir to, soothing the aching limb, and by its genuine stimulating influence, banishing disease from the system.

This Liniment is sold at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by all the principal Druggists and Merchants.

Orders addressed to me at Sing Sing, N Y, will be attended to, G E STANTON, Proprietor.

ROSS' EXPECTORANT

A REMEDY

For Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Spitting of Blood, Sore Throat, Pains and Oppressions of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and all other diseases of the PULMONARY ORGANS!

Read the following Certificate of Cure performed by the use of Ross's Expectorant and say if you will longer neglect your cough, or doubt its efficacy.

Baltimore, March 12, 1847.

MR. JAS. F. ROSS.

Dear Sir—About three weeks ago my wife caught a severe cold, which troubled her a good deal and gave her great uneasiness; she prepared a great many articles which were recommended to her by her friends, but without receiving the benefit from any of them; her cough was getting worse every day; her appetite was fast failing and to sleep was impossible: the pains in her breast and side became so severe that she had to go to bed, and my friends advised me to call in a Physician. I thought I would call in the store where you were engaged and see if I could not get something that would relieve her, when you gave me a bottle of your Expectorant, assuring me that it would cure her, she commenced taking it that night, not, however, without great opposition on the part of some of he friends, who said it was only some "Quack Medicine," and would do her more harm than good. But I determined to take your advice, and now let all know the Result! From taking the first dose she felt easier, though unable to sleep on account of the quantity of phlegm that loosened and would almost choke her, but which she could spit up with but little difficulty; the following day she continued it according to the directions, and that time, for the first time for nearly two weeks, she enjoyed a good night's rest and by the time she had finished the first bottle, she was entirely cured. Make what use of this you think proper, for such an invaluable medicine should be made known to the afflicted every where. With best wishes for your success,

I remain yours &c.,
CHARLES PASSWAY.

CAUTION!!! Beware of Counterfeits and Spurious Imitations. See that the initials "J. F. R" are on the seal: also my Written Signature on the wrapper of each bottle, without which none is genuine. Will be published in Washington, D. C., on the Seventh of December next,

The United States Reporter,

A Daily Journal of Government, Legislative and General News.

THE subscriber is now enabled to announce the completion of his arrangements for the establishment of a well organized and Independent Journal of News at the Seat of the General Government. The leading features of "The United States Reporter" will be the following:

I. Early intelligence of the movements of the various Departments of the Government, in reference to Domestic affairs and to the Foreign relations of the country, will be given with scrupulous fidelity. Possessing peculiar facilities for obtaining information, the "Reporter" will be enabled frequently to communicate, exclusively, intelligence of the most important character.

II. The verbatim Reports of the Proceedings and Debates of the U. States Senate, which the proprietor is bound to furnish daily to that body, in accordance with the terms of the contract made at the close of the last session of Congress. The arrangements now made will at once fully secure to the Senate of the United States an authentic and complete record of its debates; and to the people—in a greatly enlarged degree—the benefit of the experience, sagacity, and statesmanship of that body to which they have ever looked with solicitous and respectful regard.

III. The Proceedings and Debates in the House of Representatives will also be given, with fullness, impartiality, and the utmost promptitude. Each day's record will be completely made up, and appear in the "Reporter" next morning.

IV. A Synoptical View of the Proceedings and Debates of all the State Legislatures will be regularly given. Members of Congress, and all classes of readers, will thus be kept fully and systematically informed of domestic legislation in all sections of the U. States.

V. Early intelligence of all important movements in the Legislatures of Great Britain and France will be communicated by every steamer from Europe, through Reporters in London and Paris, who possess peculiar facilities for obtaining information.

VI. The General News of the Day will be given in a condensed form, with industry and attention.

Such is a brief view of what the "United States Reporter" is designed to be. All the plans and arrangements have been well matured, and the hope is confidently cherished that the "Reporter" will prove itself an energetic, industrious, dignified, and perfectly independent journal. It will have no party views—no political bias. The proprietor, by the terms of his contract with the Senate of the U. States, is bound to the condition that "the paper shall contain no political discussions except the debates." It will be a vehicle of news, not the organ of any set of opinions. The grand aim of the subscriber is to establish at the seat of Government a faithful and prompt reporter of all sorts of intelligence—a responsible agent, to which the politician, the business man, the manufacturer, the mechanic, and every one interested in the affairs of Congress and the Government, may rely at all times with implicit confidence.

It is believed that the establishment of such a reliable Journal of Intelligence, on terms which place it within reach of the great masses of the people, at the commencement of what promises to be a most interesting and eventful period in the history of Congressional proceedings, will be regarded with favor by all classes of the community; and, having thus stated his objects, the subscriber respectfully solicits a liberal and general support from the enlightened public of the United States. JAMES A. HOUSTON,

Stenographer to the Senate of the U. States.

The "United States Reporter" will be printed on a large and handsome sheet, and issued every morning, except Sundays, at the rate of $6 per annum; single copies 2 cts.

In connection with the daily paper, there will be issued from the same establishment,

THE MIRROR OF CONGRESS.

This publication will contain exclusively the reports of the proceedings and debates of the Congress of the U. States. It will be issued semi-weekly, in an elegant quarto form, throughout the sessions of Congress, and will be furnished to subscribers at the rate of two dollars for the long session, and one dollar for the short session. It is believed that this great national work will be deemed indispensable in the library of every public institution, politician, and professional man, throughout the country; and that it will be regarded by the great mass of the people as the very best political text book for their own instruction and that of their children.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.—Throughout the session of Congress, Extras will be issued from the office of the "United States Reporter," containing the reports of all such debates as may possess particularly exciting interest.

All subscriptions and communications to be postpaid and addressed to "J. A. HOUSTON, U. S. Reporter, Washington, D. C."

Dr. C. W. Appleton's Celebrated Remedy

FOR DEAFNESS,

PAINS in, and discharge of matter from, the ear, together with all other unpleasant symptoms, which either accompany or announce approaching Deafness. This invaluable medicine is the result of a long and faithfully pursued course of experiments instituted with the sole view to discover (if possible) a certain, and, at the same time, a safe remedy for this dreadfully afflicting disorder, and after being extensively used in the private practice of the subscriber during the last eight years, in very numerous cases with the most remarkable success, is now offered to the public, for the benefit of those who, from distance or other causes, cannot have the personal attention of the proprietor, in the fullest confidence of its efficacy, and in the firm belief that it will not disappoint the expectations of those who may have occasion for its use; in short, that it is the most VALUABLE article ever offered to the public for this disease.

SCEPTICISM CONFOUNDED.

More facts in relation to the wonderful efficacy of

THOMPSON'S

Compound Syrup of Tar & Wood Naptha, the BEST REMDY of the day for CONSUMPTION, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, Liver Complaint, &c., &c., &c.

READ the following from Mr. Sharp, a well known and highly respectable citizen of the Northern Liberties, Philadelphia County. This is one of the most astonishing cures on record, and, it will be seen, is attested by the Rev. Mr. STREET, and by other citizens of that district:

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 11, 1847.

Near the close of the year 1845, I had an attack of the Pleurisy and while recovering from it, I took a severe cold. My condition soon became alarming and I grew gradually worse and worse.

The symptoms manifested by my disease were those ordinarily found in pulmonary affections—but mine were of an exceedingly aggravated character. For a long period I expectorated a great quantity of matter, which appeared a mixture of pus and blood—at times it seemed as if I was discharging the very substance of the Lungs. My voice was gone so as to be unable to utter a few words without great difficulty, and I experienced a thousand other painful sensations that cannot be told. One of the most unpleasant attendants of my disease were chilling sweats. The cold perspiration ran from me continually, not only at night, but also during the day so as to keep my cloths at all times continually wet.

I employed every means of cure I could hear, and was attended by several eminent and skillful Physicians. But the obstinacy of my disease baffled all their efforts. They indeed raised me from my bed, but they also pronounced me incurable. The last Physician attending me, told me at one time, that I had but a few days to live—at another time I might linger on a few weeks or months, but that it was utterly impossible that I could get well, or ever be able to attend to my business. Thus, with no prospect of recovery I lingered on during the greater part of the year 1846—for three months of which period my friends sat up with me, expecting every night to see my sufferings end in death.

But last fall, a lady residing in Southwark, who had been cured of somewhat similar sufferings by "Thompson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Naptha," came and urged upon me a trial of it. Almost despairing of any relief, and with no hope of recovery, I commenced its use. Imagine then my satisfaction in being able to state that I am NOW WELL! and I attribute my restoration entirely to the wonderful efficacy of the above medicine. From the time I commenced its use, the disease began to yield its hold upon me, and by steady perseverance in its employment I may say it has raised me from the grave. All unpleasant symptoms have vanished and I have for several months attended to my business as formerly, and (except some less degree of strength than I once possessed,) as well as ever.

People come from various places to see me, inquiring for the man cured of Consumption! Those who have known me and are well acquainted with my long continued afflictions, stop with astonishment when they meet me, at seeing the wonderful change wrought by the use of the above medicine.

TO THE AFFLICTED!

Compound Medicated Candy.

FOR the Cure of Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchetis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Pains and Oppressions of the breast, and all other Pulmonary complaints, and other diseases which have a tendency to produce Consumption. It serves also as an effectual clearer of the voice.

This Candy is entirely a vegetable preparation, the principal ingredients being, Hore-hound, Wild Cherry, Sarsaparilla, Boneset, Elecampane, Liquorice, Flax-seed, Iceland Moss, Prickly Ash, &c. and will, if taken in time, relieve the system from those distressing afflictions that tend to Consumption.

One great advantage in this valuable medicine is its cheapness, the public not being imposed upon by the enormously high prices which are generally exacted for Patent and other medical Preparations. Each package contains directions. Call and try it!

Prepared and sold at the Confection and Variety store of the Subscriber in West York street, one square from the Court-house, and next door to Thompson's Hotel. It can also be had at the Drug Stores of S. H. BUEHLER, and S. FORNEY.

☞The subscriber as usual continues his Bakery, and is prepared to supply parties at the shortest notice, with choice cakes, &c.

DYSPEPSIA,

And and all Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

DYSPEPSIA, or Indigestion and its consequences.—An eminent Professor says: "It chiefly arises in persons who lead either a very sedentary or irregular life. Although not regarded as a fatal disease, yet, if neglected, it may bring on incurable Melancholy, Jaundice, Madness, or Vertigo, Palsy, and Apoplexy. A great singularity attendant on it is, that it may and often does continue a great length of time without any remission of the symptoms.

CAUSES.—Grief and uneasiness of mind, intense study, profuse evacuations, excess in venery, excessive use of spirituous liquors, tea, tobacco, opium and other narcotics, immoderate repletion, over distention of the stomach, adeficiency in the secretion of the bile or gastric juice, exposure to cold and damp air, are the chief causes of this disease.

SYMPTOMS.—Loss of appetite, nausea, heart-burn, acidity and fœtid eructations, gnawing of the stomach when empty, uneasiness in the throat, pain in the side, costiveness, chilliness, languor, lowness of spirits, palpitations, and disturbed sleep.

TREATMENT.—DR. ALLEN'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND has never failed in affording immediate relief and a radical cure for this disease.

DR CULLEN'S

Indian Vegetable Panacea

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE.

MESSRS. ROWAND & WALTON—Having experienced the extraordinary efficacy of your Dr. Cullen's Indian Vegetable Panacea upon my own person, a feeling of gratitude for your wonderful discovery, and a desire that your Medicines should be known and appreciated by the public, has induced me thus voluntarily to give you an account of my case, hoping that others who may be so unfortunate as I have been, may be induced to throw prejudice aside and give your Panacea a fair trial.

In February, 1846, a lump or tumor first appeared upon the spine of my right leg, and another on the lower part of my breast near the junction of the ribs; they increased gradually until the early part of June, about which time they became very painful. In July the tumor on the left leg ULCERATED and became a running sore, extending itself until it was half the size of a man's hand, and had eaten into the bone, and one or two smaller ulcers appeared below the ancle. My physician and others pronounced it Scrofula. Up to this time every remedy used gave no relief; the leg continued to get worse; during the early part of August my sufferings were intense. I neither went to bed or slept regularly for nearly two weeks, being compelled to set up, with my leg supported on a chair. About this time my son brought home with him from Cincinnati market one of your circulars, which had been thrown into the wagon. I read it, and knowing some of the signers to the Certificate of the case of Mr. Brooks, and believing from my knowledge of their characters that they would not lend their names for the purpose of palming an imposition upon the public, I concluded to try what effect it would have upon me. On the 20th of August I procured the first bottle, commenced taking it according to directions, and in four hours the pain was so much relieved that I fell asleep and enjoyed that greatest of blessings, a few hours repose. I continued using it until the 28th of August, when I found myself so much better that I went to Cincinnati to your Agent, Mr. Danenbour, with whom I made arrangements to take 20 bottles, provided he would guarantee to cure me. He agreed to do so, and gave me the privilege of stopping short of the 20 bottles, whenever I considered myself well. I now felt encouraged, and continued to use it under Mr. D's instructions, until I had taken 12 bottles, (using no other medicine whatever,) when I found myself entirely well; the tumor on my breast having softened, it opened, came out, and was healed up when I had taken 6 or 7 bottles. I will here observe, that for many years I had been troubled with a kind of dry Tetter, which greatly annoyed me, particularly when heated or warm in bed; I have felt nothing of this since taking your medicine, and have no doubt that my system is now entirely free from disease, my general health never having been better.

On the 3d of December I again called on Mr. Danenhower. I then pronounced myself well and offered to give him a Certificate to that effect, which I promised to send him in a few days. A few days thereafter, however, while killing hogs, I hurt the same leg badly, in consequence of which I postponed giving the promised Certificate, wishing thoroughly to test the permanency of the cure. I now used nothing but the usual simple remedies for fresh wounds, and found my flesh perfectly healthy, and in the usual time for such cases my leg healed. Sufficient time has elapsed to convince me that I am now a sound man and that I have been cured by your Panacea alone. In short, I have every confidence in its virtues.—Persons desirous of obtaining further particulars, can be gratified by calling at my residence, at Muddy Creek, Hamilton county, Ohio.
